CALIFORNIAN JINGOES MUST NOT PROVOKE WAR

[November Sunset Magazine.]
Japan became exceedingly nervous when, after its ultimatum to Germany had been delivered, American criticism of Japanese aggression reached Nippon. So wrought up was the populace that reports of the departure of the American battleship fleet for the Far East, rumors of contemplated armed support for Germany, found widespread credence. It required energetic, reassuring denials by the Japanese government to allay the fears of the populace. And after the Japanese occupation of Jaluit and of the Carolines the Japanese press resented even the very tactful unofficial American inquiries regarding the intentions of Japan in the South Pacific.

The domestic affairs of Japan are not in an ideal condition. High taxes, the naval graft scandals, the prolonged contest between the aristocracy and the masses, unsatisfactory industrial conditions, disastrous earthquakes and crop failures in parts of the empire have contributed to the restlessness of the people. Japan is not in a placid mood. And it distrusts the United States. It has shown that it is ready to believe the wildest rumors concerning American intentions. Yet Japan, and especially Premier Okuma, at heart sincerely desire to remain on friendly terms with the United States. Out of such mutual distrust and suspicion the European war was born; it behooves the United States to act with the greatest circumspection in its dealings with the nervous Japanese.

With special force does this admonition apply to California. Owing to a lack of support, Tweitmo's Asiatic Exclusion League has gone out of business. The death of the League proves definitely that there is no popular demand whatsoever for anti-Japanese measures. The anti-alien land law has accomplished its purpose; no new land purchases are being made by Japanese. The small amount of land now being held by them will gradually be restored to white ownership or else descend to the American-born Japanese who have the full rights of citizenship.

OPENING OF THE TUMALO PROJECT

Portland, Ore., Nov. 19. - The opening of the Tumalo irrigation project, the first in the United States to be financed by a state, has been announced. Seventeen thousand five hundred acres are thrown open to entry under the terms of the Carey Act at $40 per acre. The terms are one-tenth cash, the balance in ten years. Detailed information may be had by addressing the project engineer, O. Laurgaard, at Laidlaw, Ore.

It is stated that the lands under this project are excellent for grains and hardy vegetables, and stock raising is also successful. The high altitude renders this section subject to frosts in late spring and early fall and frosts have been known to occur during the summer months. It is expected that this condition will improve to some extent as the land is cultivated, but people desiring to locate on this land are advised to make a personal inspection instead of trusting to unofficial reports.

Miss Lenora Stone was a week end visitor in Portland.

J. P. Ross visited relatives in Portland on Sunday last.

Mrs. Dick Evans and Mrs. J. R. Wilcox spent Saturday in Hood River.

Prof. Amsden, who has been on the sick list for a fortnight, is slowly recovering.

INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

"Uncle Lee" Evans, who has been goose hunting in Gilliam since the first of the month, was badly cut and bruised in an automobile accident last Saturday, and that he is alive today is no doubt due to the fact that the scene of the accident was in a field where the ground was soft. Mr. Evans, in company with two friends, were hunting geese in an auto and were running at considerable speed when one of the front wheels dropped into a hole, breaking an axle. The car turned turtle, pinning the occupants underneath. Mr. Evans received a severe cut on his head and bruises on his body, the owner of the car was killed outright, and the other member of the party was seriously injured. Mr. Evans recovered sufficiently to refuse to return home with his son Fred, who went up to Blalock Saturday night. He said he intended to stay and shoot some more geese, and he is still up there.

Train No. 4, east, will arrive at 9:10 P. M.

Mass Meeting

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of Mosier next Monday night, in Chown's Hall, at 7:30, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the city officers to be filled at the election on December 8 next.

Immediately after the meeting closes, another meeting will be held for the purpose of devising ways and means of raising funds to be applied on the construction of the boat landing road.

It is desired that all persons, in or out of town, who are interested directly or indirectly in the boat landing, attend this latter meeting.

SOME POTATOES

George Rorden brought in some fancy potatoes this week that were raised on his ranch east of town. They were the "Early Bovee," a comparatively new variety in this neighborhood and are beauties, the color being a bluish pink, and very uniform in size. They were grown in ordinary soil, planted the 10th day of June and received no care whatever after planting, and for size they're like what "hogs dream on when they're most too fat to snore." They are fine cooking potatoes and especially good for baking and should command a good price in large hotels and on dining cars.

The five specimens which Mr. Rorden displayed here weighed 9lbs. 7oz.

RAISE FUNDS FOR RED CROSS

The Mosier school has contributed the sum of $8.67 for the Red Cross Society, to be used for relief of the suffering caused by the war in Europe.

The voluntary offerings of the different rooms were as follows: Primary room, $3.52; Intermediate, $1.85; Seventh and Eighth grades, $1.90; High School, $1.40.

Miss Annie Robinson, who has recently returned from China, where she is a missionary, is here visiting her brother, Dr. David Robinson, and wife.

Farmer's Week Postponed

Farmers and other citizens of Oregon who are planning to attend Farmers' Week at the Agricultural College are hereby notified that the date has been postponed to February 1 to 6, 1915. The changed and enlarged character of the exercises have made this change necessary. Many conventions of leaders of the various agricultural interests of the state will be held at that time in addition to the special technical instruction and demonstration commonly given. Leaders of national reputation from various parts of the country and from the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be present to address these conventions.

NOTED ENTERTAINER COMING

Miss Grace V. Bonner, whose unparalleled success as an entertainer has won for her renown in both Canada and the United States, will give a recital in Immanuel Church on Wednesday evening, December 2nd, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.

A noted Eastern instructor says of her: "Miss Bonner has made a special study of her art. She is one of the most gifted entertainers before the public and is very popular with every audience."

The Dalles Chronicle says: "Besides a finished elocutionist, Miss Bonner has ventriloquism down to a fine point and uses it to good advantage in her selections."

Don't forget the time and the place. Popular prices will prevail.

READY. This store is ready with all good things to eat for Thanksgiving dinner--a day that should be observed in every home. If you know of any needy ones in the Mosier District, tell Strauss today.

A meeting of stockholders in the co-operative creamery was held at Junction City recently and attended by 450 ranchers. The secretary's report showed that during the two years the plant has been operated 233,933 pounds of butter have been made valued at $67,035, and the sales of by-products has brought the gross receipts up to $63,531. The average price of butter for the two years has been 33 1-3 cents per pound, the lowest price having been 25 cents and the highest 40 cents.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving. Don't forget to be properly thankful for your individual blessings which are many, although you may not realize the fact. But compare your circumstances with the condition of things and people in Europe today, and then get down on your knees and thank the Lord for the blessings of peace and prosperity. Surely this nation is peculiarly blessed, and every day should be one of Thanksgiving by the nation and the individual.
