Wide Awake.

An abnormally fat man lumbered into a Pullman on a west-bound train, and set up a loud protest when he found that his berth was at the end of the car.

"I can't sleep a wink if I'm over the car wheels. I won't close my eyes if you put me over the car wheels, porter."

"Can't help it, sah," said the porter. It's the one that was sold you, and it's the only one there is. You'll have to take a chair car and set up if you don't take this."

The fat man finally decided to keep the berth, protesting to the last that he did not expect to close his eyes. Shortly his snores were heard above the rumble of the train, but it was not until the train had a long wait that the sounds issuing from the berth caused anything but amusement. In the silence, however, they got on the passengers' nerves, and by request the porter prodded him in the ribs.

"My goodness, sah!" demanded the porter. "If you makes noises like that when you'se lyin' wide awake over the car wheels, what would you do if you was sound asleep in the middle of the car?"

Trying to Signal.

"What did you tell that man who asked you if he could marry your daughter?"

"I acted as grouchy as possible," replied Mr. Cumrox. "I couldn't tell him right out that Gladys has a sharp temper, but I though I'd sort o' hint to him that she might have inherited one."—Washington Star.

STRIKE BREAKERS SET FIRE TO TOWN

Kill Four, Injure 19, in Rioting at Youngstown, Ohio.

PROPERTY LOSS NEARLY ONE MILLION

State and National Troops Called to Dispel Looting Mob—Firemen Driven Away by Stoning.

Youngstown, O.—Four men were killed, 19 other persons, including a woman, shot, and 15 city blocks destroyed by fire as a result of riots growing out of the steel mill strike here Saturday night.

The fire had caused a loss estimated at from $800,000 to $1,000,000 at last reports.

Rioters, who for hours had held the city in a reign of terror, looting stores and the postoffice and setting fire to many buildings, began to quit the streets after rumors of the arrival of troops spread. Citizens, however, feared a new outbreak at daybreak.

The trouble was the culmination of a strike of laborers which began at the plant of the Republic Iron & Steel company a week ago and spread to the plants of the tube company, the Youngstown Iron & Steel company, and the Brier Hill Steel company, all "independent" concerns. The men demand 25 cents an hour; the companies offer an increase from 19½ to 22 cents an hour.

The bridge from East Youngstown to Struthers was burned to prevent rioters from entering the town. Two companies of United States regulars from Columbus were ordered to East Youngstown because of the looting and burning of the postoffice.

The trouble started early in the morning when strike sympathizers and workers at the sheet and tube plant clashed. Stones were thrown and several shots were fired, but no one was injured. Later in the afternoon a riot occurred just outside the tube company's plant and two men were injured so badly they were taken to a hospital.

The most serious trouble started when the day shift at the sheet and tube mills left work. A crowd of 6000 gathered at the entrance to the works and stoned a squad of private police in charge of Chief Woltz, of the sheet and tube company force.

The police force of the city was lined up on a bridge at the river leading to the main works of the plant. Someone in the crowd threw a rock, which struck one of the mill guards.

Immediately several of the guards drew their revolvers and fired to scare the crowd.

Then the real trouble started. Revolvers were produced by men in the crowd and answering shots were sent back. The guards answered by firing into the crowd. Men and women, wounded, fell amid the rain of bullets. Finally the crowd fell back and vented its fury by applying the torch to buildings in the neighborhood.

Firemen summoned from Youngstown arrived on the scene, but before they could get the hose connected up with the city hydrants the crowd drove the fire-fighters away. Many shots were fired, and the firement drove off with their apparatus amid a hail of stones.

By this time the flames threatened to sweep through the entire business section. The infuriated crowd surged through the streets, and threats were made to burn the entire town.

All available guards were marshaled by the Sheet & Tube company, and by other mills in the suburbs in an effort to prevent destruction of their property.

4000 Get Wage Increase.

Denver—An increase in wages is to be granted the employes of the steel mills of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, according to announcement of J. F. Welborn, president, here Saturday. The increases, it was said, will correspond to those announced recently by officials of the United States Steel corporation, and will become effective as soon as the Colorado Fuel & Iron company officials learn what the United States Steel corporation's increases amount to. About 4000 are employed in the company's steel plant at Pueblo.

Steamship Passes Canal.

Panama—The steamer Newton, the last vessel waiting for passage through the Panama canal, passed through the waterway Saturday. The Newton, drawing 27 feet, has the greatest draught of any vessel using the canal since it was closed last September. Major General Goethals said that, while the Newton was permitted to pass through the canal, it was not yet in condition for continuous traffic and that the waterway was not open. He declined to make an estimate of the time required to reopen the cut.

Bribe to Italy Charged.

Berlin—The Neue Zuricher Zeitung has received reports from reliable sources, says the Overseas News Agency, that the London treaty providing against the conclusion of a separate peace signed by Italy contains a special clause under which Italy received 2,000,000 lire for giving her adherence to the agreement. The news agency says it has "special information" that another clause in the treaty is directed against the Vatican.

French Release Consuls.

Paris—A dispatch from Athens says that Jean Guillemin, the French minister to Greece, has announced that consuls of the Teutonic allies arrested in Saloniki have been released. Greek newspapers, the dispatch adds, regard this action as satisfactory to the Greek government.

BIDS ASKED ON 200,000,000 FEET OF FIR LUMBER FOR FRANCE

Portland.—Lumber mills on the Columbia river and Puget sound have just been invited to bid on 200,000,000 feet of fir lumber for immediate delivery to the French government.

Contracts for all this material have been placed with a San Francisco lumber broker. The entire order is to be filled by mills in Oregon and Washington.

It is understood, however, that the order will be distributed exclusively among the mills on the Columbia river and on the sound. All the big mills in Portland are bidding on portions of the order varying from 10,000,000 to 50,000,000 feet. The work will be apportioned among them, it is understood, within the next few weeks.

The order calls for a large quantity of railroad ties and for lumber of other varying dimensions to be used, doubtless, in lining trenches and in other battlefront activities.

Competition for this business is said to be keen, and it is probable that the price that will accrue to the mills will not exceed $12 or $13 per M.

MISS GLADYS INGALLS

Washington society has come to expect the unexpected from Miss Gladys Ingalls, daughter of the late president of the Big Four and other railroad systems, and so was not surprised when it became bruited about Washington that she was to take up chicken raising in addition to her many other activities. Mrs. Ingalls is noted as a society leader, horsewoman, golfer and ardent Red Cross worker.

At this figure the entire order will bring approximately $2,500,000 worth of business into the territory. It will enable many mills that now are running on part time or at partial capacity to run on full time and to the limit of their respective capacities.

Under terms of the contract between the French authorities and the San Francisco brokerage firm the lumber is to be delivered f. o. b. at the mills. The French government is to provide transportation. According to present arrangements the shipment will be handled entirely by water. This is more likely to be true in the event the Panama canal is open by the time the business starts to move.

If the canal is not open at that time it is possible that the whole movement will go to the Atlantic seaboard by rail. In that event, however, some difficulty may be experienced in getting cars to carry it. The railroads now are confronted with the dual difficulty of a car shortage in the interior and a traffic congestion at the Atlantic terminals.

However, the French purchasers are to assume the risk of transporting the shipment and the responsibilities of the local mills are to cease when the finished product is delivered either on the cars or on the ships at their siding or docks.

Drink Ads Bar Magazines.

Spokane, Wash.—Many editions of popular periodicals were withdrawn from newsstand sale because of the state prohibition law forbidding the advertising of liquors. In cases where the entire edition of a magazine has not been withdrawn the pages containing liquor advertising have been cut out. A magazine distributing agency announced that several publications of large newsstand sale will issue editions not containing liquor advertising for sale in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Guards Would Mobilize.

Chicago.—Special dispatches to the Tribune Wednesday indicate that the militia heads are willing to fall in with Senator Chamberlain's plan to mobilize the guardsmen as a test.

The adjutants-general of 25 states were asked to state their attitude toward the project. Eleven replies were received and all were favorable. The states responding were Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Mississippi, Virginia and South Carolina.

Camorrists Slash Girl.

Naples.—Enemies of Genaro Abbatemaggio, the notorious informer in the famous trial of the Camorrists in 1911 for the murder of Genaro Cuocolo and his wife, have attacked his sister and slashed her face with a razor as an act of revenge. Efforts are now being made to reopen the famous trial in an attempt to prove that the accusations of Abbatemaggio against Enrico Alfano, the alleged head of the Camorra, were dictated by personal animocity.

Six, Asleep, Die in Fire.

Boise, Idaho.—Arch Eckersall, his wife and four children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home at Salmon, Idaho. The victims were asleep upstairs when the fire started and perished before help arrived. The charred bones were placed in one casket and taken to Rexburg, Idaho, the former home of the Eckersalls, for interment.

STEEL CHIEF WARNS AGAINST INFLATION

Official Says Peril in Prosperity as Well as In War.

FUTURE PROBLEMS OF NATION GRAVE

Jars and Jolts Are Promised When Industrial Conditions Become Normal at End of War.

New York—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, Thursday issued a statement dealing in detail with prevailing prosperous conditions in the steel and iron trade, together with a forecast for the future of that industry.

Reference is made to the European conflict in its world-wide application to economic conditions. Judge Gary calls attention to the dangers of overproduction or inflation by manufacturers and bankers, resulting from overconfidence, and the aid of the government is invoked for adequate protection of the country's industries.

"It will be admitted by all manufacturers of these products," he says, "that there is no reason for complaint at the present time as to the volume or urgency of the demand, nor in most cases as to prices received, notwithstanding the cost of production had been larger during the last five years because of increase in wages, freight charges, etc.

"Conditions pertaining to this industry reflect, more or less those of other lines and perhaps are an indication of the general situation. Certainly there are evidences which cannot reasonably be questioned of great prosperity. These satisfactory conditions exist and it now seems probable that they may continue for some months to come.

"There is a great expansion at present. I fear there is great inflation. Some of the circumstances surrounding the financial and industrial world are peculiar and not justified. There will be jars and jolts when eyes are opened and things become normal.

"What of the future? Who can say with any feeling of certainty? It may be dark and desperate. It will be thus in Europe and we in America will feel the effects to a greater or lesser extent.

"I believe the war of Europe will not be so long protracted as many, if not the most of men, predict. This opinion is based principally upon two grounds. In the first it seems apparent that little, if any, benefit to any belligerent country or to the world at large can result from the war except and unless it be the firm establishment of an international tribunal for the settlement of all international differences.

"The other ground for my belief is that each of the warring nations is starving for men and money both. They do not admit it, but the signs are plenty and convincing. Any nation that is prolonging the war beyond the time when it can be reasonably and honorably discontinued is slowly but surely committing suicide.

"This is an epoch. Times are serious, perhaps critical. We must be prepared for radical changes in volume, in prices and resources. There is danger of over-production, over-extension of credit and liabilities, overconfidence. We have observed this before and we shall see it again. It is possible the banks will over-exert their credits, particularly in favor of foreign interests, who offer attractive rates, but they take care of that matter for themselves. We business men should realize there is possible danger ahead in the business outlook and if we proceed with caution, however, aggressive, we will have done no harm and we may hereafter have reason for congratulation."

Steamer Victims Missing.

Parkersburg, W. Va.—The steamer Kanawha, owned by the Kanawha Packet company, struck a pier about nine miles south of here in the Ohio river and sank in 30 feet of water. The steamer carried 36 passengers and crew of 45, but Captain Brady Berry, who landed at Meldahl's station, near where the accident occurred, expressed the opinion that all had been saved.

Since some were taken to the Ohio side and others landed on this side of the river, it was impossible to check up the list of those on board.

Blaze in Government Building.

Washington, D. C. — Fire early Thursday caused minor damage in the basement of the great building that houses the State, War and Navy departments. The loss was estimated at $2000 and was practically confined to odds and ends stored in the basement. Before the flames had been brought under control dense clouds of smoke were pouring through the corridors and out of the windows. Stories of incendiarism were circulated, but investigation showed that it was spontaneous combustion.

Two Women Shoot Bear.

Marshfield, Or.—Mrs. Lena Fleming, a niece of Hale Brown, a Camas trapper and hunting guide, and Mrs. V. Woodfield, wife of a Marshfield homesteader, shot a 200-pound black bear, which they found while inspecting Mr. Bowen's traps.

The women dressed the animal, leaving the hide intact, and then carried their prize home on a 3-year-old colt, after two horses had balked at carrying bruin's carcass.

Hill's Earnings Record.

St. Paul—Gross earnings of the Great Northern railway for last November were $9,045,635, establishing a new record for a single month, it was announced at the railway's offices here Thursday.

Farmers Are Holding Oats.

Portland — The oats market is becoming firmer with lighter offerings. Receipts have declined materially of late, and practically no oats are coming in now from east of the mountains. There has been buying in the interior for shipment eastward, and this has strengthened the ideas of farmers throughout the country. The continued Eastern demand for choice grade Northwestern oats is looked for and for this reason farmers are not disposed to sell now. The spread in prices, east and west, however, is not wide enough yet to make the business very attractive to shippers at this end, although a considerable volume of business has been worked.

Valley oats, which are in large supply, are not likely to find an Eastern outlet, but there should be a better market for them here, with none coming in from Eastern Oregon or Eastern Washington.

Inland Empire Holds Onto Grain.

Lewiston, Idaho—On account of being financially able to play a waiting game, grain growers of the Inland Empire are refusing to sell this season's crop at the prices quoted. More than 75 per cent of the crop of 10,000,000 bushels is still in the hands of the ranchers.

For the first time wheat is being extensively shipped from this region by rail direct to New York for export and markets of the Eastern states for milling purposes. Also, practically all barley shipments have gone East. The movement is becoming heavier daily, and is expected to continue until the opening of the Panama canal, when the grain will be diverted to Portland and Puget Sound points, thence through the canal to the European nations.

Chehalis Milk Price Advances.

Chehalis, Wash.—The Pacific Coast Condensed Milk company has announced the milk price for the first half of January at Chehalis to be $1.70, an increase of five cents a hundred over the price paid the last half of December.

There has been a steady gain in the price of milk the past 60 days, locally. The condenser company is making heavy shipments of milk that business being greatly improved recently owing to drafts on Eastern supplies for shipment to Europe.

Wool Growers Interested.

Pendleton, Or. — Word comes from all points of Eastern Oregon as far from Pendleton as Prineville that representatives will join the Umatilla County sheepmen in their special car, which leaves Pendleton Wednesday, January 12, for Salt Lake City to attend the National Convention of Wool Growers. The following towns will send delegates: Heppner, Baker, Wallowa, Prineville, Hay Creek, Stanfield, Pilot Rock, Echo and Pendleton. The party returns Monday, Jan. 17. Senator J. N. Burgess will manage the trip.

Alfalfa Land Price Cut.

Hermiston, Or.—The price of alfalfa land in this locality is to be greatly reduced, according to a movement inaugurated at the annual meeting of the Hermiston Commercial club. Land owners are agreed that this is necessary to dispose of their holdings, and the Commercial club urges it to promote settlement. The old fruit-land price of $200 to $300 an acre for unimproved land will be divided by five or six. The Commercial club will issue a folder setting forth the reasons for the reduction in prices of alfalfa land.

A Lawful Revenge.

"I'm laying for that motorist that almost knocked me down, and when I catch him, I'm going to give him such a pair of black eyes he can hardly see out of them."

"Yes. But he censors it."—Washington Star.

CONSUMPTION TAKES 350 PEOPLE DAILY

Over 350 people succumb to consumption every day in the United States.

Science proves that the germs only thrive when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists.

The best physicians point out that during changing seasons the blood should be made rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood; it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and throat, while it upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or nervous, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known. It is totally free from alcohol or any stupefying drug. Avoid substitutes.

Lessons in Memory.

Jaffrey—How do you suppose that dear old man remembered exactly how much he paid for his gold tooth, which he bought 40 years ago?

Agnes—Why, I suppose he carried it in his head.—Bampoon.

Had Part of It Already.

"Oi, Oi!" chortled Casey, "an' did Maloney give yez th' black oye?"

"He did not," retorted Murphy with dignity, "he gave me only th' black. Oi had th' oye ahl th' time."—Medley.

Mild Way of Saying "You Lie!"

Hobbs (telling a tall story)—I assure you, old man, if I hadn't seen it myself I wouldn't believe it.

Dobbs—Then you'll understand why I don't.—Boston Transcript.

Natural Effect.

"I wish, ma, you wouldn't call me your lamb before people."

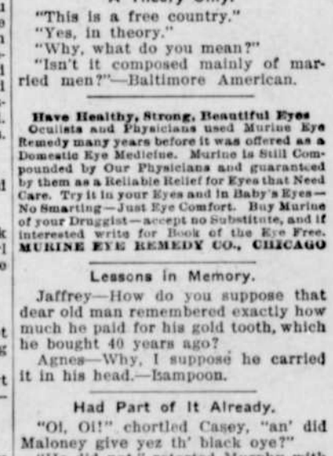
"Why not, Willie?"

"Because it makes me feel so sheepish."—Baltimore American.

Seems Probable.

"There is still said to be shortage in dyestuffs for ladies' hosiery."

"Um. Another white Christmas."—Louisville Courier-Journal.



A Good Milker
Is always a healthy cow. Nine cows in ten can be both healthy and profitable if the first sign of reduced milk yield is recognized as a danger signal.

Such cows can usually be toned up by the use of Kow-Kure, the great cow medicine. Used for twenty years for the cure and prevention of Abortion, Barrenness, Milk Fever, Scouring, Lost Appetite, Bunches and Retained Afterbirth.

Sold by druggists and feed dealers in 50c and $1 packages.
