Stoetzel and his parents.

Ben and Zeno Sellinger, who have been spending the winter months in Mosier, left this week for Trout Lake, Wash., where they have a ranch. There is over 200,000 feet of good timber on this place and they will cut enough this spring for next year's supply. It is reported that over a foot of snow still remains on the ground in this vicinity. As soon as the snow goes off the ground will be plowed and put in condition for oats and hay.

Condition of the road between Mosier and Hood River is passable but in Hood River county to the main east side road is in poor shape. Work is being done from the Hood River-Wasco county line on the grade. From Mosier to the summit of the mountain the highway is in good shape. Between Mosier and The Dalles the county road has been put in first class condition, that is by way of Orley. The other route to The Dalles is cut up by rock and ruts caused by the winter rains.

The exchange of the Mosier Valley Telephone company was installed Sunday in the rear of the Arthur Pharmacy. The cable which arrived last week goes away with many pairs of wires into the local central office. P. L. Arthur and Roland Depee are handling the switchboard. Several new telephones have been recently installed and when the directories arrive and subscribers call by number the work will be greatly facilitated and efficient service can be expected.

The tops of the Kliecklats Wednesday morning were covered with snow. A few miles south of Mosier in the vicinity of G. P. Morden snow was reported and in the road a thin sheet of ice had formed. A fall of three inches of snow was reported at Orley. No damage to fruit trees is anticipated. The cherry trees are in full bloom in the Mosier district, but the rains of the present week have not injured the prospective fruit, growers believe. Frank Ginger, a large cherry grower, stated that the pollenation of the blossoms was completed last week.

There is more Catarah in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarah is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarah Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarah Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

I desire through this medium to announce my candidacy for the nomination of county assessor, subject to a majority vote expressed at the Republican primaries, on May 19, 1916.

If nominated and later elected, I will continue, to the best of my ability, to do everything tending toward raising the standard of the office, and to the best interests of the taxpayers at large. JAMES A. DAVIS.

To the voters of Hood and Wasco counties:

I hereby announce myself as Republican candidate for representative from the twenty-ninth district, subject to the will of the people expressed at the primary election.

If nominated and elected, I will at all times be mindful of the welfare of the taxpayers.

I will, if elected, introduce a bill declaring all highways heretofore designated as state highways to be state highways in fact, and imposing upon the state the exclusive duty of building and maintaining the same, and relieving the counties from any expense pertaining to the construction or maintenance of such highways, and will also aid in every possible way the securing of federal aid for the construction of highways in the state of Oregon. J. L. KELLY.

To the voters of Wasco county:

I hereby announce myself as a Republican candidate for the nomination of sheriff of Wasco county, Oregon. If nominated and later elected, I will use economy and my best judgment in performing the duties of the office. I will advocate the passing of a law at the next term of the legislature, giving the county court authority to let the bonding of the county prisoners to the lowest bidder. F. C. SEXTON.
