Peoples' Party Ticket.
FOR PRESIDENT,
GENERAL JAMES B. WEAVER,
 OF IOWA.
VICE-PRESIDENT,
GENERAL JAMES G. FIELD, OF VIRGINIA.

ELECTORS.
 Nathan Pierce, of Umatilla Co.
 W. H. Galvani, of Washington.
 Sam'l E. Holt, of Jackson Co.
 W. G. Burleigh, of Willows Co.

The drunkenness and scandals of the late congress show little disposition to legislate for the people or relieve them of the burden of taxes.

The Oregonian editor has no doubt in his own mind that he is in favor of protecting the negro in his right to vote—provided he votes the republican ticket.

The Portland Telegram calls on the democrats to organize. After the Peoples party gets through there will be nothing left for you to organize, Mr. Telegram.

WHAT will Cleveland do for votes in Alabama when the colored republicans vote for Harrison? It took their votes to pull the state democratic ticket through last year.

APERTIONS are called, ye workers for the people's cause, to the article in another column instructing clubs how and when to organize. Take heed and go to work, for there is work to do.

MR. CLEVELAND has written another letter, in which he expresses the modest opinion that those democrats who do not support him in the coming campaign "are recreant to their country."

A VOTE for Weaver and Field is a vote for something besides who will be your next postmaster, but this is not saying that a new postmaster will not be installed shortly after the "two Jims" are inaugurated.

SECRETARIES of the different county clubs should not fail to send in their names and addresses to the secretary of the county executive committee that he may be intelligently informed of the present strength and where the weak portions are.

YOU voted yourself into the present financial condition to please your party leaders, and there is no law against your continuing it. If you like to sweat fourteen hours a day and take your pay in rags, patches and debt, just keep it up. You are the boss.

"ONE-HALF the world knows not how the other half lives," and it is fortunate on the whole that it does not. To take in all the suffering and misery there is around us, a vast portion of which even wealth could not alleviate, would drive sensitive and sympathetic people into the mad house.

THAT the Peoples party will carry this county and Southern Oregon in November is becoming more apparent as the campaign opens and the different county clubs respond to the call to organize. The state of Oregon also, as a whole, can even now be counted on as Peoples party, and with the systematic work only begun, it is safe to conclude the victory in November will be complete.

JOHN SHERMAN is whistling and chattering and, as he thinks, joking in his evil old age, to keep up his courage. Here he is on the World's Fair souvenir: "Give the Fair $5,000,000 and do not make believe that you are receiving yourselves in giving it a 70-cent silver dollar or two 35-cent half dollars. If children cry for it, as the Senator has said they will, why not give them 'castoria'?" said Sherman. "I have read that is a popular thing with the little ones, more popular even than the souvenir half dollars would be except for teething purposes."

"The democratic party of Oregon has begun its preparations for an active campaign. But the republican party makes no sign. It is tired. It has been ridden so hard by the bosses that it wants to rest awhile, and it is doubtful whether the interval between now and November will give it a sufficiently long vacation. But perhaps the senators and representatives in congress, with the collector of customs at Portland, can carry the state."—Oregonian.
 And perhaps not.

A SMART Aleck sneeringly asked an old farmer what he had learned in the farmers' alliance. The old gentleman replied: "I have learned to be a friend to myself, I have also learned to love my wife and children better than the party boss; besides I have learned that I have long been systematically robbed by law, and that it is my bounden duty to stop it, and that to do so I must vote the independent ticket."

THE hope of the laboring men in Pennsylvania no less than in the North and South, lies in the Peoples party, which is the sworn enemy of the economic policy which is making an aristocracy of plutocrats on the one hand and millions of industrial slaves on the other. The Peoples party is the only party which plutocracy is unitedly fighting. As long as monopoly in money, land and transportation exists, plutocracy will fatten on the life blood of the farmer, the miner, and the mechanic, and millions of toiling people will year by year find themselves sinking deeper and deeper in the meshes of hopeless serfdom.

THE VOTE IN NOVEMBER.
 The vote of Oregon in November will be about 80,000. The Weaver party will have about 20,000. Probably 2500 votes will be cast for the prohibition ticket. There will remain 57,500 to be divided between Harrison and Cleveland, and the vote for Harrison may be set down at over 30,000.—Oregonian.

GREAT "Scott!" He has actually conceded the "Weaver" party 20,000 votes in November! That means 25,000 in sight sure. Now let us do a little figuring on the basis of what the Oregonian has said above:
 The vote of Oregon in November will be about 70,000. The "Weaver" party will have about 25,000. Probably 3,000 votes will be cast for the prohibition ticket. There will remain 42,000 to be divided between Harrison and Cleveland, and the vote for Harrison may be set down at not over 22,000.

CHANGING THEIR TUNE.
 But a few months ago the plutocratic press of this country, speaking in sneering tones of the Peoples party, called them a lot of cranks, calamity howlers, witless fools, etc., but the following from the San Francisco Daily Examiner shows very conclusively that the third party movement is now being recognized and treated with that respectful consideration due a great and formidable organization:
 The Peoples party has entered on the campaign with spirit and energy. The four General Weavers, its candidates for the Presidency, shows that it is well organized and has roused a widespread interest. The attention the candidate has received from the people on the trip to the Coast and the general curiosity shown are somewhat remarkable when they are attracted by the representative of a third party. Colorado and Nevada have even been aroused to enthusiasm through the free coinage views of the Peoples candidate and have given him a hearty welcome.
 The reception of last night in this city shows that San Francisco is ready to give the new candidate a fair field. The discourse that greeted the Peoples party leader is an evidence that there is at least interest in the cause he represents and a readiness to listen to anything that may be said in its favor. This may not mean a large number of votes, but it is certainly a compliment to the party and its candidates. San Francisco is not intemperate of third parties, or of fourth or fifth parties either, but she has a habit of leaving them alone. When she shows a decided interest in any outside the regular organizations it may be taken as evidence that there is good reason for it.
 The Peoples party is an important sign of the times. It has crystallized the discontent of the last years of the century. It represents a good deal of sincere objection to things as they are and a belief that some large social and political problems can be solved by a short cut through legislation and government.
 This is a free country, where every man is allowed to carry out his ideas if he can get enough others to agree with him. It is proper that those who believe in certain ideas and principles should band themselves together to carry them out if they think them important enough. The consideration of whether the ideas are good or not does not effect their right to try to carry them out.
 Whether the Peoples party proves to be one of the ephemeral organizations that last for a campaign and are heard of no more, or becomes a permanent force in the politics of the country, what is good in its ideas will survive and find practical realization in our Government, and what is bad or impracticable will disappear. But just now it has the enthusiastic support of many thousands of sincere believers, and unbounded claims in regard to its strength. As an organization that will render considerable aid in the campaign it is worth watching with respectful attention.

The Ring is not Dead Yet.
 Editor Southern Oregon Mail:
 A few words in regard to our present county board. It is still plain to be seen that the Jacksonville ring is not dead yet. Mr. F. M. Parker some time ago came in contact with a sump in the county road. He threw him from the running gear of his wagon, dislocated his ankle and cracked one bone. He called in the Gold Hill doctor, who made three trips and charged him the sum of $60. It is well known here that the supervisor was requested last spring to cut the stumps out of the road and he refused to do it. So one of his men left him and went back and cut stumps until he had worked his time out and the rest of the stumps were left in the middle of the road; and these were the stumps that crippled Mr. Parker. He was confined to his house for over a month and behind a man with a large family, his neighbors advised him to get up a petition and present it to the county board and see what they would do for him. The leading taxpayers of this precinct signed the petition. Some of which are: J. H. Breeding, Wm. Harper, G. F. Schmiedlein, W. V. Jones, John Woods, A. C. Spear, J. W. Robinson, Isaac Simpkins and a great many more names. This petition was presented to the county board, at the last board meeting and not a cent would they allow him, so it is plain to be seen while a man lives in Jacksonville and belongs to the ring, they will raise his salary $100, but let a poor man come in from the country, they will say, "we do not know you for you do not belong to the ring. But it is a long lane that has no turn and justice will yet prevail."

Later—As Mr. Parker was going to Woodville with a load of wood his wagon wheel broke and threw him from the wagon and hurt his ankle again and he suffered considerable pain Saturday and Sunday.
 A KICKER FROM WOODVILLE.
 Woodville, Aug. 15, 1892.
 General Weaver's Movements
 DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 22.—General Weaver, after visiting at home a few hours, started South tonight. He will speak through Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, the Carolinas and Virginia. He will return to Iowa early in October, and devote the remainder of his time to the Northwest states. He is in good health, and very sanguine.

ALL SORTS.
 The state fair 1892 commences on the 13th day of September, and lasts one week.
 The wild blackberry of Oregon is undoubtedly superior to any such fruit that grows. It should be in our markets more.
 A sister of murderer Wilson started from the East with $1000 to defend him with. She arrived in Portland the day he committed suicide.
 The Northwest Progress, published at Monmouth in the interest of the Prohibition party, has suspended publication on account of lack of patronage.
 Grand Chancellor Hayne, K. of P., is out on a visit to a number of lodges outside of Portland. His state deputy, George A. Beavry, has made official visit to a majority of the lodges in the jurisdiction.
 A correspondent asks why muskellons are called canteloups. They were first so called from being cultivated at Canteloupi, a small village near Rome, where they had been introduced from Armenia by travelers.
 Jacob Bowman, of Ashland, was partly paralyzed last week, and there is no hope of his recovery. He has since professed religion and was baptized in a tank last Sunday by Rev. J. A. Slover and the help of men, who carried him out of the house on a sheet.
 Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state by the Farmers' Journal Publishing company, of Portland, with a capital stock of $10,000. The incorporators are H. B. Luck, W. H. Spangh, Charles Miller, A. Luelling, W. G. Burleigh, S. H. Holt and W. A. Sample.
 A large party of mountain climbers left Grant's Pass for Crater lake recently, consisting of N. P. Dodge and wife, Rosco Person and wife, H. C. Kinney and wife, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Pigney, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Van Dyke, Fred Minch and C. P. Craner. The party will be absent several weeks.
 The annual fair of the Southern Oregon State Board of Agriculture will be held at Roseburg, commencing on Tuesday, September 20, and continuing five days. It promises to be the best fair ever held in Southern Oregon, as several of the farmers and business men of the valley are already making arrangements to display their products and wares.
 M. Kellogg has purchased the apple crop of Mr. Netherlands, on the Houck place near Ashland, for a Portland dealer, and expects to ship a car load from Clawson this week. He has been negotiating for the crop of apples and pears of E. K. Anderson and others down the valley, also, says the Ashland Tidings, and is said to have offered as much as 70 cents a box in some cases.
 Deer may be killed in Oregon between July 1 and November 1; does between August 1 and January 1; however, deer must not be killed at any time unless the carcass is used or sold for food. Swan and ducks may be killed between September 1 and March 15. All trapping, netting, snaring or destruction of eggs is prohibited. It is unlawful for a period of five years to catch or kill Mongolian pheasants.
 The state treasurer is notifying county treasurers to pay up the balance of taxes due on the levy made by the state board of equalization. Many counties paid on the levy made by county boards, which are lower. The state treasurer states that unless the county treasurers pay up at once the warrants will soon have to be endorsed. This circular is based on the late decisions of the supreme court.
 At Washington Park, Chicago, in the presence of 20,000 people August 17, Budd Doble drove the beautiful mare Nancy Hanks against time, beating her own previous record 12 seconds, and lowering the world's trotting record of 2:05 2/5 a full second, which establish tion in regard to course of study, text books, etc.

 Our parents we ask the same hearty co-operation that you gave us last year in our work, and we will all labor to the end that our schools shall be the pride of our city.
Business College Opening.
 The opening exercises of the Medford Business College will take place at the Baptist church of Medford, Ore., on Monday, Sept. 5, beginning at 7:30 p.m. A program has been carefully arranged for the occasion consisting of short addresses by some of the leading men of Jacksonville county, and music by a drilled chorus of thirty voices with orchestral accompaniment, conducted by Prof. John Weeks of Phoenix.
 The entertainment is free and we take this method of inviting the public to attend. Come one and all.
