Pork Packing.

Joe Hockersmith will go into the Pork packing business on an extensive scale in this city this winter and having purchased a five-acre tract just north of the distillery, commodious buildings are being erected and he expects to begin killing in a few days. A large band of fat hogs have just been driven in from Klamath county and these will be slaughtered immediately. Farmers having porkers to dispose of will do well to consult Mr Hockersmith. It is with pleasure that we recommend his product.
