IN THE GRAND MARCH

A DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT CHAIRMAN JOINS THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

Colonel Sidney Harper, of Texas, Says There is No Difference Between the Two Old Parties and He Wants to Be in the Struggle for Liberty.

During this era of corruption the people have been divided while the leaders of the two parties have been in partnership...

TO RAISE FUNDS.

General James B. Weaver writes to The National Economist: In thinking over the best plan for raising money, now so sorely needed in the campaign...

THE BIRMINGHAM MANIFESTO.

Address of the National Alliance and Industrial Union Presidents. The capitalist press, especially in the south, is trying to distort the meaning of the action of the recent conference...

SAVE THE REPUBLIC.

Ignatius Donnelly's Warning and Exigent Appeal to the People. We are about to enter upon the greatest political conflict this country or this world has ever known.

NOT FOR THE RABBIT.

The review editor of the Chicago Tribune, in commenting on "Money, Silver and Finance," says: It is unfortunate that this information is taken up with zeal by the reform press everywhere...

DO NOT SCATTER.

As before the St. Louis conference, so now we have a word of suggestion to committees in relation to state and national conventions. It is this: Put in nothing for unbecome; leave that to the old parties.

COMPLAINT AND ACTION.

Throughout the agricultural states south, west and northwest where, a few decades ago, were the happiest, best contented, most prosperous and most independent people on the habitable globe...

WELL, WHY NOT?

The Topeka Capital thinks the Democrats would save a good deal of hard work and money if they were to move to make the election of Harrison unanimous.—Kansas City Gazette.

OPEN YOUR HEARS.

The campaign is here. The time for political action has come. Remember that the People's party is the party of the people and has no wealthy office-seekers, national bankers or monopolists to furnish the campaign funds...

HONESTY AND ABILITY.

The Alliance members of congress in the house are showing an ability in debate and the possession of such a fund of information on economic subjects as are gaining them the respect of their fellow members.

WEST AND SOUTH UNITED.

We want all the ex-Confederate soldiers to come to Omaha; we want to meet them, not as we used to meet them, with fixed bayonets and eyes turned to the right like enraged animals...

HE IS A ROBBER.

When the farmer produces a bountiful crop there is great rejoicing by the speculators, who reap where they have not sown and gather where they have not strewn.

MUST SUCCEED.

In the telegraphic reports of the Maipo People's party convention, which met at Gardiner on May 3, there was evidence of a spirit of devotion to principle which must make the people victors ere long in the battle with tyranny and injustice.
