We can't talk enough about our one-piece dresses. They are the marvel of the age. Just think what it means to be able to go into a store and select a wool or silk dress and put it right on and wear it without the fuss and trouble which comes from selecting materials, trimmings, etc., and having one made up. Of course you may have to have an alteration lady fit you, but that only means a few moments, then the dress is perfect. Think of not only the time and worry saved, but we can actually save you the price of making.
