Used to Compliments.

"I suppose you have something pretty in ties, miss?"

"Oh, yes," said the rosy-cheeked girl, taking a box from the shelf; "here's some pretty blue silk ones for $2; just too sweet for anything."

"I think you are a little dear," he said, with a pleasant smile.

"You are complimentary," she replied, blushing. When he thought how he'd been misunderstood, he blushed and stammered:

"Oh, I beg your pardon, miss! I didn't mean to say you were a dear, I—"

"Never mind! there are plenty of young men who think so. Good day, sir."

When he turned away her blushes were gone, and his face looked as if he had stood on a lady's train.

Telling in Time.

A farmer lived on a lonely place and eventually a railroad was run through the district. There was one train a day and it stopped at the farmer's station on signal.

The farmer one day set the signal and the train drew up. But he did not climb aboard.

"Well, get on!" shouted the conductor. "Get on, can't ye?"

"Excuse me," said the farmer. "I don't want to get on. I only want to say that you are to stop here at this time tomorrow, as my wife is going to town to do some shopping."—Buffalo News.

GET THE GENUINE

That "Sport Shirt."

It is not known who invented the "sport shirt" and wished it on misguided youths. The garment has a V neck, giving it a lovely effeminate air, and the broad, flowing collar is trained over the outside of the coat collar. It only needs some embroidery or lace insertion to look as picturesque as possible. One gets the firm impression that the grown-up wearer of a sport shirt is not old enough to vote, whatever the records may say or whatever his size and face may indicate. Perhaps it is one of the "American fashions," but in any event it suggests melancholy reflections.—Providence Bulletin.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

ROCKEFELLER GETS "TIP" FROM PUPIL

How to Make 40 Per Cent Told by Colorado Child.

CHILDREN MASTERS OF HIGH FINANCE

School Store and Bank Maintained by Boys and Girls in Remote Mining Town Big Success.

Trinidad, Colo.—A 12-year-old girl Thursday told John D. Rockefeller, Jr., how to deal in stocks and bonds, how to run a bank, and how to finance a corporation that would pay a 40-cent annual dividend on a 10-cent block of common stock. It was at Sopris, where Mr. Rockefeller, in the course of his examination of Colorado Fuel & Iron company properties, stopped long enough to visit the public school. In the highest grade of the school the teacher told the Standard Oil magnate that the pupils had established a bank and a store in which school supplies were sold.

"Really," said Mr. Rockefeller, with the delight of a boy at a country fair, "I should like to know something more about this system of high finance."

"Blanche," said the teacher, "will you explain it to Mr. Rockefeller?"

Then Blanche McArthur, daughter of a coal digger, walked to the front of the room, shook hands calmly with Mr. Rockefeller, and gravely began her financial lesson.

"You see," she began, "I am cashier of the bank. We already have $5 on deposit, all brought by the children."

"Five dollars!" exclaimed Mr. Rockefeller. "Wonderful!"

"We have part of this lent out to pupils—on good security, of course. We are looking around for a permanent investment for the rest of the money."

Blanche then branched off into a discussion of stocks and bonds. Mr. Rockefeller listened gravely as the child detailed the elements which make bond issues safe or unsafe.

"We have a store, too, Mr. Rockefeller," she continued. "It was formed by some of us boys and girls, who each subscribed 10 cents to the capital stock. We buy school supplies—pencils and tablets—at wholesale and sell them to the pupils. Last year the store paid between 30 and 40 cents dividend on each 10 cents in stock."

8-Year-Old Mill Starts.

Marshfield, Or. — A sawmill which had been built eight years, equipped fully and prepared to operate, but never sawed a stick of timber, started Monday, September 20, on regular run after having been improved and overhauled. The mill was erected in 1907 two miles from Marshfield by A. A. Courtney, who was then secretary of the Pacific Coast box combination. Just at the time the mill was completed, the panic of 1907 came on and Courtney and his associates failed.

High Peak Finally Scaled.

New York—Dr. Andrew J. Gilmour announced Saturday on returning from Alberta that he and Professor Edward W. D. Holway, of the University of Minnesota, had climbed to the summit of Mount Geikie, in Alberta. It was asserted that they were the first to attain the summit, which is 11,016 feet high.

The final ascent was made August 5. The physician added that 5000 feet of the way was up a nearly sheer wal of ice and snow, in which the explorers had to cut steps.

$140,000 Mill Is Burned.

Tacoma, Wash.—Fire of unknown origin Thursday night wiped out the plant of the Lindstrom Handforth Lumber company at Rainier, 20 miles south of Tacoma, destroying the sawmill, shingle mill and lumber shed and 5,000,000 feet of lumber. The loss is estimated at more than $140,000, partly insured.

Hop Crop Estimate 100,000 Bales.

Salem, Or.—Oregon's hop crop for 1915, according to the average estimates of growers and dealers, will equal 100,000 bales. To pick the state's crop of hops and for other expenses, incidental to labor, growers have paid approximately $1,000,000.

In figuring the hop output, growers and dealers vary in their estimates. The Oregon Hop Growers' association officials announce that the crop will be about 80,000 bales, while independent dealers place their figures higher.

Offsetting the partial failure of the crop in the St. Paul and Gervais districts is the increase in the production of the yards in the Independence district.

Conditions in this section were remarkably good, growers declare, and nearly all the yards bore heavily. Fourteen prominent growers in the Independence district this year have a total output approximating 20,550 bales. In 1914 these growers had a total production of 16,000 bales.

Reports received here by dealers are to the effect that in Lane county the crop will be about 6000 bales, practically the same as last year. In Washington county advices are that this year's yield will approximate 10,000 bales.

With 5200 bales, the E. C. Horst company, of this section, leads all other growers. The Horst yards last year produced 3800 bales. C. A. McLaughlin's crop this season is 2350 bales, as compared with 1657 bales in 1914. Because of disastrous fires which destroyed seven kilns belonging to T. A. Livesley & Co., at Livesley station, south of this city, this firm has approximately 800 bales, while last season the production equaled 1800 bales.

Fall Plowing Nearly Finished.

Following is a summary of the crop conditions in Oregon and Washington for the week, as reported to the office of the weather bureau by special correspondents throughout the Northwest:

The past week has been dry and in interior Western counties unseasonable warm weather has obtained. Freezing temperatures in extreme Eastern counties on the 13th and 14th did some injury to tender vegetation, but as a rule weather conditions were quite favorable.

Threshing has been completed in some sections and a few farmers have begun hauling their hay and grain to market. Irrigated crops are doing well.

Wool Selling in East Slow.

Portland — The wool selling movement in the East has slowed down, but prices are not materially changed. Among the sales at Boston in the past week were 200,000 pounds Soda Springs half-blood at 29 cents; 50,000 pounds fine and fine medium Utah at 24 cents; about 100,000 pounds Montana at 27 cents; 60,000 pounds three-eighths blood Wyoming at 32 cents; a good-sized parcel of half-blood Montana at 30 to 31 cents. Another Boston house reported sales of 600,000 pounds of various grades and prices.

Corn and Tomato Packs Short.

Portland — Estimates covering the 1915 corn pack have been reduced by conservative factors to 6,200,000 cases. Early estimates were for a pack of 8,000,000 cases. The 1914 pack was 9,789,000 cases, and the average for the three years 1912, 1913 and 1914 was 10,060,000 cases. Cold and unseasonable wet weather during the critical growing period for making sweet corn played havoc with the prospects in all sections of the country. The tomato pack for 1915 promises now not to exceed 7,500,000 cases.

Cheese Prices Tending Upward.

Portland—With cheese stocks at the Coast well cleaned up and the fall season at hand, the market has developed an upward tendency. Prices have advanced three-quarters of a cent to the 13½ cents f. o. b. basis, and further advances are looked for. No change was reported in the butter market.

Eggs are firm with light local receipts and withdrawals from storage are larger.

The poultry market continues weak

MORE BATTLESHIPS PLANNED FOR NAVY

Naval Board Urges Building of Six Sea Masters.

APPROVAL OF PROGRAM IS PROBABLE

Fast Vessels Declared to Have Fully Proved Their Usefulness—Experts State Their Views.

Washington, D. C. — The building program of the general board of the navy will call for at least six big ships, it was learned Saturday from authoritative sources at the Navy department. At least one, and possibly two, of these will be battle cruisers, and the rest super-dreadnaughts.

At present the navy has no battle cruisers, but experts of the general board are convinced that the development of this type by nations against which the United States is obliged to prepare makes it necessary to provide ships of this type without delay.

Japan, Great Britain and Germany have experimented with the battle cruiser and have amply demonstrated its usefulness. It has been shown that there is no effective way of combatting a battle cruiser except with ships of the same type, and for that reason, experts say, it is absolutely necessary for the United States to construct them. Submarines are considered as auxiliary only.

GEN. NELSON A. MILES

The board is at work on a comprehensive battle cruiser program, which, it is hoped, can be followed from year to year until the navy is equipped with an adequate number. Certain members of the board favor building two a year, beginning at once, and continuing at that rate until the required ratio to other navies is reached.

"It is all a question of what nation we are going to fight," said a high naval official. "If we are preparing for defense against a first-class naval power we might as well have no navy at all as a little one."

The secretary of the navy will recommend substantial increases in the navy, but it is generally believed he will not go as far in this direction as the general board will recommend. Members of the board refuse to believe there is any considerable sentiment among the chiefs of the administration for keeping the naval estimates down to the customary level.

Hill Liner Kills Whale.

San Francsico — To not many travelers on the deep is it given to see a whale killed by a modern steamship, but that was the treat given the 325 passengers on the turbiner Great Northern, which arrived from Flavel Sunday. Just north of Point Arena the Great Northern struck a huge whale fair amidships and cut the leviathan in two. The shock jarred the whole vessel. Rushing on deck the passengers beheld only bloody spume in the track of the vessel and two huge pieces of whale.

10,000 to Get Apples.

Walla Walla, Wash.—Ten thousand Jonathan apples, the finest to be found in the valley, have been shipped to San Francisco for free distribution Walla Walla day, September 29, at the exposition.

The 100 boxes are the gift of the Baker Langdon orchard. They will be distributed by five girls. Literature describing the orchard and the valley will also be distributed.

With this shipment was one of equal size for exhibit in the Washington display.

Army Airmen Loop Loop.

San Diego, Cal.—Sergeant William Ocher and Corporal Albert Smith, attached to the United States Army aviation corps at North Island, Saturday made 15 loops each while engaged in flights, shattering all army and navy aviation records. Both officers used the same machine. As it is of the heavy army type, designed solely for long-distance flying, the feats of the two army aviators are considered remarkable in aviation circles.

WHY DINING CAR CHEFS PREFER KC BAKING POWDER

Those who have had cakes ruined by jarring the stove, slamming the oven door or a heavy footstep, may have wondered how the dining car chef can turn out such marvelous biscuits, hot breads and pastry when his oven is being incessantly jarred and jolted and shaken by the motion of the train.

To get pastry to raise and stay raised under these conditions, a baking powder must be used that continues to give off its leavening gas—that sustains the raise—until the dough is baked through.

Dining Car Chefs have found a baking powder exactly suited to their needs in K C and you will find it just as well suited to your requirements. K C is really a blend of two baking powders, one active as soon as moistened, the other requiring both moisture and heat to start the generation of leavening gas. No matter how moist and rich you make your cake, K C Baking Powder will sustain the raise until a crust is formed and all danger of falling is past.

K C Baking Powder is pure and healthful. It is guaranteed under all pure food laws, and is guaranteed to please you. And it is sold at a reasonable price—no baking powder should sell for more.

Some Difference

"What is the difference between gross and net?" asked young Billy as his father stepped off the boat.

"In my case," replied the sunburned parent, "the gross was what I expected to catch on my fishing trip, and the net was this." And he held up a four-inch blackfish.
