WILL VOTE ON CITY CHARTER

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a notice of a call for a city election to determine whether the city charter which will be presented to the voters in next week's issue, shall be accepted or rejected. The charter was prepared by Judge Derby of Hood River. He attended a meeting of the common council last Wednesday night and with the councilmen, read the charter by chapter and article, a process which took until midnight to finish. The charter is based on that of Hood River and is "water-tight." It will appear on pages two and three of next week's issue and we advise every voter to secure a copy of the Bulletin and read it.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Mosier Commercial Club was held in Chown's Hall Monday night last, with about two dozen members present. The others "forgot" about it, although due notice was given.

After the routine business was transacted the members proceeded to elect officers for the coming year, with the following results: President, H. M. West; Vice-President, E. W. Davidhizar; Secretary, Dr. Robinson; Treasurer, L. J. Merrill. These officers, with W. C. Stone, C. G. Nichol and H. E. Birkner, duly elected, constitute the board of directors.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the club tonight, when matters of general public interest will be discussed.

Since the club was reorganized last February, it has accomplished much in the way of public improvements and it has more in view for the future.

Remarks were made by J. K. McGregor, the out-going president, who enumerated the various projects which the club had inaugurated and successfully consummated, and cited several more that would probably be taken up this winter.

H. M. West, the president-elect, made a short speech, outlining the work of the club for the winter, and emphasizing the necessity for unanimous and harmonious effort.

A rising vote of appreciation and thanks was tendered J. K. McGregor, as president, W. C. Stone, for his generosity in the matter of gravel donation, and to the other directors for their efforts in behalf of the club.

Refreshments were served at a late hour and the members left well satisfied with the meeting.

Why Make Oregon the Goat?

Why Is OREGON Picked for Alleged Nationwide Prohibition Fight?

Why Have Eastern Millionaires Brought THIS Agitation to THIS Pacific Coast State?

It is not generally known in Oregon that the proposed prohibition amendment to the State Constitution is an issue framed by men who have no personal interest in this state.

Who the real politicians are who comprise this group of men is kept a profound secret from the people of Oregon. Their real motive is likewise kept a secret. All that is made public is that they are philanthropists, who are bent on saving humanity. Millions have been raised to accomplish this philanthropic work of saving a nation; but these millionaire philanthropists are not being told to the public.

The question naturally must arise, therefore, in the minds of Oregon voters: Since when have these kind of millions worked for the uplift of real humanity?

Having brought nearly every necessity of human life in this nation under their monopolistic control, not for the good of humanity, but for the satisfaction of their own greed, why are they now so clamorous, so noisy in their demands for nationwide prohibition? Is it not the duty of every voter in Oregon first to "stop," "look" and "listen" for a moment and to ask himself or herself:

Why have these Eastern millionaire philanthropists so suddenly turned their spots? Why so anxious for humanity? Is there a "dollar reason" lurking behind the movement some-where?

Why do they not come to Oregon with a uniform issue? Why do they frame one issue for Washington to catch votes in that state and another issue in Oregon to catch votes here? Why do they not frame one issue for all states? Why do they not put into the Oregon issue a provision against distribution and giving away of liquor? Why do they only want the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages prohibited here in Oregon? Are they truly working for prohibition or even true temperance, or is there a joker somewhere which they are asking the good people of Oregon to swallow in the shape of a constitutional amendment? Why have they included the words "manufacture, sale, giving away and transportation from one point to another" in the California amendment now being agitated in that state? Is it because they know in advance that they will lose that state by at least 200,000 votes and are resorting to political trickery so common with millionaire philanthropists in order that they may delude the people in other states as to what they are "fighting for in California"?

Why do they not bring that same issue to Oregon? What are these Eastern millionaire philanthropists really trying to do? Are they really worrying about humanity and Oregon or is it some new scheme to control something to make some new kind of dollars that is worrying them?

Why is it they have framed a law for the Washington voters on our North for this fall which provides that a half gallon of alcohol or a dozen bottles of beer may be bought every two weeks by an adult person? This would permit Washington to stay drunk all the time. Why do they claim that that is temperance or prohibition? Why do they not bring one of these three issues to all three Pacific Coast States? Why are not all sister states made to confront the same issue at the same time? Is it not a national organization, with a national fund of millions, with a national program to do nationwide good to humanity? Or are they really working for nationwide temperance or prohibition, after all? Or is there something entered up by these millionaire Easterners? Is it some new scheme to get the public to help them to make some new kind of dollars?

Why has Oregon been selected as the focusing point for this campaign of Eastern millionaires? Why should it be the one state of all Pacific Coast states to have 3,000 men thrown out of employment, 1,500 to 2,000 more homes made empty, 1,000 more stores made vacant, a $6,000,000 hoarding industry crippled, incomes reduced, realty values depressed, taxes made tremendously higher and business ascribed when the very millionaire philanthropists who have framed the Oregon amendment have not proposed a true temperance issue?

Many right minded men and women of Oregon, not knowing all the foregoing facts and other facts to be published in these columns from issue to issue, have been deceived by the lot of motives in supporting the issue brought to them by these Eastern millionaires. They have been made to feel that they were entering in a national fight for temperance and in too many cases have been blindly led into the support of a cause which will not only injure true temperance, but make present admitted hard times in this state twice and three times as hard as the proposed statewide prohibition amendment is adapted. Stagnation would have been created, yet any husband, son, brother or father would be able to transport liquor into and through the state and to give it away if the present splendid home rule and local option laws are replaced by a state constitutional amendment and the control of the liquor traffic is turned over to the state police authorities. Even then, would true temperance have been secured at this fatal expense of stagnation?

SCHOOL OPENS

The Mosier public school was opened on Monday morning for the fall and winter term, with an attendance of 84. Of this number, 8 are in the high school, 18 in the 7th and 8th grades, 23 in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, and 35 in the primary room.

The board was fortunate in securing the services of Prof. E. E. Amsden, of Washington, as principal of the high school. He has had fifteen years' experience as a teacher and comes highly recommended. Miss Malada, of Minnesota, will have charge of the Intermediate department. She also brings excellent credentials as an instructor. Mr. Ross of the Grammar department, and Miss Alice Bennett, of the Primary room, are well known, having filled their positions most satisfactorily last term.

Indications are that this term will prove most profitable to all. The teachers appear to have won the confidence and good will of the pupils, who seem eager to learn. The parents should show their interest in the school and their children by visiting school frequently, lending encouragement and moral support to the teachers. This helps to make a good school.

TELEPHONE COMPANY EXTENDS LINE

The Mosier Valley Telephone Co. has a crew of men extending their local service line from town south about seven or eight miles, the objective point being the C. A. Brown ranch. The line is about completed to the Godbersen place, about a mile this side of the proposed terminal.
