Vanished Simplicity.
"What's all this talk about a full dinner pail?" asked the woman with a positive manner.
"Why," replied the campaigner, "I am endeavoring to call your attention to the advantage of an abundant no-day lunch."
"Well, I'll have you to understand that my husband doesn't expect me to fix up any lunch for him to carry around. Dinner pail, indeed! When the whistle blows at noon he eats at a cafe, where he has all the luxuries, including the privilege of tipping the waiter."—Washington Star.

Should Protect Bats.
Cincinnati, O.—Charles A. R. Campbell of San Antonio, Tex., pleaded for the life of the bat at the closing session of the annual convention of the American Public Health association on Friday. Campbell said it is known that the bat feeds almost exclusively on mosquitoes, and for that reason should be protected, as mosquitoes spread malaria. He advocated that laws be passed by the various states prohibiting the killing of bats.

"Well, you can't sell no bakin' powder here, and I ain't got no time to waste on peddlers, anyway."
"Come to think of it, ma'am," said the seedy gentleman, as he fastened his bag. "I wouldn't care to sell you any powder. This powder is full of arsenic, and if you eat it, the bread wouldn't have no chance to rise."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Why Suffer With Backache, Kidneys or Rheumatism Now?

Dear Father of Long-lived Progenies.
Letter Recovers—If I can do any good in the world for others, I wish to do it, and I feel that it is my duty to write about the wonderful results I received from the use of "Anurie." I was suffering from kidney and bladder troubles, scalding urine, backache, indigestion, and my ankles swelled so that at times I could not walk without assistance. Had taken several different kinds of kidney remedies but all failed. I sent for a box of Dr. Pierce's sweetest discovery, "Anurie," which I received by mail in tablet form. No soon after bed and am convinced that this popular new medicine is good. I wish to recommend it to my neighbors and everybody suffering from such troubles.
—Mrs. M. J. SARGENT.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disordered kidneys, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, indigestion, bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's Anurie Tablets. There can be no limitation. Every package of "Anurie" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-known friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and restorer for any one, besides being the best blood-purifier known.

SIX DIE IN I. W. W. BATTLE IN EVERETT

250 Men on Boat Fight With 150 Deputies on Shore.

WOUNDED [TOTAL FORTY-FOUR]

Invading Steamer Retreats After One Thousand Shots Exchanged—Expulsion Causes Trouble.

Everett, Wash. — At least six men were killed and 44 wounded Sunday in a pitched battle at the Everett city wharf between 250 members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who came here from Seattle on the steamer Verona, and a posse of 150 citizens, headed by Sheriff Don McRae.

Ex-lieutenant C. O. Curtis, of company L, Washington National guard, was killed. Nineteen others in the posse were wounded.

Five of the dead and 26 of the wounded were on the boat. Sheriff McRae is among the seriously wounded.

After the shooting, in which about 1000 shots were exchanged, the Verona turned around and started back to Seattle. Many men were seen to fall on the deck of the steamer, and others, panic-stricken, jumped overboard. Some were taken from the water, but others disappeared and it is believed they were drowned. The Verona reached Everett shortly before 2 o'clock.

A call to Industrial Workers of the World members from all over the state had been issued earlier in the week and the citizens of Everett, at a meeting held Saturday night, planned to meet the invaders and deny them the privilege of landing. The sheriff stepped forward and informed the men on the boat that they would not be permitted to land.

One of them, evidently spokesman for the party, began arguing with the sheriff and then made a speech. Apparently as a signal, the man dropped his hand and armed men on the steamer opened fire on the posse assembled on the wharf.

The first man to fall was Sheriff McRae, seriously wounded. One man was killed instantly and in a moment the crowd on shore was panic-stricken. Deputy sheriffs quickly rallied their forces, however, and returned the fire of the invaders on the Verona.

Men on the wharf and on the boat were seen to fall and the Verona immediately backed out of the dock and started back toward Seattle.

The trouble between the I. W. W.'s and the authorities at Everett has been of several months' standing and was the outgrowth of a strike of shingle weavers here. After several minor outbreaks of violence during the strike, Sheriff McRae organized the Citizens' committee and expelled all members of the Industrial Workers of the World from Everett.

A week ago 45 members of the Industrial Workers of the World came from Seattle by steamer, but were met at the wharf by the citizens' posse, loaded into automobiles and escorted to a point south of town, where they were liberated and ordered to go back to Seattle.

Last week the Industrial Worker, the official organ of the Industrial Workers of the World in Seattle, announced that the forcible expulsion of men from Everett must be avenged, and called for 2000 volunteers to go to Everett to establish the "right of free speech."

"The fight must be won," said the paper, "as the whole future of the Industrial Workers of the World in this section depends upon the outcome. We want all foot-loose rebels in the West to center their attention upon Everett and the labor trust's mill and logging properties. Get on the job and use your judgment."

Real cat can exercise pretty good judgment, and when he does, my, how the masters will squirm! We need men, men-cats, you know, real Toms. Head this way, and if you cannot join the invading army on Everett, you can get on the job and, besides making a stake you can—we'll you know."

Bank Robbers Get $7000.
Calgary, Alberta.—Two masked highwaymen blew open the safe of the Merchants Bank of Canada, at Okotoks, 30 miles south of Calgary, at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and escaped, presumably in an automobile, with about $7000. The robbers, before going to the bank, cut the telephone and telegraph wires at each end of the town and the authorities here did not learn of the crime until a motor car arrived here from Okotoks with the news. A member of the staff sleeping in the bank was gagged and bound.

Ship Launched on Lake.
Superior, Wis.—Anna Konkel, 9-year-old daughter of Mayor and Mrs. J. S. Konkel, Sunday christened the Cleveland, the first ocean vessel to be built at the head of the lakes. Plans were made as soon as the vessel was off the ways for laying the keels of two more boats for unnamed owners. The Cleveland is to be operated by a Norwegian company. To get it in service this winter, it was launched without machinery and will be towed down the lakes ahead of the freeze-up, to be finished at Detroit.

Russian Warship Hit.
Berlin.—(By wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—It is reported unofficially that the Russian battleship Sevastopol struck a mine several days ago and was badly damaged. The report was received Sunday by the Overseas News agency from Stockholm. According to this information, a Swedish merchant, who has just returned from a trip through Russia and Finland, says the Sevastopol struck a mine eight days ago and was partly destroyed.

LONGSHOREMEN ADJUST DIFFERENCES AND RETURN TO WORK

Portland—Portland is placed on a parity with Puget Sound in the matter of charges for handling cargo of all vessels through the action of Longshoremen's Union No. 6, Saturday night in voting to end the strike and report for work, the scale to be 50 cents an hour straight time and 75 cents an hour overtime.

The move accomplishes in the main what commercial interests have striven for and have been unable to bring about. Much credit for the amicable adjustment of the situation is given T. V. O'Connor, president of the International Longshoremen's association, and officers of the union, who have labored diligently during the past week to bring employers and employees together, and a special meeting of more than 225 members of Local No. 6 ended with a vote to start anew.

The determination to do their share toward ridding the port of the differential complained of is not confined to Portland, but extends to the mouth of the Columbia. Astoria and Rainier unions concurring in the decision.

"The understanding was arrived at when the men learned of logical arguments offered by the employers that the entire river district be placed on an equality with their northern competitor, Puget Sound," said Mr. O'Connor. "Now it is a matter for the commercial interests of the territory, and all vitally concerned in directing the trade to understand the elimination of whatever other features remain that are alleged to drive business from here."

Ninety-Two Drown When Ships Collide and Sink in Irish Sea
London—In one of the worst gales ever known in the Irish sea, the British steamship Connemara, with passengers and a cargo of cattle from Greenore, Ireland, for Holyhead, Wales, collided Saturday night just outside the Carlingford bar with the British steamship Retriever, loaded with coal. Both vessels sank immediately. Ninety-two lives were lost. Only two persons, a member of the crew of the Retriever and a passenger on the Connemara, were saved. There were 50 passengers and a crew of 31 on board the Connemara and the Retriever's crew numbered 13.

Many bodies are being washed ashore on the Irish coast. Numbers of cattle are being washed up, some alive.

The Connemara, 1106 tons gross and 272 feet long, was built in Dumbarton in 1896.

Turks Accuse Russians of Pillaging.
Constantinople — Turkish airplanes have dropped bombs on Suez and Port Tewfik and the British railway east of the Suez canal, says the Turkish official announcement Monday. The statement reads:

"Our airplanes successfully dropped a number of bombs on Suez and Port Tewfik, as well as upon the British railway east of the canal.

"The Russians, who do not wish to allow themselves to be outstripped in the pace pursued by their allies, fighting for civilization and international law, recently have found for their navy in the Black Sea employment full of glory. Imitating the Anglo-French fleets on the Aegean coast, they land under protection of their artillery bands of brigands at various points. These men do no other military service than to pillage property of our peaceful and defenseless people and set fire to their houses."

American Doctor Killed in Mexico.
Chihuahua City, Mexico.—Dr. Fisher, an American physician living at Santa Rosalia, was killed by the Villa bandits under General Basilio Uribe, according to the statement of a Mexican refugee who arrived here from Santa Rosalia late Sunday.

Dr. Fisher was one of the few Americans known to have been in Santa Rosalia at the time the Villa bandits captured the town.

General Uribe's bandits also executed several Chinese and Arab residents of Santa Rosalia on October 26. General Uribe, in a speech delivered after the capture of the town, accused foreigners of being enemies of Villa's cause, and then ordered summary executions of the Chinese and Arab residents.

Marburg Sails Anyway.
New York—Theodore Marburg, to whom a passport to return to England as an American citizen was refused by the State department on the ground that he had forfeited his citizenship by enlisting in the Royal Flying Corps of England, left here Sunday for Falmouth on the steamship Nordham without the citizenship documents.

Marburg joined the British aviation service some time after the war began, and he recently returned to the United States to recuperate after having lost a leg in the service.

Ukiah, Or., Has Bad Fire.
Pendleton, Or.—Fire, supposed to have started from a cigar store, Sunday morning destroyed five of eight business houses of Ukiah, 53 miles south of here. The buildings destroyed were the drug store and poolhall, property of the J. W. Kirk Hardware & Implement House; the warehouse of Wagener & Caldwell; the barber shop and the office of the Levi Edgerton Stage company. The estimated loss is $40,000, only a smattering of property insured. There were no fatalities, but fighting fire except a bucket brigade.

Six Have Infant Paralysis.
Salem, Or.—Six cases of infantile paralysis among the school children of Salem caused stringent precautionary measures to be taken Monday by Dr. David N. Roberg, of the State Board of Health, who placed the afflicted children under quarantine. Diseases which had been exposed to the disease also were quarantined. The children affected with the malady were pupils at the Highland and Garfield schools. These schools were guarded.

BANDITS CRY DEATH TO ALL AMERICANS

German Physician Saves Life Only by Proving His Nationality.

TRAIN ESCORT ALL SHOT DOWN

Two Cities Reported Taken by Villa Forces—Attack on Chihuahua City Promised Very Soon.

El Paso, Tex. — "Death to Americans" was the cry of the Villa bandits who charged down from the foothills at Laguna upon the Mexican Central passenger train Monday night, Dr. S. Hafner, the German physician who was a passenger on this train, declared upon his arrival here Saturday night from Chihuahua City.

Dr. Hafner said he was told by one of the Villa chiefs in command of the bandits that Villa troops had captured Santa Rosalia and Jimenez and would take Chihuahua City within 10 days. Dr. Hafner, who had practiced medicine in Chihuahua City many years, said he recognized many of the bandits as former patients and called them by name after he had established his identity as a German subject.

"I am sure I would have been killed had I not been recognized as the German doctor who had lived in Chihuahua City so long," Dr. Hafner added.

"The bandits came through the train crying 'Death to Americans!' and using the vilest oaths in reference to the 'gringos,'" Dr. Hafner said. "I was struck over the head by one of the bandits, who used his rifle as a club before I could convince him I was a German, but as soon as I convinced them I was a German I was freed."

"It was just growing dusk as we slowed down for Laguna station," he said. "I had seen the men off in the distance, but did not know they were bandits until the train came to a sudden stop and we discovered that the engine, tender and baggage car had been derailed."

"We heard shooting and then a bandit with a large hat and with his pistols drawn came through the train and ordered us all to leave it. An awful sight met our gaze as we alighted from the train onto the ground. The Carranza soldiers composing the escort were shot down like dogs. I counted 13 dead soldiers along the track and more bodies a short distance away, where they were shot with pistols by the bandits where they stood. One boy of 15 kept saluting and begging the commander of the bandits to spare his life. His answer was a bullet from the commander's pistol. In all more than 20 soldiers were shot."

Venzelists Attack Greek Royal Forces.
London—According to special dispatches from Athens Saturday, the Venzelist national defense army has seized Katerina, a few miles southwest of Saloniki, after a short fight with the Greek royalist troops.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Athens Saturday said:

"An extraordinary situation has been created by the action of the officers of the Larissa railway, which is controlled by the entente allies, in allowing royalist military officers to send reinforcements to oppose the advance of Venzelists."

The Venzelist army now numbers 30,000.

Reuter's Athens correspondent says the Greek government has sent reinforcements of infantry and artillery to Katerina. The correspondent adds that Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the allied fleet in the Mediterranean, has sent notice to the Greek harbor authorities indicating a danger zone for vessels entering or leaving Piræus harbor.

"Certain circles in Athens," the correspondent continues, "interpret this notice as meaning that Admiral Du Fournet has hitherto neglected to inform the Greek authorities of the precautionary measures taken, such as the laying of mines, and it is even insinuated that the Greek steamers Angheliki and Kiki Issaia, which were sunk recently, struck mines laid by the entente allies."

Man Resigns as Citizen.
Chicago.—Charles A. Filipiak, one of last year's crop of new citizens, got so tired of receiving campaign literature that he resigned as a citizen Saturday. Here is a letter he sent John W. Rainey, Circuit court clerk:

"Gentlemen: Please do not annoy me with your voting circulars, then I do not vote and kindly accept my resignation as a citizen. I will always remain an anarchist."

It is probable a court will be asked to set aside Filipiak's certificate of naturalization.

Ashes Fall Like Snow.
San Francisco.—A heavy fall of feathery white ashes over San Francisco and the surrounding country started many persons Saturday into thinking that San Francisco was experiencing the novelty of a snowfall. The fall was especially heavy in the downtown district. Weather Forecaster Wilson received numerous telephone calls from persons making inquiries. At the weather bureau particles of the ash were examined under the microscope, but no conclusion as to their origin was reached.

Wheat Buyers Draw Out for Lack of Freight Cars
Portland — The larger wheat buyers have withdrawn from the market and say they will do no more buying until they can get cars, regardless of whether the market advances or declines. Orders from Eastern mills for wheat are coming along strong, but are being turned down, as there is no immediate prospect of moving the wheat that has already been bought.

It is estimated that not over 20 per cent of the crop has been shipped to date, although the farmers have disposed of close to 80 per cent. The remaining 60 per cent has been sold to Eastern millers or to foreigners, but it is still here.

Farmers are showing a disposition to meet the market, but find buyers are not plentiful. At the Merchants' Exchange bids were reduced 3 to 5 cents, but there were no sales. Oats were unchanged and feed barley was 50 cents lower.

Consulting Dictionary — Reversible Error.
The Court of Civil Appeals of Texas does not seem inclined to recognize Messrs. Johnson, Webster, Funk & Wagnalls et al., lexicographers, as in any way inspired or otherwise gifted with infallibility. In Corpus Christi St. & Interurban Ry. Co. v. Kjellberg, 185 Southwestern Reporter, 430, the learned court held it reversible error for a judge to send his jury a dictionary.

The opinion was by Fry, C. J., and reads in part as follows: "After the definition of the word 'produced' had been given as 'the proximate cause of,' it seems that the jury knew no more what 'proximate' means than what 'produced' meant, so the officer in charge was sent to the court to obtain a Webster's Dictionary, and the court ordered the dictionary to be furnished the jury, and it was furnished, and they used it in the privacy of the jury room. What the jury obtained from that stupendous work, filled with inconceivable words and maxims and aphorisms, no one knows. No book should be consulted by a jury in arriving at a verdict, and especially one that defines and treats on everything expressed by the English language. No maker of dictionaries should ever be allowed to define legal terms to a jury, unless such definitions go through the medium of the trial judge, the only one authorized by law to give definitions and explanations to a jury."

A Moral Lesson.
At the end of a South Carolina colored meeting it was decided to take up a collection for charity. The chairman passed the hat himself. He dropped a dime in it for a nest egg. Well, every right hand there entered that hat, and yet, at the end, when the chairman turned the hat over and shook it, not as much as his own contribution dropped out.

"For de lan's sake!" he cried. "Ah's eben low' de dime Ah stahted wif!"
All the rows of faces looked puzzled. Who was the lucky man? Finally the venerable Calhoun White summed up the situation.

"Broeders," he said solemnly, rising from his seat, "dar 'pears ter be a great moral lesson rou'n' heah some-where."—Case and Comment.

"It looked that way to me, too," admitted the man beside him. "I'll, I dare say the empire could see the light better from where he was than we could from up here."
"Ah, go on home!" retorted the other, savagely. "You ain't got no busier."

"Good idea!" said the spokesman. "It will make it easier to express myself without creating a record that may involve future embarrassment."—Washington Star.
