Prince, secretary of the Northwest Fruit Exchange at Seattle, were in the city Wednesday talking over with the board of directors of the Mosier Fruit Growers Association, plans of the Northwest Fruit Exchange in the marketing of apples for the coming year.

Miss Irene Fisher and Miss Bernice Fisher returned home Monday after spending Sunday in Hood River. Mrs. S. D. Fisher, who has been in Hood River for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Winkler, whose little daughter has been very ill with the grip and a touch of pneumonia, was in Mosier Sunday, returning in the afternoon to Hood River where she will remain until the little one, who is improving, is out of danger.

Do not forget one thing,—this is my sale, and I am going to stake my reputation for honesty and square dealing on the way it is going to be conducted. I do not intend to misrepresent anything and will thank anyone for calling my attention to any error should any occur. Money back as usual if you are not satisfied. Goods exchanged if done so during the sale. Nothing queer about it; just a good house cleaning; just bargains for all. Strauss.

C. J. Littlepage, who has been in Portland for over a week where he had the little finger on his right hand amputated, returned home Monday after going on to The Dalles. Mr. Littlepage has suffered intense pain from this finger, which was first irritated by being cut with a pair of pruning shears. A felon developed, after which blood poisoning set in and parts of the bone were removed from time to time. The injured member, was removed the first of last week, and Mr. Littlepage has confidence that it will give him no more pain as soon as it heals over.

Donald Littlepage, who has been in Portland for several months where he has been attending school, studying gas engine, came up Wednesday night for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage. He left Thursday morning for The Dalles, returning in the afternoon to Corbett where he has been employed on a ranch since finishing his term of school recently in Portland. He expects to leave soon for Antelope where he will have charge of a caterpillar engine on a big wheat ranch owned by Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles.

Primary Honor Roll

The following pupils in the primary department in District No. 32, taught by Miss Alice Bennett, are placed on the honor roll for their work during the past month: Evelyn Beldin, Neta Camp, Esther Borden, Eva Andross, Harold Beldin, Carl Rorson, Darrell Allington, Leslie Camp, Mae Camp, Arthur Carroll, Russell Huskey, Mabel Huskey, Joseph and Higley.

For Sale—All the leading varieties of Apple, Pear, Cherry, Peach and Plum trees, one or two years old. Two year old Asparagus plants, $1 per hundred. Trees guaranteed to grow and true to name. F. A. Masse, Hood River, Or.

PATRONS DECIDE TO ADD ONE TEACHER

One more teacher will be added to the teaching corps in District No. 52 next fall, making a total of four teachers. E. A. Race was elected a member of the board of directors to finish the unexpired term of J. E. Higley, who is now in Alaska. These were the features of a meeting of the school patrons last Saturday, endorsing the plans of the board.

As chairman of the board of directors, Dr. David Robinson said in part: "We could put the eighth grade in the high school room and give a course in domestic science, beginning with the seventh grade and continuing the course through high school. Every pupil in attendance at this school brings $40 to the district from the county treasury, while for every pupil sent away the district loses $40. This is the largest crowd I have ever seen at a school meeting. Temporary arrangements," he concluded, "will have to be made for another teacher. The primary teacher, Miss Bennett, has more work now than she can properly handle."

E. E. Amsden, superintendent of the high school stated that this year there are 12 students in the high school and 91 in the grades.

The question that arose was whether the high school course should be discontinued or another teacher hired to carry on the school work as it is at present. It was unanimously decided that the board should secure another teacher for next year, and the work divided among the teaching corps. This year there will be no graduates, while next year it is probable that the four-year high school course will be complete.

Ladies Aid Meets With Husbands

The Ladies Aid society of the Union Immanuel church met last week at the home of Mrs. W. A. Husbands. Owing to the bad weather of the past month, this was the first meeting held for some time and there was no regular program. There were twenty-two ladies present and each told how she had personally earned the sum of one dollar for necessary funds of the society. These short talks were very interesting and showed that the ladies have a ready wit and know how to raise the money when needed. One new member was added to the society.

Next Wednesday, March 8, the society will meet at the home of Mrs. M. E. Butterfield. All members are requested to be present. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year. A cordial invitation is extended to ladies who are not regular members.

Fruit Meetings Close

Marketing and Marketing Agencies was the subject under discussion at the meeting of the horticultural society Saturday, and the time was taken up by reading a paper written by Kenneth McKay, of Hood River, tracing the apple from shipper to consumer. This was followed by a general discussion between the growers. H. M. Scaree, who travels through the Northwest considerably, gave his observations regarding the retail conditions.

This will be the last regular meeting of the society, the organization having adjourned the meeting, to meet at the call of the president. With spring work commencing it was deemed inadvisable to try to hold a meeting each Saturday.

Immanuel Church Social

The first of a series of socials will be held at the Immanuel church on Friday evening, March 10. A short program will be given as follows:

Vocal duet, Mrs. E. E. Amsden and Mrs. G. P. Christie.

Solo, Thos. Lelliot.

Piano duet, Miss Blanche Ross and Miss Emily Husbands.

Vocal solo, E. E. Amsden.

After the program there will be games for the children conducted by Dr. David Robinson. Games and singing for the older folks and plenty of refreshments for all.

The object in giving these socials is to get the people of Mosier together so that they may become better acquainted. Let everyone come and have a good time. This will be a community and not a denominational social.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COMMON COUNCIL

A special meeting of the common council was called Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing the removal of trees and rocks from the city streets.

In the report of the street committee the cost of clearing Center street was estimated at $2 per stump, $18 total value. Same on Fourth avenue, near G. R. Wood's house; $10 near barn of Chas. Davenport on Idaho street; $25 worth of grading by Wilson house; $2.50, grading trail in front of Chown's and repairing ditch in road in front of house of Amos Root, $5. Total, $74.50.

The Mayor and the street committee thought that grading near Wilson's would only make that road steeper.

Alderman Husbands said that Oregon street at the intersection of Third avenue needed grading, as rigs were often cramped there in making the turn.

Alderman Carlson stated that $15 ought to make a grade for Wilson now while the ground is in good condition; no grubs, and few loose rocks.

Mayor Race stated that the dirt from there could be taken to Idaho street where it is needed.

"We ought to hold expenses down as much as possible," said Chown. "There is no need to clear all these mentioned as it would be too expensive."

Alderman Merrill stated there will be considerable tourist travel through Mosier this summer, and we ought to save all we can for the auto travel.

"Many places can be passed over for the present," stated G. R. Wood; "I have always had a fight to keep those little oak trees in front of my house. There are very few wagons to pass and they help the appearance of the town."

To this Alderman Hudson replied that the electric street light cannot shine through the trees, to which Alderman Wood retorted that Mr. Hudson was the only one to kick.

Alderman Husbands then cautioned the council concerning the danger from accidents where the trees are left in the streets.

Mayor Race stated that the street below the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company's yards should have the stumps removed, and the banks fixed up. The main thoroughfares need very little work done on them and five or six loads ought to put them in the best of shape.

Councilman Husbands moved that the committee in charge order the stumps cleared 30 feet wide in Center street; six up Oregon street; spending $25 where it crosses Third avenue; spending $10 at the foot of Idaho street and $15 at the head of Main street, and $15 in the Letter addition; that is, sums not to exceed the above amounts or a total of $65.

Aldermen Carlson, Hudson and Husbands voted in favor of the measure; Alderman Merrill and Chown against it; Alderman Wood, not voting. The motion carried.

Celebrate Birthdays Jointly

After learning the first of last week that their birthdays fell on the same date, February 25, L. J. Merrill and E. E. Amsden decided to entertain at the home of the former last Friday night for a few of their gentlemen friends residing in the city. Four tables of cards were played, after which fried oysters on toast, olives, pickles, coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Wm. Johnson and Mrs. G. P. Christie.

The host and guests were pleasantly surprised during the evening when the wives and friends of the guests presented themselves, bearing two small birthday cakes with candles. They had seemingly come to spend the evening, but after laying aside their things and while preparations were being made for their comfort, they hurriedly gathered up their wraps and stealthily stole out of a side door and had disappeared before they were missed. Mrs. W. E. Chown had a birthday on this same day and the ladies played auction bridge at her home until the other party had broken up at a late hour.

Sunday Song Services

The Sunday song service at the Union Immanuel church for next Sunday, March 5, will be led by Dr. David Robinson. The subject will be Spiritualism, and will be treated by talks and readings by A. M. Roop, M. E. Butterfield and E. E. Amsden. There will be special songs by choir and a solo by E. E. Amsden.

These song services are becoming more popular with the people of Mosier, as is evidenced by the large increase in attendance. Last Sunday the gathering was about double that of the previous Sunday but there was plenty of vacant seats and it would be a good idea if YOU would come out next Sunday and learn what your neighbors and friends are doing.
