We call our readers' attention to a new advertisement in this week's issue. It is that of the Anderson Undertaking Company of Hood River. Mr. Anderson, the proprietor, is a gentleman of years' experience in the undertaking business and is ready at short notice to attend to any day or night calls. He carries a complete line of caskets at most reasonable prices. Arrangements will be made to have photographic samples, with prices, on display in Mosier, so that those in need of his services may be able to see what they want and know what it will cost without leaving home. A phone message will save time and expense. We recommend Mr. Anderson as a thorough gentleman, and assure the public that he will give the best of service.

'HOWD'Y PAP'

Are you a member of a Fraternal Organization? Do you enjoy the benefits derived therefrom? Have you an exclusive clubroom available for your entertainment?

Are you protected in case of sickness, or is your family protected at your death? Would you like to become a member of a Brotherhood whose influence is felt the world over? Do you want to meet and mingle with live-wire men? Do you want to elevate your standing in the community.

Facts About the Loyal Order of Moose

The Loyal Order of Moose initiated more members in 1913 than all other fraternal organizations in America combined.

The Supreme and subordinate lodge assets of the Loyal Order of Moose are five and one-half millions.

Over $6,000,000 handled by the subordinate lodges during the year 1913-14 in the payment of sick, accident and funeral benefits.

The sun never sets on the Loyal Order of Moose.

A large percentage of our leading citizens, including the President and Vice-President of the United States, are members of the Loyal Order of Moose.

An order whose aim is to amalgamate the better element of each community into one brotherhood, whose object is the advancement of social and moral development and the protection of mutual interests.

Founded upon a plane of absolute democracy, our fraternalism is positive, slogan being "All for One and One for All."

Clubs

Do you know that some of the finest club quarters in the various towns of the State are owned and kept for the use of their members?

Aid

The Loyal Order of Moose is an aid to its members. If misfortune overtakes a brother, if sickness or accident or business reverses befall him, it extends the helping hand. For him it speaks the "Good Word," contributes to his purse and helps to overcome difficulties.

Benefits and Lodge Dues

The benefits are $7.50 per week in sickness or accident.

One hundred dollars in case of death. Free medical attention to members and their families by adoption of the subordinate lodge.

Two dollars and fifty cents per quarter, payable quarterly or semi-annually. No assessments. No benefits paid for first six months.

What They Are

The Order of Moose is not an insurance organization. It is an excellent social order with beneficial features. Its cardinal virtues are to aid the sick, bury the dead and inject sunshine into dark places. Its mission is to do good. It holds high above all other things, as high as hope's great frothing star, above the darkness of the dead, the love of wife, and home and friends.

Free Moose Vocational School and Sanitarium

The Supreme Lodge on Jan. 1st 1913, purchased 1000 acres of land on the Fox River near Aurora, Ill. On this site they are erecting a large industrial school at a cost of five million dollars. Orphans and children whose parents are unable to educate them will be given a vocational training will fit them for life. A large Moose Sanitarium and home for aged and infirm members will also be erected here. The location is within an hour's ride from the heart of Chicago. The Postoffice and name of the railway station is Moosheart.

Vice-President Thos. R. Marshall, together with other prominent characters, laid the corner stone of this institution with impressive ceremonies on July 27th, 1913. Fifty thousand people witnessed the dedication. A number of children have already been admitted and more will be added from time to time.

Origin of the Order

The Loyal Order of Moose was organized April 12, 1888. It is not a class organization, but it is open to all good white male citizens, Professional, Business and Working Men, of sound mind and body, of good standing in the community and engaged in lawful occupation, between the ages of 21 and 50 years. Applicants who are above the age limit or who cannot pass the medical examination may be admitted as social members. The dues for social members are seven dollars per year. All applicants are investigated by a committee and voted on by the lodge.

Characteristics

Among the chief characteristics of the Loyal Order of Moose is its Originality and Progressiveness. The Moose does not pattern after other fraternities, but launches out into new fields--Clubs, Colleges, Athletic Unions and homes for widows and orphans.

The Loyal Order of Moose does not tolerate interference with one's religious or political views. Political or sectarian discussions are not countenanced in the lodge rooms, but Patriotism, Obedience to Law, Equal Rights, and Respect for Opinions of Others insisted upon. As one enters the lodge, so he departs--a free man.

Ritual

No fraternal order possesses a more beautiful or ennobling ritualistic ceremony, and to witness the portrayal of the work by the degree team is well worth the initiatory fee. The obligations are simple and beautiful and are such that no man need hesitate. There is no "horse play" in the Moose ritual.
