PICTORIAL PANTOMIME AT SAVOY TONIGHT

Follow the crowd to the Savoy tonight and you will not go wrong, for the pictures are entertaining, instructive and amusing. The large audience felt many genuine thrills in "The Mexican's Revenge," and were intensely interested by "The Montebank's Son," a story of great heart-interest. "The Dull Knife" brought forth peal after peal of laughter, and the excellent comedy certainly deserved it. Many expressed the belief that it was the best bill of pictures ever shown in the city. Entire change of program tomorrow night. One dime.

WESCOTT IS DISCHARGED BY KLAMATH FALLS JURY

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Nov. 6.—C. B. Wescott, charged with embezzlement, was acquitted by the jury after it was out for almost 24 hours. Wescott was formerly bookkeeper and manager for F. M. Chrisman, who owns and conducts a large mercantile establishment at Silver Lake. It was alleged by Chrisman that Wescott was short in his accounts. At first the shortage was fixed at $21,000, but the last report was that it was only about $3000. Since the acquittal of Wescott there is talk of a damage suit against Chrisman.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

(The Herald.)

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund March returned last Friday from Yoncalla, where they spent several days visiting Mrs. March's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Caley.

The Hallowe'en supper given in the town hall Saturday evening by the ladies of the M. E. church was a decided success. The spread included all the special delicacies of the season and the proceeds amounted to almost $50.

A. L. Aikens, Eli Jones, Mr. Orloff and L. Hatfield a-hunting went last Thursday, and the way the weather turned out the next day, it is a safe guess that they needed all the "snake medicine" they took with them.

Mr. Lane of Montrose, Colo., is here looking over the country with a view to making some heavy investments. He is expecting Mrs. Lane to join him here in a few days.

Howard Stewart, recently from Caldwell, Idaho, has bought the John Griffiths residence property on South

Seventh street, the consideration being $1600. Mr. Stewart also bought an 80-acre tract near Rabbitville, in Sams Valley, from Benton Bowers of Ashland, the price being $1500. C. S. Sanderson of the Central Point Real Estate company, handled both deals. Mr. Stewart is much pleased with the country and will bring his family and make a permanent home here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Harriott of Applegate, who visited friends here last week, returned home Thursday. Mr. Harriott tells of three pear trees on his farm which were planted by his father in 1859. After they came to bearing the variety was found not desirable and the trees were top-grafted to Bartlett's. Now, Mr. Harriott says, every year the three trees are good for 1000 pounds or more of perfect fruit each. The Applegate valley is one of the richest spots in Oregon and land values have recently advanced there at a proportionate rate as in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Harlan of Dunlap, Ill., arrived Tuesday to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. A. J. Dunlap. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan usually spend their winters in California, but they have decided to try the Oregon climate this season.

E. Parker of Seattle was here Tuesday looking over the valley. He was the guest of A. J. Dunlap while here.

John Grieve came down from Prospect Tuesday. He reports two feet of snow at Crater Lake last Thursday and an October rainfall at Prospect of five inches.
