PLACED BOMB KILLS 6 VIEWING PARADE

Timed Blast Deals Death on Crowded San Francisco Sidewalk.

LETTER OF WARNING RECEIVED

Innocent Bystanders Slain by Work of "Exiles From Militaristic Government." - Reward.

San Francisco-At least six persons were killed and 42 or more injured by the explosion here Saturday of a timed bomb in the midst of a throng viewing ney, issued a statement attributing the deed to a mind unbalanced by arguments for and against preparedens which have occupied attention here. The parade was not interrupted. Lists of dead compiled by the police are Mrs. Howard E. Knapp, Alameda, Cal.

Dr. George Painter, Berkeley, Cal. O. H. Lamborn, printer, Alameda. George Lawler, Mill Valley, Cal.

The explosion took place at Steuart and Market streets, two blocks from the Ferry building, on San Francisco's main thoroughfare. The bomb, concealed in a suitcase packed with cartridges, bullets, marbles, bits of glass, iron pipe and scrap iron, blew a gap through the crowd, hurling men, wom en and children to the ground.

The holiday throng, cheering a con tingent of veterans of the First California Infantry of the Spanish-American war, and members of the Grand Army of the Republic who were forming in Steuart street, stood in a path which became a shambles. The blare of drums drowned the cries of the injured. The sidewalk was strewn with torn bodies, spatterd with blood.

All the newspaper offices in San Francisco received a communication a serious party revolt. written in Roman script, with an indelible pencil, many of the words being heavily underscored. The com-munication was signed "The Determined Exiles from Militaristic Government, Italy, Germany, U. S., Italy, In several instances the Russia. writer repeated himself. The communication read:

"Editor: Our protests have been in vain in regards to this preparedness propaganda, so we are going to use a little direct action on the 22d, which will echo aronud the earth and show that Frisco really knows how and that militarism cannot be forced on us and our children without a violent protest.

"Things are going to happen to show that we will go to any extreme, the same as the controlling class, to preserve what little democracy we still have. Don't take this as a joke, or you will be rudely awakened. Awaken (sic). We have sworn to do our duty to the masses and only send warnings to those who are wise, but who are forced to march to hold their jobs,

Arrow Shows the Deutschland.

In deadly fear that some one will flanked on the opposite side by a the bottom so that the only possible bomb in the midst of a throng viewing blow up or try to injure the merchant barge. At one end is the high wall of approach to the vessel is from directly above. Even a view of more than the rested Frank Josephs, a lodger in a charge of her have hidden her away in Strung along the warehouse and the periscope and an occasional outline of sailors' boarding-house, but said he Baltimore harbor so it is almost impos- pier is barbed wire. Extending out the deck is impossible. The boat in had not been charged with the crime, sible for the public to get a glimpse from the barge is a boom, and from the distance is the German interned Chalres M. Fickert, district attor- of her. She is alongside a pier and is this boom wire netting is dropped to merchantman Neckar.

> WILSON VISITS SENATE TO APPEAL FOR PASSAGE OF CHILD LABOR LAW

on's request. The President's arrival at the Capi-Wahington, D. C .- Pressident Wil- tol was entirely unheralded. Accomon made a personal visit to the Capi- panied only by two secret service men, the county jail late Tuesday night betol Tuesday to emphasize his desire he went directly to the President's tween County Sheriff Hires and memthat a child labor law be put on the room and sent for Senator Kern, the bers of the Industrial Workers of the statute books at the present session of majority leader. Later he discussed World who came to Lincoln to effect the release of members of the order mmoned to a series of conferences shall, Senators Martin, Williams, in the President's room adjoining the James and Owen, of the Democratic senate chamber, he insisted that the steering committee, and Senators Simchild labor bill passed by the house mons and Hughes.

should be made a part of the legislative program to be put through the Flood Waters Destroy Entire "Determined opposition by Southern senators forced the house bill, which would prevent shipment in interstate commerce of goods manufacsition, to be considered only if time N. C., near the famous rock of that distance.

effort to force its passage would mean night. So far as could be learned the was said. The postoffice and hotel Democratic steering committee con- were washed to a point several miles below the village.

To Succeed Judge Hughes.

templated no change in the caucus pro- I. W. W. Are Driven Out of gram and no call had been issued for Lincoln, Nebraska, by Sheriff another caucus to consider Mr. Wil-

Lincoln, Neb .- Following a clash at who had been detained, peace was effected through the release of two of the men held by the authorities and there was an exodus of a hundred or more "workers," who have been here several days.

The collision between Speriff Hires Southern Village of 150 People and the Industrial Workers came when a delegation of two or three score approached the jail and insisted on the Spartanburg, N. C .- According to release of the prisoners. One of the tured wholly or in part by children, information brought here Tuesday men, whose attitude was regarded out of the imperative program drawn night by H. A. Marlette, who went to threatening, was knocked down by the up by the Democratic caucus last Sat- Thermal City, N. C., in an automobile sheriff, who then drew his revolver urday. It was left in a secondary po- Monday, the village of Chimney Rock, and warned the delegation to keep its remained after other measures regard- name, was completely washed away by The peaceably inclined Industrial ed as more urgent had been disposed the high waters of Broad river. The Workers told the officer no violence of. Mr. Wilson had been told that an population of the town was about 150. was intended, and after a long parley According to Harlette a party went it was agreed that two of the men to Chimney Rock to try to rescue those against whom charges were pending Whether the President's visit ac-complished anything more than to rounding the village prevented them left with them. should be released, provided the others The exodus began bring his own position emphatically to from getting close to the houses. immediately. Seven members against the front, was not apparent Tuesday They saw no signs of human life, it whom charges are pending are held.

Boss of Woman's Party.

5000

Asheville, N. C.-Receding waters of the disastrous floods which swept through the French board valley Sun day gave up seven additional bodies Wednesday and reports of eight more deaths by drowning in the Bat cave brought the total death list in ection this district to 28. Indications were that the property loss in Western North Carolina alone may be $12,000,-000. Fears are felt that the loss of life and property may prove even greater when the rivers subside.

Washington Considers Retaliation for England's Blacklist

-17--

ALL RIGHTS ADDREVED

SYNOPSIS.

G

 $\odot \mathbf{R}$ e

"We can't help our relatives, but thank heaven we can choose our friends," is a sentiment voiced by many persons. Richard Farquhar, in great trouble, has cause to appreciate and cherish the love of his friends for him and to loathe his kin.

...... CHAPTER XVII-Continued.

"I stole these," he said. I thought they would be my last. I was mistaken apparently. Am I to thank you?' "Give me a cigarette Instead."

Their faces were close together. The red glow of their cigarettes burned up stretched out and touched Farquhar's with an almost feminine gentleness. "Is there anything I can do for you-when we get back? Any message?" "Yes-I should be grateful. Will you go to Madame Arnaud? Ask for her companion-a Miss Smith-a little stand," Preston said dully. "And then?" man whose hands and feet were countrywoman of mine. Will you tell her-how it happened?"

"Are you listening, Mr. Lowe?" "Yes, yes, I am listening. I heard front of him erything you said. Sower was cashred. I am not surprised. His professpahi rode alone. A short rope was at sion was his tragedy. He would have made an admirable company promoter. tached to his saddle-and to a man but the task of being an honest gen- who stumbled at his horse's heels. The tleman was too much for him. You say rope was round his neck; his hands he has committed suicide. Have you were bound behind him, and the broken ome all this way to tell me of poor link of a chain clanked in the sudden Sower's more or less providential es- stricken stillness. His kepi had been knocked off, and every line in that cape, Mr. Preston?" gaunt quiet face was visible. As

The young man crimsoned, but an-

A faint ironical smile crept over Instantly he had recovered. And in "I was Sower's partner," he said that recovery, that quiet acceptance of quietly. "You were Farquhar's friend. You chose to act with us against him dignity, a courage that held the crowd a -of your own free will. There was a compact, an understanding. The whole scene that night was a farce, a little play-acting with you as an unconscious actor. Farquhar intervened. He blunknow that your atonement has come dered recklessly, but he spolled our plans."

er on horseback rode into the light "Yes, I am a scoundrel," Lowe said and the crowd stirred in restless relief. simply; "but do not trouble to murder But above that sudden wave of move-That would get you into difficulties, and it is not necessary." He burst of reconquered merriment there touched himself lightly on the chest. "I have something here which will fin- incredulous agony. The officer turned sh me off in a month or two-less pleasantly than you would do. That the front row of the masques, is why I care not at all how much or waved to him. He did not look at her, and she glanced impatiently at the ow little you know. The partnership is ended-and I am going out of busi- boy-Mephistopheles beside her. ness." He laughed sardonically and turned back to the window. The crowd beneath had broken up and fallen back on either side beneath the trees of the avenue, and from the distance there You're not frightened?" sounded a dull rhythmic beat and the minous rattle of drums. "The Legion as returned," Lowe said quietly. "Do you want to see the saddest sight on earth, Mr. Preston?"

luctant yet fascinated. His hands were dancing, Carmen?"

no longer clenched. He was looking at the gaunt figure leaning negligently against the window edge as at some thing monstrous, incredible.

"Have you no conscience-no reorse?" he said.

"Oh, yes, Mr. Preston, a great deal." sake-if you know-tell me why Farlerstand,"

The boyish passionate pleading caused Lowe to turn a moment. He smiled, and that faint glimmer of halfompassionate understanding was a were six in number-two lieutenants, ight falling deep into a turgid stream things.

"Farquhar sacrificed himself." he said. "He resigned because Sower wished it. That seems incredible. But Sower held the reins. There was an old tragedy which he used for his own ends-the tragedy of his father's death and of Captain Farquhar's disappearance." The roll of drums was close at hand, and a woman's note of laughter fluttered up birdlike from the somber-flowing tide of sound. Lowe turned back to the window. "You see, Sower miscalculated," he went on. "He was a Jew from God know what has become of him?"

"Perhaps-I am not sure."

to atone," Preston said hoarsely.

"A scoundrel, at the end of his day's my atonement, Mr. Preston, All atonement is inadequate, but mine shall be made-for my greatest wrong, at whatever cost-" He broke off. "The Legion," he said quietly.

his power."

between them, and they looked each knows where, and he lost his sense of other in the eyes. Then a hand was patriotism. He did not understand this red-hot love of one's birthplace. He did not understand the reckless temperament of the man with whom was dealing. Are you beginning to understand, Mr. Preston?"

The door opened and a sergeant en-"Yes, 1 am beginning to under- tered, followed by two corporals and a "Then history repeated itself-not chained. There was a short silence. in incident, but in character. Robert The sergeant made an authoritative

"You scoundrel!"

ment, above the clown's half-ashamed sounded a cry-a muffled wall of in his saddle. Sylvia Arnaud, in "What was that? Didn't you hear?"

He laughed. "Someone fainted. That queer old fury with the white wig, I believe. "Oh. no-no!"

ton's hands tightened on the rails

A few yards behind the last line a though blinded by the sudden light, he reeled and was jerked brutally to his knees. A woman laughed hysterically.

a crowning humiliation there was a noment longer in awestruck slience.

"You know now," he said.- "You

The tragic figure passed oh; an offi

"God in heaven-Farquhar!"

Lowe nodded.

too late."

"Poor devils!"

"Of course not. One gets accustomed to that sort of thing here, does one not? A runaway legionary! Who cares!" He offered her his arm with

The young man drew nearer, re- an elaborate bow. "May we not go on

CHAPTER XIX.

The Last Offer.

The long low-built room was full of sunshine. It poured in through the half-opened shutters and danced on the "Then pity my remorse. For God's whitewashed walls and on the long deal table with its litter of maps and uhar did that thing-help me to un- documents. The doors at the far end were thrown open, and two soldlers with fixed bayonets took up their posts on either hand. A few minutes later a group of officers followed. They three captains and a major. They berevealing many sunken, forgotten longed to the same regiment. They exchanged desultory remarks, and from ime to time one or another of them laughed. Only Desire Arnaud was silent.

A moment later the sentries presented arms and Colonel Destinn entered. All six men sprang to their feet. There was more than formal military courtesy in that simultaneous movement. Their eyes were fixed on his face as on me feared and incalculable oracle.

'Pray be seated, gentlemen." He took his place in the midst of hem beneath the two tricolors draped erfunctorily over a miniature and emdematic bust of the republic. "Bring in the prisoner." he said sharnly.

The sentries repeated the order, and in the brief interval that followed the six men relapsed into their former attitude of languid indifference. The two younger officers exchanged whispered omments, and one of them laughed.

as we want to give only the hypocritical (sic) patriots who shout for war, but never go, a real taste of war.

"Kindly ask the Chamber of Commerce to march in a solid body, IF THEY WANT TO PROVE THEY ARE NO COWARDS. A copy has been sent to all the papers. Our duty has been done so far.'

$5000 Reward Offered.

San Francisco-Mayor Rolph offered a reward of $5000 Sunday for the arrest of the person who placed a bomb Saturday among the crowds watching the preparedness parade, the explosion pose of running down the culprit.

As the result of police investigation, ciate Justice Charles E. Hughes, Taylor, an aged cripple, who frequents the late Mayor Tom Johnson and Sec- her territory, according to information she will manage her campaign in minutes later.

Japan Gets Russian Line.

Berkeley, Cal Japanese consulate here.

Women Workers Parade.

the procession also were floats,

Millions to Be Burned.

Mexico City-Fifty million dollars Saturday.

during the next few weeks. leaders of the United States.

Judge John H. Clarke.

ments.

Judge John H. Clarke of the United of which killed six and wounded 40, States District Court at Cleveland has and the department of Commerce, it and the police department established been nominated by President Wilson was said, probably would develop a separate bureau for the single pur- for associate justice of the United means of executing them. States Supreme court to succeed Asso-Sweden retaliated when Great Brit several possible clews to the perpetrator In Cleveland Judge Clarke for a long and individuals by refusing to permit chairman of the campaign committee of the outrage were obtained. William time was associated in politices with shipments for Russia to pass through of the National Woman's Party, and ment of the blacklisting measure.

Notaries Reap Riches. Casement Appeal Denied.

San Francisco-For $7,000,000 Ja- Spokane, Wash .- One hundred dolpan has acquired from Russia 75 miles lars for six days' work is the wage neys for the Crown, the Court of Crim- Rome Sunday that the body of Pope of the main-line railroad through scale of the notaries who are handling inal Appeal dismissed Sir Roger Case- Leo XIII as to be transported at sun-Southern Manchuria, according to re- the registration for the opening of the ment's appeal from the verdict of the set from its present resting place in Hotel de France a newly-imported ports received Monday by Japanese Colville reservation in Spokane, fig- lower court, which found him guilty of St. Peters to a tomb erected in the Zigenner Kapelle was playing the residents of this city. The concession ured on the basis that there will be treason for his part in the Irish rebel-was paid for, the reports said, in war 50,000 registrations in Spokane. Iterason for his part in the Lord Chief Justice number of persons gathered along the gen." Sylvin Arnaud, a red and gold munitions, including aeroplane motors This rate of compensation, however, sentenced him to death. A further ap- route which the procession would have Carmen, danced joyously to the slow valued at $1,000,000, manufactured in is far below that at Wenacthee, where peal to the House of Lords is possible to take, and the riots which occurred in graceful strains, and her partner smiled bladder. shouting a wittleism at each it is estimated that each notary will only if the attorney general gives a July, 1881, when the body of Pope Pius down into her face, upturned and bril. laughing victim. But beyond a thin The firm of Mitsui & Co., was cred- receive about $275 for his work in certificate that the decision of the IX was similarly transported, were re- Hanty lovely in its sheer ecstasy of Entombed Miners Alive.

London-British women gave an im- Los Angeles - "With the steam Joplin, Mo.-Efforts of rescue forces Bridgehampton, N. Y.-William R. are they doing here?" pressive demonstration Sunday of their whistle from our disabled boat and two to reach the four men entombed in the Willcox, Republican National chairwork in the war, thousands participat- whiskey barrels I found on the island, Babcock zinc mine have been unsuc- man, motored from Great Neck to ing in a parade through the central I made a condenser that gave us about cessful so far and Wednesday night it Bridgehampton late Monday to confer districts of London. The parade was four gallons of sea water, distilled, was said that it probably would be with Charles E. Hughes on the transdivided into numerous sections, with daily, and saved us from dying of Thursday before the men are reached, continental trip on which Mr. Hughes arm tableaux on lorries representing women thirst," said Captain Theodore L. Cur- Thirteen feet of dirt, boulders and will start August 5. Heavy rain fell in working costumes - showing how tis Wednesday. He is an old-time timbers must be removed before the here all day and Mr. Hughes remained "I have spolled the evening for her. It they have replaced men in various ac- mariner, who was rescued barely in chamber in which they are imprisoned indoors, missing his usual church serv- was worth while coming. She tried to tivities. There were women in overalls time to save him from death by stary- can be penetrated. That the men are ice. It was announced that Mr. Hughes laugh at me with that young fool, but from munition factories, nurses, chauf- ation on a barren island rock in the still alive was the belief of the res- had received a letter pledging support she couldn't. She is beginning to be feurs, streetcar conductors, railroad Pacific ocean, where he had been cuers. The workmen have been un- from Chauncey F. Overfield, of Salt afraid. If Richard dies I shall haunt workers and agricultural laborers. In stranded more than two weeks, with able to receive replies when they Lake City, ex-treasurer of the Demo- her till she goes mad." only shellfish to eat. shouted to the imprisoned miners.

notaries in Spokane than Wenatchee. higher court should deal with it.

Elkus is Sent to Turkey.

Castaways Are Saved.

Guards Drawn From Spokane. Washington, D. C .- Abram Elkus, in Mexican paper money will be burned of New York, was nominated by Presi- between 25 and 30 ex-policemen, dep- imports of the port of New York for come by the heat and passion that within the next few days in the court- dent Wilson as ambassador to Turkey uty sheriffs, guards, special officers the year ended June 30 amounted to hung heavy in the night air. Sylvia have to be manipulated. In a lot of yard of the National Palace, according to succeed Henry Morgenthau, who re- and ex-United States deputy marshals $2,169,000,000, according to the an- Arnaud clapped her hands like a child. machines the pilot has to use his back, to an announcement by the government tired to become chairman of the finance to the Seattle and Tacoma waterfronts nual report of the Chamber of Com-This money is of the old committee of the Democratic National to assist in keeping order during the merce Monday. During the last 50 reached the lighted room that faced frail-looking craft on an even keel. Vera Cruz issue and has been supplant-ed by a new issue made in the United and was recommended by Mr. Morgen-Strike. A week ago Jack Wernick, thau. Mr. Elkus is 50 years old and chief special agent for the Chicago, come to New York. It is said that $225,000,000 in paper was born and educated in New York Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, with Exports for the first time reached evening dress who stood with his rible even on calmest days. money will be disposed of in this way City. He has been one of the Jewish headquarters in Spokane, came for the $500,000,000 mark in 1900. Last clenched hand on the table stamped Washington, D. C .- Indications that officials are considering the advisability of taking economic retaliatory measures against Great Britain for blacklisting nearly 100 American firms and individuals under the trading with the enemy act were apparent here Monday.

Conclusions and plans were said not to have developed, but it was intimated that action of that kind might be determined on after the State department learned more of the plans of the British government.

In the event economic reprisals are decided on, the department of Justice

MISS ANNE MARTIN ain blacklisted Swedfsh business houses Miss Anne Martin of Nevada, is the waterfront, told the police that he retary of War Baker. He has been received by the State department. twelve suffrage states. There the men saw a man leave a suitcase on the spot classed as a Progressive Democrat and The action is said to have resulted in a managers of the other two parties will where the explosion occurred a few has taken part in several reform move- modification by the British govern- have to take the lady into consideration and be very nice to her.

Pontiff's Body is Moved.

London-Without hearing the attor- Rome - A rumor was current in ited with having engineered the deal, handling the registration. The differ-knowledge of which was denied by the ence comes in the larger proportion of point of law so important that a still ever, was merely removed from one "Los cratic state committee of Utah.

Hughes Discusses Trip.

New York's Trade Huge.

Spokane, Wash .- Spokane has sent New York -- Combined exports and its of an audience themselves over-deputies to guard Milwaukee property. year they were $1,193,581,000.

"I promise you, Nameless," Farquhar bowed his head for a monent.

"Tell her the mirage was not so splendid as the truth.'

The night deepened with the silence They had forgotten that their hands were still clasped together. Like children they dreamed old dreams and trod old paths. The dawn broke, and instinctively their eyes sought the the rail, watching the dense company company." west. Amid the golden clouds drifting up from the horizon the night had built a city of temples and palaces, domed with silver, whose pale ethereal minarets and glowing cupolas reached up into the translucent light of morning For a moment or two it brightened, the slender outlines strengthening almost to reality-then faded-and as the sun ose passed wholly into the vacant day.

"Mirage!" Goetz rose slowly and stiffly.

"The mirage is gone," he said. He cointed then to something moving swiftly over the wide sweep of plain 'Colonel Destinn's calculated within the hour," he said. "There are the hasseurs."

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Return,

In the softly-lighted courtyard of the swarmed up to the long lines of hanging lanterns at the edge of the garden. A clown climbed upon the stone gatepost and was beating wildly, hilariously on the heads of the crowd with his dark stream flowed from the darkness

"Look at that queer old lady with darkness. They were grotesque figplace to another inside of St. Peter's. the white wig! Is she a masque? And ures-hideous, pitiable. These also that funny, gray little thing beside were figures of carnival-but different. her! I call them the Proprieties, What They marched four deep-a hundred of > "How should I know?" Sylvia returned with sudden impatience. As they passed on Mrs. Farquhar his neighbor, like a herded terrified turned and touched Gabrielle on the animal. And many stumbled. Pres-

"Sylvia has just seen us." she said.

more or less intoxicated pierrots plane is a ticklish profession. The danced a cancan to the delirious plaudimpatiently.

Sower tried to be the honorable gengesture, and the man was thrust for tleman; he tried even, strange as it ward and the door closed again, shutmay seem, to gain Farquhar's friend- ting out the brief glimpse of sunlit He failed, and then-you re- courtyard. ship. member that scene at the card tables?

"The prisoner's number?" That decided him. Blood and instinct The sergeant drew out a bulky docuwere too strong. He turned and used ment from between the buttons of his tunic

Lowe stepped out on to the balcony, "No. 4005, called Richard Nameless and bent forward with his elbows on of the First regiment, the Eleventh of chausseurs force their way through "The accusation?"

"Conspiracy and mutiny on the the restless crowd. The clash of the band was already fainter. The chasfield."

"Any previous record?" seurs rode now in silence, and once "No, my colonel, but marked as a more the dull monotonous tread preangerous character." dominated, strangely, persistently ominous. "You know where Farquhar "Very well, sergeant. You can stand is?" Preston said imperatively. "You back. The man saluted and retired a few paces, leaving his prisoner alone, fac-"If you know remorse you must wish ing the table. Colonel Destinn looked up. As their eyes met the prisoner wed, gravely, without bravado, with an instinctive courtesy which became work, has much to atone for," was the him strangely well, Colonel Destinn's abstracted answer. "I have chosen outstretched hands were clenched, and e knuckles stood out white and polished as marble. There was no trace of emotion on the implacable features, and his voice sounded formal and indifferent.

Preston did not speak, silenced "In the ordinary course of events against his will by the scene beneath this case would go to the court at him. The dancers from the hotel had Oran," he said. "But I have received instructions from General Meunier to deal with all such offenses summarily. There have been signs of unrest in the Legion. General Meunier demands that an example should be made."

The major nodded. "It's essential to discipline," he murtred vaguely *

Does Colonel Destinn know that he is about to pass sentence on his own son? In case he learns, do you believe the knowledge will alter the se-my, or any other information he has been commanded to procure. Photos, sketches, and notes have to be made by the observer, and at a low altitude within range of an enemy's guns the pilot has all his work cut out to avoid the bursting shells. There is another danger in flying low; as it is the pressure of air upon the forward edge of the planes that keeps the machine aloft, there is always the danger of flying into an air-pocket, or of eacountering a cross-current; and either of these aerial dangers will send the King George of England recently Guns or no guns, the pilot is com- gave a party in his palace to 1,000 pelled at times to fly low, so as to en- wounded soldiers and sailors.

The work of the pilot of an aeroengine needs constant watching, the controls by which he dips or soars need skillful handling, and the allerons into the light and from light back into verity of his judgment? (TO BE CONTINUED. AERO PILOT KNOWS THRILLS | able his observer to spy out the ene them. Their heads were bowed. Beneath the flare of lights each man seemed to shrink, to cower closer to

In the courtyard of the hotel two in his own thoughts, and the man in in the pilot's seat the rocking is ter-