Reforming Him.
The girl of whom we are about to speak was engaged to marry a young man who for many years had been busy earning a reputation as what is variously described as "a rouser," a "man about town" and a "prominent clubman." That is to say, this lady was going to take a chance on a very sporty bachelor for better and for worse.
"Dear," she said to him humbly,
"I know you like your nights out. I know you drink a little—you must teach me to mix cocktails. I know you smoke—I can learn to roll cigarettes. And I know you play cards a lot—but you can teach me to play cards."
"What a darling you are!" exclaimed the man. "I will teach you a game of cards now, and then you'll know all about it after we are married."
"Fine. What game are you going to teach me?"
"Solitaire."—Cleveland Plain Deal-

FARMERS AGREE TO HOLD WHEAT Kansas Growers Ask Big Price for 100,000,000 Bushels.

Present Price of 60 Cents Thought Too Low—Dollar a Bushel Popular Slogan.

Topeka, Kan.—Kansas farmers will hold 100,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, or 25,000,000 bushels more than the entire crop of 1913, according to W. H. Mitchell, National vice president of the Farmers' Society of Equity.
Mr. Mitchell is organizing the farmers of Kansas and urging them to hold their immense crop for higher prices.
Sixty-cent wheat in Kansas has become the rule and has turned the thoughts of the farmer to the possibility of holding his grain. When the organizers arrive in a community they find little opposition to the idea of holding the grain, Mr. Mitchell said.
"I do not believe more than one-fourth of the wheat grown this year will be sold," said Mr. Mitchell.
Grain bins of frame and cement construction are being rushed all over the state, and in many places wheat is being piled on the ground by the farmers who refuse to accept present prices for it. The Farmers' Society of Equity is campaigning for dollar wheat, but the Kansas members will sell their grain for less than that figure, it is generally believed. Most of them are preparing to hold for higher prices than the 60-cent price now offered, however.

The money order section of the country town postoffices in Kansas prove that this year is an exception with the harvest hand, as well as the wheat-growing farmer, for the harvest hand is sending his money home. This is probably due to two causes. One is that the harvest hand has learned the value of money, and the other, the farmer has learned that he must protect his helpers to be sure of getting them when they are needed.

For years the popular diversion with a certain crowd of men who followed the harvest was "harvesting the harvest hand." Gamblers began in Kansas and worked with the harvest to the Canadian border. Some of them even worked in the fields, to be better enabled to separate the harvest hand from his money. There was every sort of game that would be easily transported and quickly hidden. The layouts were not of the fancy kind, but they brought quick action on the wagers made, and the quick action resulted in shifting the money from the worker to the gambler.
This year a dozen men have been arrested for attempting to defraud harvest hands.

Gen. Orozco Starts New Revolution in Mexico Mexico City—Pascual Orozco and General Francisco Cardenas, with 4000 men, began a new revolutionary movement Monday. Orozco is operating north of Aguas Calientes, and Cardenas is preparing to invade the state of Michoacan.

Fugitives who arrived here from Contras and Tizapan, villages a few miles from Mexico City, reported a serious movement by the forces under Zapata. Zapata was attacked by the garrison, consisting of only 17 federals, was driven off, and several thousand Zapatas started pillaging and burning the houses. Tizapan is only about 12 miles from here, and connected directly with the capital by an electric railway.
Many of the inhabitants of villages in the federal district are fleeing to the capital for protection. Federal troops were dispatched from the capital to check the advance of the marauders.

Eugenic Marriage Fails.
Cleveland, Ohio—Mrs. Josephine Sanger, 26, and Joseph Sanger, 34, Monday raced to the courthouse to see who would be first to file suit to annul a eugenics marriage. Mrs.
Sanger won by a few minutes. Her petition says Sanger misrepresented his physical condition. "He told me he was a marriageable, healthy man," Mrs. Sanger said. "I found he was not." A few minutes later Sanger filed suit for divorce. He declared she misrepresented her physical condition to him. A special hearing will be held.

Hindus Removal Near.
Vancouver, B. C.—The immigration officers have decided that no steps towards removing the Komagata Maru from the harbor would be made until more provisions were taken aboard.
Immigration officers learned that the Hindus, now showing no signs of excitement, had firearms aboard and might not hesitate to use them. The officials therefore decided to postpone boarding the vessel. City police and immigration officers will take charge of the ship and conduct her out side Cape Fitzroy.

City Plans Pageants.
New York—The tercentenary of the beginning of chartered commerce in New York and the opening of the Panama canal will be celebrated in a series of pageants in Parks of this city from August 12 to October 12, according to plans of the celebration commission just announced. Boys and girls from the public schools are beginning work on costumes and other accessories to the celebrations. The legislature has voted $100,000 to help meet the expenses of the festivities.

Grashoppers in Force.
Pendleton, Or.—Not within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant" are grasshoppers been as numerous or as destructive as at present in the west end of Umatilla county. Reports are that they will greatly reduce the yield of the third cutting of alfalfa.
In some cases they have attacked orchards and by eating off the leaves of the trees have stopped the growth for this year.

NORTHWEST MARKET REPORTS.

Portland.
Portland—Nearly all the dealers are in the market for wheat, but not at the prices that growers are asking.
Farmers in the Pendleton and Walla Walla districts are holding for 70 cents net, which is more than millers or exporters can afford to pay. While some wheat has been bought at 70 and even at 71 cents, to fill July sales, buyers decline to pay these prices for later delivery.

A cargo of white Walla Walla and shipping bluestem was sold this week at 35¢ 6d, which is equal to 80¢ f. o. b. on 30s freight. On this showing it is evident that prices in Europe will have to improve or the market quotations in this territory recede.
Grain men declare they will not be able to do much business until this occurs.

Wheat—Track prices: Club, 78c per bushel; forty-fold, 79c; bluestem, 83c; red Russian, 77c; Turkey red, 81c.

Millfeed—Bran, $23@23.50 per ton; shorts, $26@26.50; middlings, $31.
Oats—No. 1 white milling, $22@ 22.50 per ton.

Barley—Feed, $21@21.50 per ton; brewing, $23.50; rolled, $23.50.
Hay—Old timothy, $16@17; new crop timothy, $12@15; grain hay, $10; alfalfa, $12.

Corn—Whole, $35; cracked, $36 ton.
The run at the stockyards was lighter than usual Monday. The demand was good and as a result the best grades of stock commanded firm prices.
Hogs sold at 15 cents higher than last week and prime steers passed the seven-cent mark.

Cattle—Prime steers, $6.70@7.25; choice, $6.50@6.75; medium, $6.25@ 6.50; choice cows, $6@6.10; medium, $5.50@5.75; heifers, $6.25@6.50; calves, $6@8.25; bulls, $3@5; stags, $4.50@6.

Hogs—Light, $8@8.75; heavy, $7@ 7.75.
Sheep—Wethers, $4@4.75; ewes, $3.25@4.25; yearlings, $4.50@4.85; lambs, $5.50@5.85.

Apples, 75c@1.25 per box;
cantaloupes, $2.25@2.75 per crate; peaches, 50c@75c per box; plums, 75c @1.25; watermelons, 1 @ 1 1/4c per pound; casabas, $2@2.50 per dozen; pears, $2@2.25 per box; blackberries, $1 per crate; grapes, $2.50 per crate.

Potatoes—Oregon, new, 1 1/4c per pound.
Eggs—Fresh Oregon ranch, case count, 24c; candied, 26@27c per dozen.

Vegetables—Cucumbers, 50¢@75¢ per box; eggplant, 15¢ per pound; peppers, 12¢@15¢; radishes, 15¢@17¢ per dozen; head lettuce, $1.75 per crate; artichokes, $1 per dozen; tomatoes, 35¢ per crate; spinach, 50¢ per pound; rhubarb, 2¢@3¢; cabbage, 1¢; peas, 5¢@6¢; beans, 4¢@6¢; corn, 20¢ per dozen.

Onions—Walla Walla, $3.25 sack.
Green Fruit—Apples, old, $1@1.75 box; new, 75c@1.50 per box; cherries, 50¢@80¢ pound.

Seattle.
Seattle—There was a scarcity of local peaches, the stock on hand being all small and undesirable. The price schedule has not been fixed. Early varieties of small body are already being shipped out of Toppenish, but none have reached this market. It is expected that within ten days the fruit will begin coming here, as shown in field reports just received here.

It is announced that the Wapato valley, with a strip of country peculiarly favorable to the growth of can-taloupes, will ship to this market. This crop is two weeks ahead of that of Yakima. Wapato also has plenty of excellent apricots. A few of the best grade are coming here, but the bulk of the shipments are moving eastward.
Eastern buyers in the Wenatchee field are offering 60¢@65¢ per crate, f. o. b.
Wenatchee.

Raspberries clean up daily, but at some sacrifice to the producer. The best fruit brings $1@1.25, but sales were down to 75¢. Blackcaps are very scarce at $1. Blackberries are coming in larger volume to sell at $1.25@1.50.
The apple trade is brisk, owing to larger receipts, greater maturity and quality. Red Junos, from Eastern Washington, are bringing 75¢ per box.
Cooking sell readily at 75¢@81¢.

There are plenty of cherries, with Royal Anns at 75¢, Bing at $1@1.15, and Lamberts at 90¢@1.15.
Cherries are slow at $1.25@1.50.

Bartlett pears are coming in slowly, and with much uncertainty, to sell at $2.75. Considerable good stock has appeared on this market, and more would be welcome. The watermelon market is demoralized, sales running down to 1¢. There were ten carloads on track at the opening, and that is more than this market will absorb without price cutting as a stimulant.

The street is glutted with tomatoes, particularly in California stock, which is selling slowly at 65¢@75¢. The battle seems to rage all around local hothouse stock, which holds steady at 75¢ @81.25.
Wheat—Bluestem, 82¢ per bushel; forty-fold, 79¢; club, 78¢; Pife, 77¢;
red Russian, 75¢.

Corn—$35@36 per ton.
Oats—Eastern Washington, $26 per ton; Puget Sound, $25@26 per ton; rolled, $27@28.

Feed—Bran, $25@26 per ton; rolled barley, $25@26; alfalfa meal, $22; alfalfa molasses, $24; whole corn, $37; cracked corn, $38.

Eggs—Select ranch, 24¢@25¢ dozen.
Poultry—Live hens, 12¢@15¢ pound; old roosters, 9¢; 1914 broilers, 14¢@17¢; ducklings, 22¢; geese, 10¢; guinea fowl, $9 per dozen.

Ranch butter—15¢ per pound.
Dressed Beef—Prime beef steers, 12¢@13¢ per pound; cows, 12¢; heifers, 12¢.

Dressed Veal—14¢ per pound.
Dressed Hogs—Whole, packing house, 13¢ per pound.
Dressed Spring Lamb—13¢ pound.
Dressed Mutton—10¢@11¢ per pound.

WOMAN WAS POOR BUT PROUD Mrs. Curran Tells Her Curious Neighbors That District Visitor Is Only Her Dressmaker.

A lady, who is a district visitor, became much interested in a very poor but apparently respectable Irish family named Curran living on the top floor of a great building in a slum district of her parish.
Every time she visited the Currans she was annoyed by the staring and the whispering of the other women living in the building. One day she said to Mrs. Curran:
"Your neighbors seem very curious to know who and what I am and the nature of my business with you."
"They do," acquiesced Mrs. Curran.
"Do they ask you about it?"
"Indeed they do, ma'am."
"And do you tell them?"
"Faith, thin, O! do not."
"What do you tell them?"
"O! just tell them," was the calm reply, "that ye are me dressmaker, an' let it go at that."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

A Small Detail.
Enthusiastic Reporter (to city editor)—I've got a story here about a man who drank poison, cut an artery in his wrist, shot himself and jumped into the river in an attempt to commit suicide. Somebody pulled him out, sent him to a hospital, and he's going to live. It's a cracking good yarn.

Nature.
"Behold that exquisite sunset!" he exclaimed. "Note the delicate flesh tints, the cream shades, the lone dashes of vermilion and the almost living fire that leaps up from the sinking sun as from a fountain. Behold the framework of darkening skies and of deep green! Isn't it wonderful!" His fair companion sighed heavily.
"You just bet it is!" she exclaimed.
"It looks just like a great, big lobster powder to blow them over the fence."

"And it didn't have the desired effect?"
"No, it made him furiously angry."

Kind Man.
"You don't know how to handle a woman," said Mr. Peck. "Keep your mouth shut and refuse to talk when she is roasting you. Why, do you argue with your wife?"
"Oh, well," replied Mr. Gabb. "The fer with you in the diagnosis."

"I know they do," replied the doctor, who had great confidence in himself, "but the autopsy will show who was right."—Kansas City Times.

An Englishman, who recently vis-hunting big game in the west and in a fellow Britisher, who was lion-

This sportsman had had excellent luck. Nearly every day he would pose beside a freshly killed lion or other beast and his photographer would snap him for the magazines.
One afternoon the picture man, who was taking a nap in the hut, was awakened by a loud noise. He arose and looked out. Sprinting toward him from the woods, came his chief. At a considerable distance behind, luckily for the hunter, stalked a huge lion.

It cost a great deal of money, and I would hate to have it carelessly broken the first thing.
Sarah (three days later)—There's your vase, ma'am, and I couldn't have broken it more carefully if I'd tried for a month.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Blood Troubles Are Often Hard to Locate Catarrh, for Example May Be the Cause of Very Serious Illness.

A slight trouble often brings serious blood disorders.
Rheumatism means family elimination.
These and a hundred other symptoms are easily recognized, but where is the trouble.
Where is it located? What is wrong with the body machine?
If you will go into any first class store and get a bottle of S. S. S. you are on the way to getting rid of these conditions that cause sickness and disease. But don't let anyone work "that old trick of something just as good." S. S. S. is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other poisoning substances, cleanses the system and effectually cleanses the system and puts an end to all pollution. S. S. S.
