MOSIER SHOWS PATRIOTIC SPIRIT

In commemoration of the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, the big mass meeting held Thursday night with musical numbers, patriotic songs by the audience and stirring speeches relative to the crisis that now confronts the Nation, was highly successful.

Beginning with the time of Jehovah and King David in early Biblical history and showing the oppressions of the people by the ruling powers for religious beliefs and inalienable rights, J. P. Ross traced the struggle for liberty and justice through the ages to the present time.

In his talk on Christianity and Democracy, Rev. Leon L. Myers contended that the two go hand in hand. "God made me a man before he made me a Christian, but he never intended my Christianity to destroy my manhood."

Major Race in taking up the economic food situation called attention to the rapidly rising prices and the additional amount needed for the coming year. He read from a report sent out by a New York bank last month which showed how considerable more spring wheat must be sown this spring in the United States to take care of the shortage, because in previous years a big surplus of wheat was always on hand.

Mrs. C. H. Castner, of Hood River, president of the Oregon State Federation of Woman's clubs, declared that the American women, whom many people called pacifists, are lending a big hand in this war crisis.

Sergeant Rollins explained that all soldiers must be trained men, as statistics show that a far greater per cent die from disease than from bullets. So he declared that the strictest sanitary conditions must be maintained. In the local quarters the kitchen floor is mopped every day and pots and pans scoured and even all waste water burned.

"We must keep our grounds and quarters always ready for inspection by the officers," the sergeant said. "The men are all of good caliber and on Sunday usually attend church. We have no chaplain here with us. We appreciate the favors shown us by Mosier people and wish to thank you for your many kindnesses."

"I love Old Glory even though I can't see," said J. P. Hunter, the old soldier who has lost his eyesight. "Patriotism is not marching and carrying the flag, throwing the hat in the ring or crowding to the county clerk's office for marriage licenses. If American armies were made up of these kind of people we would be invincible in peace and invisible in war. Its a case of too much of these dreaded diseases, petticoatitis and meningitis. The patriots of the '60s among the gray and blue though divided would fight a buzz. I entered the Confederate army at 16 years of age, was in for 3 years and 3 months and was in 125 engagements and stopped three bullets. Go out and fight for the grandest emblem that floats. Even though I am blind, there may be something I can do, and I will gladly die for my flag anyway."

Mrs. C. H. Stetton, of Hood River, rendered an appreciative number when she sang "The Star Spangled Banner," during which the audience remained standing. Mrs. B. A. Berry sang, "Freedom Forever," in her pleasing voice and piano selections were rendered by Mrs. J. P. Ross and Miss Marion Wood.

HELP OREGON BY DOING OUR BIT

There is scarcely an issue of the big daily papers published in Oregon but contains some news of the important $6,000,000 bond issue for good roads, telling of some small or large town having failed in line for this great cause, but up to the present time our Mosier district has been silent. No action has been taken to help the passing of the law on June 4th next. Herebefore the Mosier district has been in the front rank in good roads matters, evidenced by our $200,000 bond issue passed recently. If the $6,000,000 bond issue comes, Wasco county will be in the very fortunate position of taking advantage of all the benefits that will accrue to counties having road beds ready for paving, and Wasco county will indeed be fortunate.

With the foregoing in view it behooves every one in the county to put forth strong efforts and see that the $6,000,000 bond issue carries. Let no loop holes for defeat be left unguarded. The citizens of the Mosier district should call a big rally meeting and organize so that we may do our bit in this work that means so much for our state and county. Already Wasco county has a number of miles of nearly completed roads that will be paved by the state under the law of the $6,000,000 bonding issue, and this is only the beginning. Let Wasco county not only help "Pull Oregon Out of the Mud," but let's lift Oregon out of the ruts.

Never in the history of Oregon has there been such united and consolidated road in a good roads movement or any other movement for the upbuilding and development of the state as is shown in the matter of this $6,000,000 bond issue. The reason is very plain because never before was there a more important measure placed before the people for the welfare of the state. There is no excuse for any voter not to be well posted on what this bond issue means for Oregon. The whole argument why we should support this bond issue on June 4th next, may be summed up in the following: By doubling the automobile tax we provide a sinking fund and interest on the $6,000,000 bond issue; we extend or improve in some way a road to every county in the state; and the automobile owners by paying a double tax lessen their expense in tires, oil and wear and tear on cars, to say nothing of added pleasure in motoring. Wasco county has everything to gain by the bond issue passing and it is probably safe to prophesy that there will not be 50 votes against it and these 50 votes will be against it for the reason that the voters did not inform themselves of what this great movement means to "Pull Oregon Out of the Mud." The above holds true of every county in the state.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O, say, can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?— Whose broad stripes and bright stars, O'er the ramparts we watch'd as they gallantly streaming? And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there; O! say that Star Spangled Banner yet wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave! O! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desolation! Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heaven-rescued land Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation. Then conquer we must, when our cause is just, And this our motto: "In God is Our Trust." And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oak Knoll School District

Mrs. Sadie Sheldon fell off the back porch at her home Wednesday and was badly bruised. However, no bones were broken.

The visitors at the Oak Knoll school last week were Miss Osburn, Miss Derby, Mrs. Ernaquist, and C. C. Clement.

Mr. Hendrickson was in The Dalles Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clement Sunday.

Mrs. Sadie Sheldon and Miss Gertrude Hargreaves spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clement.

A. Durdance, of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoff and while here is going to Lyle, Wash., to look after the work on his ranch.

Stanley Eastman was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cummings Sunday.

Indian George a Prophet

Indian George, the venerable Hood River Indian who predicted that there would be "heaping snow" during the winter now lying in doubt, was a forecaster of merit if he had reference to the Wyoming country or the big mountain region. Rotary plows, big gangs of shovellers, shortage of feed on the cattle ranges, all bear witness to the truth of the prophecy of the red man. —Pacific Semaphore.

PEOPLE TO VOTE ON EIGHT MEASURES

The voters of Oregon will decide on eight measures, referred by the legislature, at a special election to be held Monday, June 4. Secretary of State Olcott has already prepared a few of the voters' pamphlets for the press and other interested parties. The pamphlets will be mailed to all voters between April 23 and May 10.

The titles of the respective measures to be voted on are as follows: Authorizing Ports to create limited indebtedness to encourage water transportation; A bill for taxation of Oregon and California grant land; Limiting number of bills introduced, and increasing pay of legislators; Declaration against implied repeal of constitutional provisions by amendments thereto; Uniform tax classification amendment; Requiring election city, town and state officers at same time; Four hundred thousand dollar tax levy for a new penitentiary; Six million dollar state road bond issue and highway bill.

The Kaiser's Prayer—Latest Ultimatum

Gott, Gott, dear Gott, attention please, Your bairner Vilhelm's here, Und has a word or two to say, Indo your private ear; So darn away all oders now, Und listen vell to me, For vat I say come rus me much, Meinself and Shermany.

You know, dear Gott, I vas your friend, Und from mein hour of birth, I quietly let you rule de Heffen, Vile I rules o'er de earth; Und ven I told mein soldiers, Of bygone battle days, I gladly split de glory with, Und give you half de braise.

In every vat I tried to brave, Mein heart to you vas true, Und only claimed mein honest share, In great deeds vat ve do. You could not haf a better friend, In sky, on land, or sea, Dan Kaiser Vilhelm, Number Two, De Lord of Shermany.

So vat I say, dear Gott, is dis, Und ve should still be friend, Und you should help to send mein foes To meet deir bitter ends. If you, dear Gott, vill dis me do, I'll nothing ask again; Und you and I vill bairners be For evermore—Amen.

But listen, Gott, it must be quick, Und haf to be so soon, Or else I haf to stop attack, Und only play defend. So four und twenty hours I gif To make mein Allies run, Und put me safe into mein blaace— De middle of de sun.

If you do dis, I'll do my bart, I'll tell de world de fact, But if you don't, den I must tink It is a hostile act. Den var at vonce I vill declare Und in mein anger rise, Und send mein Zeppelin ships to wage A fight up in de skies.

Dis ultimatum now, dear Gott, Is von of many more; Mein mind is settled up to clean De whole world off de floor. Because you vas mein bairner, Gott, An extra shance is giften; So help at vonce, or else I'll be De Emperor of Heffen. —Anonymous.

Marriage of Soldiers

(By J. E. Slade in Oregonian) I am a regular reader of the Oregonian and believe it to be the best paper on the coast, but I have noticed on your editorial page, in several recent issues, criticism of the action of young men who are marrying at this time.

I believe you are on the wrong track and that all young men, especially those about to enter the Army, should marry, as only by such means can the best blood of the nation be perpetuated. Do not give publicity to any ideas which will result in our next generation being fathered by stay-at-home or by men rejected by the examining medical officer.

I am just over 45, but as I have had years of experience in railroad and highway building, I have offered my services to the army engineer department and hope, if I survive the war, that I can help support young widows with children.
