Mrs. Bish of North Court street returned home Monday from an extended social visit with her sister and family, Mrs. Charles Heekle, of Griffin creek.

George Brown of Eagle Point was in Medford Tuesday night, looking after business matters. Mr. Brown is the pioneer merchant of Eagle Point and ex-county commissioner of Jackson county.

Maud Stone Wright left Tuesday for San Francisco, where she will be married Wednesday afternoon to Grant McMicken, purser on the Alaska-Pacific Coast Steamship Co. line.

Miss Pearl Bass, accompanied by Annie Lamb, two popular young ladies of Mountain district, visited the city Monday and Tuesday night, shopping. They were the guests of Mrs. Lucy Davis, North C street.

Francis R. Martin, a 17-year-old youth, was gathered in by the police Tuesday evening, charged with intoxication. Young Martin has sworn to a complaint stating that he had secured whisky at two saloons in the town, viz.: at Bass & Hale's and at Harrington's, and the first-named case will come up before Justice Canon this afternoon. There was another lad with him when he was arrested, but he escaped. He is known, however, and will be looked up by the authorities.

H. C. Howarth of Hood River is in Medford looking for an investment in fruit lands. Mr. Howarth is delighted with the Rogue River valley and will select a suitable tract of land and become one of the fruitgrowers of this section. He finds the valley of the Rogue superior to Hood river in many respects, and proposes to take advantage of some of the many opportunities presented here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Deming of Beagle were in the city Monday laying in winter supplies and noting the rapid changes the city has made in their month's absence.

COJUNTY FAIR IS GREAT SUCCESS

Men's Brotherhood Holds Successful Meeting in Basement of Church.

The county fair held last night in the basement of the M. E. church by the Men's Brotherhood was one of the greatest successes of anything of its kind ever held in the city. Displays from all countries, old relics of early days in Southern Oregon and pictures of Medford in 1880-85-86 were of great interest to all.

One of the main attractions was the fishing pond, where a large crowd gathered throughout the evening. This department was under the care of D. T. Lawton.

To make the county fair scheme complete, lunch counters and candy stands were to be found on every corner, and the original old-fashioned county fair was carried out in every sense of the word.

The M. E. Brotherhood should be congratulated upon having given such a splendid entertainment, and further, upon having such a body of earnest workers, and there can be no doubt, judging from the success of their work last evening, but what they will move on to the goal they have in view.

The Brotherhood hold their regular meetings on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month in the basement of the M. E. church, and cordially invite any man, young or old, to visit their meetings.

ERICKSON RETURNS FROM STRENUOUS OVERLAND TRIP

T. O. Erickson, of the forest service, has returned from a trip east to Klamath county on foot, from Lilly-glen to the eastern boundary of the reserve. Ted was mixed up in bear fights, snow drifts and all the other little things that go to make life pleasant (?) in the upper regions of the Cascades during winter, but came back hale and hearty and full of stories of the trip. The story that he had fallen in a snow drift and had to be helped out he denounces as a canard, and as proof alleges that there aren't any drifts deep enough to engulf him in that section, unless he lay down, and this he refused to do, even to help out his newspaper friends with a story.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

B. T. Harvey of Flounce Rock, who has been visiting friends and relatives in that section, returned to Eagle Point the latter part of last week and proceeded on his way to his home in the Willamette valley.

Frank E. Smith and wife of southeastern Alaska came out on the P. & E. railroad and engaged your correspondent to take them to Derby, where they spent a few days visiting Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Frank Netherland, returning on Monday.

and after spending a few days visiting relatives in Talent, expect to start for their home in the north. They speak in high terms of that section and claim that the cold is not so severe as it is in some of our northern states.

H. A. McLellan, a representative of the Mail Tribune, was a pleasant caller at the Sunnyside, and after spending the night, engaged Jake Jones to go and drive for him over the country in the Butte Creek and Rogue river sections. He is hustling the old delinquents up pretty lively.

Frank Netherland of Derby, one of the proprietors of the Derby sawmill, came out last Monday on business and to bring his brother-in-law, Mr. Smith, to the valley.

Mr. Marcy, one of the Butte Falls merchants, stopped at the Sunnyside last Sunday night on his way home with a load of goods.

F. D. Clark and R. G. Andrews of Seattle were pleasant callers last Monday. They were looking for a place where they could invest their money in good garden land and were very favorably impressed with our surroundings.

Last Sunday night there was three men came to the Sunnyside hotel about 11 o'clock at night and called for beds. They were from the railroad camp near Derby, one of them, Mat Olsen, had been blown up to a limited extent while he was fixing to put in a big blast, having put in a small one to swell the hole, he was putting in some black powder preparatory to putting in a quantity of dynamite. The powder in the hole ignited, supposed to have been caused by a spark of fire from the small blast, hanging to the roots of a tree, and the result was that his face was badly powder burned and several stones struck him in the face, but fortunately the black powder in the can or the 20 pounds of dynamite did not explode. Dr. Holt, our M. D., was called and dressed the wounds and Tuesday morning he was resting easily. Speaking of the P. & E. railroad, the track layers say that they are getting along fine with their work and will soon have the steel laid as far as they have the right of way graded. The different gangs are at work on the cuts and fills and the big steam shovel is doing good work supplying the road with gravel for ballast.

Scott Claspill, a Butte Falls merchant, stopped Monday night at the Sunnyside on his way home with a load of goods.

M. Conley, one of the Butte Falls carpenters, stopped with us last Monday night. He reports that the mill men are getting out timbers for a 75,000 capacity mill in that enterprising town and that business is booming up.

A gentleman by the name of Wright of Salem, who is in the nursery business, called last Monday, looking for a location. He seemed to think that Eagle Point was about the right place.

Your Eagle Point correspondent was unexpectedly called to Portland last Tuesday on account of his son-in-law, G. H. Shaw, having been accidentally shot in the face by a gun going off in the hands of one of his neighbors, the charge of shot striking him on the side of the face, breaking the jaw bone on both sides.

He is at the Good Samaritan hospital, and I am going to bring the children home to Eagle Point so as to relieve his wife of the responsibility of caring for them. At last accounts he was resting easily. On account of my being called away I will not be able to fill my appointments at Table Rock and Sams Valley next Sunday.
