

TEDDY SCENTING FOR MORE LAND

His Paper Has Another "Dream" regarding Roosevelt's Hunt in Africa—To Grab More Territory.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Although the French newspapers are devoting much space to Colonel Roosevelt, they are paying very little attention to facts since he has been in Africa.

The Petit Parisien today has a new "dream" in an article under a Rome date from a staff correspondent, which says that the real reason for Roosevelt's trip to Africa is a campaign of territorial aggression and insists that the hunt is a "mere pretext for covering a political commission."

The correspondent says that this commission is the exploration of certain parts of Africa in preparation for American occupation and settlement. How the territory is to be "grabbed" or who is backing the scheme the correspondent fails to state.

EDWARD REX 60 YEARS OLD

Quietly Observing His Birthday at His New Residence in Norfolk—Only a Few Guests.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—King Edward is celebrating his 60th birthday privately at his residence at Sandringham, Norfolk, today. His birthday was celebrated on coronation day last June.

The counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, which consider themselves part of the royal domain, have closed their schools in honor of the event, salutes are being fired at garrison towns all over the empire, flags are flying everywhere and thousands of congratulatory telegrams from prominent men and women throughout the world have been delivered at Sandringham where the king will remain today surrounded by his family and a few friends. Court etiquette forbids presentation of gifts except from members of the royal family, but tenants and employes of the king's estate are allowed to make little offerings and King Edward is overwhelmed today.

Clean-Cut Comedy Pictures at The Savoy Theater.

Caryola Wells' clever comedy picture, "The Wallace Jewels," made quite a hit last night at Medford's popular place of amusement. It is a bright comedy, all the way through, consistently acted, amid realistic scenic arrangements and richly deserves the laughter it gets. "Two of a Kind" is a sparkling farce comedy, built around an unique plot in a manner that brings forth all kinds of mirth. Both the above will tickle your funnybone. Don't miss them.

"Across the Divide," a western drama of a mining camp, is intensely thrilling, telling a story of human interest in a most pleasing way. The rugged outdoor scenery of this picture is realistic and typical of the story. Entire change of program tomorrow night. One dime. The Savoy.

John Cohen of Hill, Cal., is in Medford on business.

SHERIFF IS BUSY ON TAX RECORDS

Delinquent Tax List Will Be Lower This Year Than Ever Before, According to Sheriff Jones.

Sheriff Jones and his office force are busily engaged in closing up the tax records. The delinquent list this year will be much lower than ordinarily.

In former years the list ran all the way from $20,000 to $25,000, but this year the sheriff thinks the list of those who have failed to pay taxes on their property in Jackson county will be much shorter than usual and that the total sum delinquent will not be over $10,000 if it reaches that sum.

LOS ANGELES WILL ELECT MAYORALTY CANDIDATES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 9.—Tomorrow the voters of Los Angeles will select from a plethora of mayoralty candidates whose names will appear on the ballots for the final election December 7. Campaign managers are marshalling their forces for the preliminary skirmish that will eliminate all but two of the aspirants from the race.

Seven candidates for the city's highest honor will be voted upon tomorrow. They are: George Alexander, the incumbent; William Musket, George A. Smith, Oscar Farish, W. Scott Lewis, J. C. Hurley and J. W. Jones. Under the commission form of government in vogue here, the candidates' names appear on the ballots without party affiliations.

TWO ADJUDGED INSANE AND SENT TO ASYLUM

George F. Ralls of Gold Hill was adjudged insane Monday, and on Tuesday he was taken to the asylum at Salem. Last week John Strohinski, a familiar character of Gold Hill, was adjudged insane and removed to the asylum. Strohinski has been a resident of Gold Hill for a number of years and has always been more or less erratic. Finally his condition became such that he was dangerous, and his removal was necessary.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT?

This all absorbing question refers that peer of all late model light cars

THE HUDSON "20"

This Dandy Little Car arrived at our garage late Saturday night and if you haven't seen it, a sight of it will do your eyes good. Nothing so neat and trim, and yet so powerful in the form of a light car has ever been shown in Medford, and the way the requests for demonstrations are coming in, our quota of 4—all the factory could spare—will go very quickly. In fact we have already sold one, leaving but 3 for Medford and if you are thinking of investing in a car of this class, you had better act at once.

In addition to the Hudson "20" we have been allotted just 6 CHALMERS "30", two of which have already been sold, even before our demonstration car arrived—it will be here the last of this week, so don't delay if you have any intention of purchasing a car. If you desire a demonstration, just phone 1861 and we will take pleasure in showing you where the HUDSON "20" and the CHALMERS "30" excell all other makes.

THE MEN BEHIND THE HUDSON

J. L. Hudson, president, capitalist, of Detroit, Mich; Hugh Chalmers, vice-president; Mr. Chalmers is president of the Chalmers-Detroit Motor Co.; R. B. Jackson treasurer and general manager, former factory manager of Olds motor works; R. D. Chapin, secretary; Mr. Chapin is treasurer and general manager of the Chalmers-Detroit Motor Co.; Geo. W. Dunham, chief engineer and designer; Mr. Dunham was formerly chief engineer and designer for the American motor carriage works; H. E. Coffin, member board of directors; Mr. Coffin is vice-president of the Chalmers-Detroit Motor Co.
