Starting from the store of Nichol & Company a lively team belonging to J. P. Tryon became excited when one of the horses caught its bridle on the wagon tongue, ran to the engine house at the head of the street then swerved past the Immanuel church and back to the county road. Across the Mosier creek bridge they swerved to the right and the wagon hit a tree, uprooting it and sending the wagon over the embankment. The tugs became unloosened, one breaking, so that the team were unscathed and did not follow the course of the wagon. Mr. Tryon had jumped from the wagon, but M. E. Butterfield attempted to control the runaway. Lee Evans, Jr., jumped in later and tried to check them but the bridle had slipped off and it was impossible to control them. The drivers jumped out before the wagon hit the tree. No one was hurt, not even the horses or the wagon. The mail sack had caught on a limb and hung suspended above the water.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists. 75c.

Don't Go Back

Wasco county should go ahead and not lose settlers and investments. Nearly every state in the east, central and some western states have voted from one to thirty million dollars so far this year by bonding the counties for good roads. We will vote for the bond issue and we do not care where the money is to be spent as long as we get our share for the roads in the Mosier district.

For State Senator

I respectfully announce myself as a candidate on the Republican ticket for state senator for the sixteenth senatorial district of Oregon, subject to your will to be expressed at the primaries to be held on the 19th day of May, 1916. If nominated and elected, I will pledge my best efforts to secure state control and maintenance of the Columbia River Highway; to unyielding tax reductions from top downward; to economy in appropriations, and the elimination of all unnecessary and freak laws from our statute books. Address: J. R. NICKELSEN, P.O. adv.

MUST FIND HAT, AND EAT BREAD AND SOUP

One of our intimate townsmen very fittingly asks the question: "What can we do to stop this growing wave of intemperance that is sweeping over our land, engulfing our women and girls, making nervous wrecks of them and bidding fair in time to destroy our happy homes?" "I refer to the crocheting habit." "My wife was a good cook—would be still if she could stop crocheting long enough to put her mind on the dinner." "She sits down after breakfast with her ball of cotton and crochets needle and rocks and crochets until almost dinner time, stops long enough to telephone for a loaf of bread. When the bread comes she opens a can of soup or something and we have lunch." "Time was if she saw me looking for my hat she was on her feet instantly and flew about, until she found it, and brought it to me." "But now when I ask, 'Where's my hat?' she answers, 'Seven, eight, nine, chain three turn—I don't know. Look around and if you can't find it I'll help you hunt when I've finished this scallop.' I could be half way down town before she had finished that scallop. If I ask what I shall bring home, meaning, of course, in the line of cats, she says, 'Get three spoons of D. M. C. No. 60.'" "She is not the only one. All the neighbors are as bad. Get a lot of women together and all you hear is dillies, centerpieces and yokes, but the greatest of these is yokes. Yokes for dresses, yokes for corset covers and yokes for nighties. Yards and yards of mile-a-minute for petticoats and gaiters—excuse me, I should say bloomers." "The dear ladies—bless 'em, have so many plans on foot for reforming mere men and when they get the vote they will regulate our drinks and smokes, our goings out and our comings in, and make us altogether better in every way. Now, let us reciprocate, and before it is too late, let us see what we can do to arrest them in this mad crocheting career. They have trimmed everything from a bed spread to a wash rag with crochet. How do we know they will not begin with our clothes next?"
