Ties, of Oakland, Calif., a minister of the Lutheran church, who is making a tour of Oregon, stopped off here several days this week. Henry Holst showed him the sights of this great city and surrounding country. He seemed well pleased with our town and may conclude to locate here; George Kapper, of Chicago, representing a syndicate of capitalists from that city was in Ashland May 23d, and papers were made out for the sale of the Ashland woolen mills property to Chicago people who expect to turn it into a huge brewery. The sale has not been made, but the chances are favorable thereto.—Record; The joint fair for Jackson and Josephine counties promises to be one of the best ever held in this section of Oregon. It will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 23, and continue four days. Peter Applegate is secretary and with others is leaving nothing undone to make it a success. $2950 will be awarded for premiums and $1250 for purses; Maurice E. Bain, our late associate, has again embarked in the newspaper business. His paper is published in the interests of Barlow, Aurora and Canby, Ore., and is called "The Three Sisters." As Mr. Bain is a notorious woman-hater, we wonder what influence was brought to bear upon him that he would consent to title his paper "The Three Sisters." However his paper shows up quite well and we wish him success; It Should Be in Every House. J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "the grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Welch was in the city yesterday and informed a MAIL reporter that the arrangements had all been perfected and the flouring mill at Central Point is a go; Miss Della J. Pickel and the Misses Theiss started yesterday morning on their trip to San Francisco and Portland, going via the bay city. We hope they will have a pleasant journey and a safe return; W. B. Roberts expects to leave for California the last of this week in company with Mrs. Roberts, whose health has been very poor of late, with the hope that the trip and change of climate will benefit her. They will visit Bartlett springs and the different health resorts of that state and will probably be gone all summer; In consequence of the engine of the R. R. V. R. R. getting out of repair the train was stopped for a couple of days this week. Ralph Ridenhour, engineer, assisted by Horace Nicholson, of Adkins & Webb's, fixed it up as good as new and Thursday morning it came down on time. During the layoff Geo. Coulter treated the car and engine to a new coat of varnish which makes them shine like a new silver dollar; That Medford enjoys the distinction of numbering among its citizens several connoisseurs of rare flowers is undeniable as anyone knows who has strolled about the city and gazed upon the numerous yards of beautiful blooming flowers. Among the rest we may mention the yard of Mrs. J. A. Edwards in the north part of town. The innumerable rare flowers and shrubs in this yard are indeed a source of pleasure and a joy forever to the owner. Last Saturday Mrs. Edwards kindly gathered for us 60 varieties of roses and other flowers and arranged them into a magnificent bouquet for which we return thanks; That Medford enjoys the distinction of numbering among its citizens several connoisseurs of rare flowers is undeniable as anyone knows who has strolled about the city and gazed upon the numerous yards of beautiful blooming flowers.
