Perhaps little do we realize that the street lights in Mosier are so placed as to draw special attention from across the river. It has been brought to our attention by citizens of White Salmon, Wn., and others who have passed by on the river boats that the electric street lights of Mosier not only loom up brilliantly from afar, but that they are so arranged as to form the letter M.

The rain yesterday morning was hardly sufficient to lay the dust in the roads. We are now over 12 inches short on rainfall and a good soaking rain would be welcomed. Most all of the hay and grain crops in this vicinity have either been placed in barns or cocked up. So that rain at this time will do comparatively little damage in this vicinity, on one hand and be of inestimable benefit on the other, especially to apple growers.

On account of the dry season the danger from fires is a serious menace and L. J. Merrill, who is agent for several fire insurance companies, says that he has written several new policies recently as well as keeping up old policies, the insurance on the majority of which runs out during the mid-summer months.

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
