The Tatler tells the story of an old Scotchman whose wit was edged with pessimism. One morning he met at her gate a neighbor whose husband was seriously ill.

"Nae, nae, you've made a mistake! Sandy's temperature could never be as muckle as 150—at least, not in this world," he added as an afterthought. —Youth's Companion.

DON'T SUFFER WITH ITCHING

My, what relief!—The moment resinol ointment touches any itching skin, the itching stops and healing begins. With the aid of resinol soap, it quickly removes all trace of eczema, rash, tetter, ringworm, pimples or other ugly, tormenting eruption, and leaves the skin clear and healthy. It is equally effective for sunburn, insect bites, sores, boils, burns, red, rough hands, dandruff and falling hair.

You need never hesitate to use resinol. It is a doctor's prescription that has been used by other physicians for the past 19 years in the treatment of most sorts of skin affection. Unlike many other remedies, it contains absolutely nothing that could injure the tenderest skin. Resinol ointment and resinol soap are sold by all druggists. Look out for worthless imitations.—Adv.

The Retort Courteous.

Dr. Oliver W. Holmes was small in stature. Upon one occasion he was present at a meeting which happened to be attended by a number of very large men, thus making his diminutive size rather conspicuous in contrast. One of these men—doubtless wishing to make him feel at ease—came up to him and said:

"Well, Dr. Holmes, I should think you would feel rather small among all these fellows."

"I do," replied the doctor, "I feel like a 3-cent piece among a lot of pennies."—New York Globe.

GERMANY CALLS WAR ON RUSSIA

Great European Conflict Begun; England Stands Aloof.

Situation Is Germany and Austria Against Russia, France and Servia—Italy Neutral.

London—Events in the European crisis developed Sunday with startling rapidity. The German ultimatum to Russia, demanding that Russia cease the mobilization of her army, expired at noon, and at 5:15 o'clock in the afternoon the German emperor signed a mobilization order.

At 7:30 o'clock the German ambassador at St. Petersburg delivered a declaration of war in the name of his government to the Russian government, and the entire staff of the embassy immediately left St. Petersburg.

Although, after the warlike speeches delivered by the German emperor and the imperial chancellor at Berlin on Friday, no other result could be expected, hopes that the dread event might be averted had been raised by the intervention of King George in St. Petersburg. Hence the actual declaration of war had not been expected for another day or two.

Now the die is cast and Europe is to be plunged into a general war, which has been the apprehension of European statesmen for generations. It is now only a question of how soon a state of actual war will exist between Germany and France.

Placards were posted in Paris calling for general mobilization, and the German ambassador, although he had not been handed his passports, was preparing to leave the French capital.

It is not known exactly at what hour Germany's ultimatum to France, asking that country to define what attitude she would assume in case of a war by Germany and Austria against Russia, was to expire, but it is believed it will not be long before diplomatic relations will be ruptured or war declared.

The German emperor and his advisers have maintained to the last that they made supreme efforts for the sake of peace, and the last of the series of earnest appeals from Emperor William to Emperor Nicholas, a telegram repudiating responsibility for the calamity threatening the world, on grounds that while Germany was engaged in mediating with Austria-Hungary at Russia's request, Russia by her general mobilization was threatening Germany's safety.

Americans in Paris Safe But Many in Dire Need

Paris — The situation of Americans on account of the war crisis was much worse Monday. Their panic was increased by the closing of banks, Cook's agency and American Express at noon. However, the latter two concerns met all paper with cash and promises to open soon.

The inability to secure money is the chief peril of the Americans, for there will be plenty of trains to boats after mobilization is over.

Ambassador Herrick, however, considers the financial situation so critical, it is reported, he will ask Washington to send a swift cruiser with a cargo of gold to enable Americans to cash their checks, at present useless. He also will ask for transports to facilitate getting out of the country.

In case war is declared America will take over the business of the German embassy here, and in Berlin Ambassador Gerard will assume the business of the French embassy. This mutual accommodation on the part of the United States will prevent any ill feeling toward American citizens in either country, assuming German business means a tremendous amount of work. Ambassador Herrick said there were still 100,000 Germans in the country. In case they are given the order immediately to leave France they will be herded over the Spanish frontier to the furthest point from home.

Germans' Cable-Cutting Fails.

Copenhagen — German torpedo boat destroyers, operating outside the Danish Sea terriotry, made an unsuccessful attempt to cut the cable communication to Russia by way of Roedvig, Denmark.

The Fehmarn Bell is crowded with German dreadnaughts and other big warships, which are accompanied by transport vessels. A number of Russian vessels also have been observed in that vicinity. Nearly all the steamship lines between Germany and Denmark have stopped their boats.

McReynolds Is Favorite.

Washington, D. C.—Senate leaders expect to see Attorney General McReynolds nominated for the Supreme court vacancy. At the White House the only statement available was that he was foremost in President Wilson's consideration. In official circles, Secretary Lane is regarded as a most likely successor to Mr. McReynolds for attorney general. It was said the President had practically deterfmined to promote the attorney general to the vacancy on the Supreme bench court in succession to the late Associate Justice Lurton.

6000 Gather at Palace.

London—There was a scene of great enthusiasm outside Buckingham Palace Monday. A crowd of 6000 gathered before the palace, sang the national anthem, and called for King George, who, with Queen Mary, appeared on a balcony and bowed in response to cheers given for him and for France.

Japan Takes War Move.

Tokio—The emperor has specially summoned the privy council to consider Japan's attitude with relation to the European war. The emperor has asked Lieutenant General Oka, the minister of war, to report to him on the condition of the army.

NORTHWEST MARKET REPORTS.

Portland.

Portland — Only a small amount of local business is under way in the grain market. The wheat export situation showed no improvement, in fact was worse than ever, and shippers decline to predict when there may be a change for the better, or how it is to be brought about. The tieing up of the Oriental trade has also closed any possible outlet in that direction.

Wheat prices are nominal. In some quarters club is quoted around 81 or 82 cents, and by other dealers at 84 cents. No considerable quantity could be purchased at the lower figures and not much is wanted.

The barley market is sluggish and weak. The export barley trade is in the same position as the wheat trade. Prices of both feed and brewing are nominal. December barley was quoted 2 cents lower at 97 cents at San Francisco. The oats market was also inactive.

Much grain hay from the valley is being put on the market. Owing to the lack of warehouse room in the country, growers are forcing sale here at prices offered by dealers. Eastern Oregon timothy will begin moving in about two weeks.

Wheat — Track prices: Club, 81@84c per bushel; other grades nominal.

Millfeed—Bran, $23@23.50 per ton; shorts, $26@26.50; middlings, $31.

Oats — No. 1 white, $21; gray, $20 per ton.

Flour — Patents, $4.80 per barrel; exports, $3.650@3.65; valley, $4.50; graham, 4.80; whole wheat, $5.

Barley — Feed, $19.50@20 per ton; brewing, $21; rolled, $22.50.

Hay — Old timothy, $16@17; new crop timothy, $13@15; grain hay, $8@10; alfalfa, $11@12.

Corn—Whole, $35; cracked, $36 per ton.

Egg receipts are again declining, and this should soon affect the market. At the present time trade is slow and former prices are in force.

Arrivals of poultry are not large, but sufficient. Hens sold at 13½@14 cents and springs were quoted at a wide range of 13 to 16 cents, according to size.

Dressed meats were in small supply and prices were firm with an upward tendency.

No changes were reported in the butter or cheese markets.

Eggs — Fresh Oregon ranch, case count, 23@23½c; candled, 25@26c.

Poultry—Hens, 13½@14c per pound; springs, 13@16c; turkeys, 20c; dressed, choice, 22c; ducks, 10 @ 11c; geese, 10c.

Butter — Creamery prints, extras, 28@30c per pound; cubes, 24c.

The run of stock over Sunday was one of the largest the North Portland yards has ever had, amounting to 101 cars. Cattle receipts were unusually heavy, and as a result the market eased off from last week's high level, but the weakness is believed only temporary.

The bulk of the selling was in the cattle division. About 50 carloads of steers were sold and the best price realized was $7.50. The bulk of sales were at $7 to $7.35.

Cattle — Prime steers $7.25@7.50; choice, $6.75@7; medium, $6.25 @ 6.50; choice cows, $6@6.25; medium, $5.50 @ 5.75; heifers, $6.25 @ 6.50; calves, $6@8.25; bulls, $3@5; stags, $4.50@6.

Hogs—Light, $8@9; heavy, $7@8.

Sheep — Wethers, $4@4.75; ewes, $3.50 @ 4.25; yearlings, $4 @ 5.50; lambs, $5.50@6.50.

Seattle.

Seattle—Chickens are a bane on the market, while fresh butter and fresh local eggs are comparatively scarce. This is not unusual at this season of the year, and it is likely that a slight advance in both of these commodities will be announced during the week.

So overstocked is the market with chickens of all kinds and descriptions that the packers are the only ones paying good prices.

According to one merchant, fresh butter and fresh local eggs are at a premium. The price of butter so far is standing at 28c for Washington creamery and 29c for bricks.

Eggs, fresh locals, at this time last year were on the advance and a similar conditionis predicted for this week unless a supply comes in. The demand seems to hold firm according to various merchants along the row.

Eggs—Select ranch, 30c per dozen; Chinese, 18c; Eastern Aprils, 28c; local Aprils, 28@29c.

Butter—Washington creamery firsts, cubes, 28c per pound; do. bricks, 29c; city creamery, bricks, 29c; Oregon, 28c; jobbing basis, 25½@26c.

ALL EUROPE ON FULL WAR BASIS

Faint Peace Hope Seen in New Negotiations of Russia.

Communications Cut Off Between Countries, Trains Halt and Censorships General.

London — An extraordinary council of ministers held at Peterhof, according to a St. Petersburg dispatch to the Times, was confronted Saturday night with a modified situation, resulting from assurances by the German ambassador, following messages exchanged between the Russian emperor, the German emperor and King George.

The impression among the ministers, the dispatch adds, is that Germany is disposed to bring influences to bear upon Austria to resume diplomatic conversations on grounds acceptable to the other European powers, and there seems some hope of a compromise.

London—There are only two factors giving the faintest hope of averting a general European war.

First—Russia and Austria are engaged again in direct negotiations.

Second — Both Great Britain and France are using their utmost endeavors in favor of peace.

On the other hand, Russia has ordered a general mobilization and Germany has declared a state of siege, which is undoubtedly a prelude, if it does not cover, mobilization.

KAISER WILLIAM
Orders State of War in Germany.

France has not yet mobilized, but cabinet councils, which sat until late at night, issued decrees establishing a moratorium and taking other action which could only be determined upon the eve of war. Unofficially the French army is being virtually mobilized.

A circumstantial, though as yet unconfirmed report, published in Rome, says that Germany is about to demand from both Russia and France the immediate cessation of mobilization. Yet another rumor has it that the German ambassador has notified the French government of his departure.

Great Britain is practically, though not officially, mobilized, and the smaller European states, as a precaution, have ordered the mobilizatoion of their armies—Belgium, Holland and Switzerland, to protect their territory from being used as a highway for the belligerents; Norway, Sweden and Denmark to guard themselves on general principles.

Noted Socialist Leader Is Slain in Restaurant

Paris—Jean Leon Juares, the noted Socialist leader, was assassinated Saturday night when dining in a small restaurant near the bourse. The assassin was arrested, but refused to disclose his identity. Later he was identified as Raoul Villain, 29 years old, and said to be the son of a clerk of the civil court at Rheims.

The minister of the interior, Louis Malvy, on learning of the crime, left the meeting of the council and ordered precautions to be taken to prevent demonstrations.

M. Jaures was seated at a table near an open window, facing the Rue Montmartre, chatting with several Socialist deputies and the editors of the l'Humanite. As though by prearrangement, the curtain covering the window was lightly brushed aside and a hand, holding a revolver, was thrust through.

Before M. Jaures could move he received two bullets in the head.

All Dispatches Refused.

Berlin — All dispatches refused by the authorities as objectionable are now being returned to the senders, and a rigid censorship on telegrams to all parts of the world has been put into operation. Official confirmation of the reported blowing up by Russian troops of the railroad bridge between Granica, Russian Poland, and Szozakova and Galicia, on the railroad from Warsaw to Vienna, was received here. Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany was appointed to the command of the First Division of the Imperial Guards.

Japan to Hold Off to Last.

San Francisco—"Japan will be the last nation to enter the vortex that is now threatening Europe," said Y. Numano, Japanese consul general at San Francisco, at a luncheon given by officials of the Panama-Pacific exposition in honor of Haruki Yamawaki, Japanese commissioner general to the exposition. "In two wars within recent years my county has shown what she can do in the art of war," said the consul general. "Here at this exposition next year we hope to show what we can do in the art of peace."

War News Makes Frenzy Among Wheat Traders

Chicago—The wildest scenes witnessed in the wheat pit of the board of trade here since the opening of the 20th century were precipitated Wednesday by Austria's declaration of war against Servia.

Transactions totaling nearly 100,000,000 bushels sent prices skyward, the net rises being from 8¼ to 9¼ cents.

Stories of fortunes made and lost were numerous, the most specific case of sudden riches being that of a heretofore obscure trader, who actually pocketed $25,000, which he had netted in an interval of exactly five minutes.

Hundreds of spectators thronged the galleries watching the traders struggling in the pit.

The uproar was plainly audible in the streets surrounding the board of trade building.

Although failures were momentarily looked for, there were none announced. Margins were being called for right and left, and to such a wide degree that it seemed certain the volume of business would be greatly restricted regardless of how high or low the market might go.

The risk of speculating at all in such a frenzied market formed strangley one of the elements that promised to bring about speedy order, notwithstanding that the close was at the tip top of the excitement, with prices at the highest pinnacle reached.

How hazardous the situation was deemed was shown by the action of leading firms in demanding that all customers put up margins of 20 cents a bushel on every trade.

The first throb of excitement was given when the news came that quotations had been discontinued at Paris. Bullish feeling rose rapidly after advices were received that Germany would stand aloof from any peace conference. Even after the bulletin of the declaration of war there was a check in the shape of a report that Servia had conceded everything asked. It was the dispatches later seeming to involve Russia and Great Britain that carried speculators completely off their feet.

In the end the market resolved itself into a spectacle of bulls frantically selling to bulls.

France Quietly Preparing for All-Europe Conflict

Paris—The French government and people appear to be quietly preparing for war. The government is simply awaiting the decision of Russia.

Troop trains are ready and representatives of the army are on duty in the telegraph, telephone and postoffices. Large posters on the bulletin boards in the postoffices, city halls and other public buildings will apprise the soldier citizen of exactly the hour when his instructions become effective.

The cabinet met late Tuesday and received reports from ministers. If any decisions were reached they have been kept closely guarded. Abel Ferry, under secretary of foreign affairs, who took part in the cabinet council, is on his way to Dunkirk to meet President Poincare.

According to what is believed to be responsible opinion, there remains the possibliity that when Austria has occupied some Servian territory she will in a day or two announce her intention not to proceed further, but to hold what she has taken until Servia gives competent guarantees that she will observe Austria's wishes.

Russia would not then be likely to intervene, it is argued, except diplomatically, and negotiations appear to be going on at the present time between Austria and Russia.

On the announcement of war Paris became animated. There were patriotic demonstrations in the capital and many other cities throughout the republic, but there were also demonstrations against the war.

Fear of Gold Drain Allayed.

Washington, D. C.—With nearly $1,300,000,000 in gold coin and bullion stored in treasury vaults and about $600,000,000 more of coin in circulation, treasury officials say that the United States had no cause for alarm over the tremendous shipments of gold from New York to war-clouded Europe. Secretary McAdoo explained that the country never was in a better position to send some of its millions aboard and declared there was nothing to fear from the drain to meet European demands.

More Guns Landed.

Dublin — A consignment of 4000 rifles for the Irish Nationalist Volunteers was landed in the night at Newcastle, on the coast of County Wicklow. The gun-runners evaded the coast guards and police conveyed the weapons to Dublin in motor cars. Two gunboats were in the bay at the time flashing their lights. The coroner's inquest on the victims of Sunday's fighting between the King's Own Scottish Borderers and the crowd, adjourned until Thursday at the request of the lawyers representing the soldiers.

Stand Drops 30 Women.

Tacoma, Wash. — Form all parts of the Northwest prominent anti-tuberculosis workers are in Tacoma to attend the annual meeting of the Washington State association for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis and the Northwest Anti-Tubercular conference, which opened here. The delegates attended the laying of the cornerstone of the new $25,000 sanitarium being built by Pierce county. During the ceremony a scaffolding gave way, dropping 30 women into an excavation pit. Several were slightly bruised.

200,000 Attend Funeral.

Dublin—More than 200,000 persons, standing bareheaded and silent in the streets, saw the funeral procession of the three persons killed last Sunday when the King's Own Scottish Borderers fired into a mob in the course of an attepmt by the police and soldiers to seize arms which were being brought into Dublin for use by the Irish Nationalist volunteers. All shops were closed.

Triumphs of American Medicine.

In 1914 medical science will save 570,000 lives in the United States, as a result of the progress that medicine has made in 24 years. Applying to the whole country the death rate that obtained in 1890 this year would witness the death of 1,960,000 people. Applying the death rate of 1912 the total number of deaths will approximate 1,390,000 people. Enough people to populate a city like Baltimore will be saved in a single year by the progress of medical science. The whole world was stirred to the core when the Titanic went down, and yet the toll of 500 Titanics would not be as great as the number of lives saved in a single year by medical science, comparing 1890 with 1912.—Washington Post.

Might Repeal His Learning.

In the old days, when oral examinations were still the thing, an examining board was pommeling an applicant with questions from Blackstone, Kent and other legal lights.

"I didn't study anything about these fellows," complained the applicant.

"What did you study?" asked one of the judges.

"I studied the statutes of the state," he replied. "I studied them hard. Ask me a question about them and I'll show you. That is where I got my legal knowledge."

"My young friend," said one austere judge on the examining board, "you would better be very careful, for some day the legislature might meet and repeal everything you know."—Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

"The next day at the office he was heard to remark with a chuckle:

Henry Irving, in his early days, once played a part which in the first act called for a dark stage. In this darkness he fought with an old earl, threw him heavily and, when he did not rise after the loud thud of his fall, Irving would cry out:

"Great heavens! What have I done?"

One night he played the part in a small English town. A stage hand was very much impressed with the play and to him the scenes quickly became real. So that when Irving reached the climax, felled the old earl to the ground and spoke the line, "Great heavens! What have I done?" he was startled to hear the stage hand say in a loud voice:

"Strike a match and we'll have a look."—New York Globe.
