Miss Catherine Toft, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Toft, and E. A. Heffer, were quietly married at eight o'clock Monday evening, November 15, at the home of the bride's parents on Grape street in the presence of the members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The wedding services were impressively read by Rev. Mr. W. F. Shields of the Presbyterian church, the ring ceremony being read. Proceeding the ceremony Mr. Clarence Meeker sang "Last Night," and Mr. Clarence Kellogg played soft music during the ceremony, as well as the wedding march as the bridal party entered the beautifully decorated parlors. An artistic arch covered with ivy and white chrysanthemums marked the place where the ceremony was performed, the brides being done entirely in green and white while the dining room was done in green and red. The bride, a petite demure beauty, was charming in a gown of champagne satin, cut on the popular princess lines with ruche of effective all-over ruffled lace, and she carried a bouquet of long-stemmed carnations. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bernice Toft, who wore a pretty and dainty gown of cream wool tulle, seemingly trimmed with lace. The groom was attended by Mr. C. W. Heffer, as best man. After the ceremony, cake and fruit table were served. Mrs. Toft being assisted by Mrs. Ray Toft and Mrs. J. H. Toft.

Mr. and Mrs. Heffer are among Medford's most popular young people. Mr. Heffer being a successful and rising young business man and Mrs. Heffer accomplished in the many arts that add their highest utility in the home. After November 20th they will be at home to their friends at 409 North Riverside avenue. Those present at the ceremony were: Rev. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Toft, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Toft, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Mroy, Miss Warr Carter, Miss Blanche Toft, Miss Fern Toft, Mr. C. W. Heffer, Mr. Clarence Meeker, Mr. Clarence Kellogg, Mr. Ernest Peachey.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church and their friends spent a delightful afternoon Tuesday when the pretty new home of Mrs. John Barnsbury on West Tenth street was thrown open for the first large social gathering since its completion. This is one of the most modern in design and artistic in finish of Medford's many new and up-to-date residences and the tasteful arrangement of the rooms formed a fitting setting for the gay gathering. Nine tables of whist and five hundred were played and duty refreshments served, the assisting hostesses being Mrs. H. C. Kentner and Mrs. C. D. Hazelrigg. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Moulden, Mrs. H. D. Foster, Mrs. J. D. Board, Miss Board, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Will Andrews, Miss Andrews, Mrs. Jess Honeck, Miss McKay, Mrs. G. Schmeckhorn, Mrs. Chas. Honeck, Mrs. H. W. Gray, Mrs. H. C. Kentner, Mrs. F. W. Streets, Mrs. M. Purdill, Mrs. Shen, Mrs. C. M. Kidd, Mrs. Agan, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. H. Platt, Mrs. H. Howard, Mrs. C. Ferguson, Mrs. Culp, Mrs. Pender, Miss Porter, Mrs. Gay Childers, Mrs. Quisenberry, Mrs. Humphreys, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Apple, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. S. A. Nye, Mrs. John Root, Mrs. T. E. Bilton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gaddis, and Mr. Aldenbach. After two piano selections by Mrs. Flora Gray five hundred and what were played till a late hour when refreshments of delicate sandwiches, banana and nut salad and coffee were served in the banquet room.

range of Miss Mabel Kent to Mr. Homer Rothmann on November 25. Mrs. E. A. Welch and Mrs. J. H. A. E. entertained on Wednesday afternoon with a linen shower at the home of Mrs. Welch, 812 East Main street. The beautiful cottage home was lavishly decorated with red hearts which gave a pleasing note of color. In a guessing game in which the answers were found in the character and names of plays of Shakespeare, Miss Alta Mulkey won the prize, a bound volume of Shakespeare's plays. Many useful and beautiful gifts of linen were presented. Lunch, consisting of salad, sandwiches, olives, cake and coffee were served. The invitation list was as follows: Meses Alta Mulkey, Maggie Ragsdale, Maude Ragsdale, Ione Hoyt, Lou Porter, Ida Lee Kosler, Geraldine Thoms, Blanche Wood, Clara Wood, Josephine Painter and Miss Lillian Lockett and Mrs. R. S. McDowell of Pasadena, Calif., and Mesdames Walter Knutson, Fred Colvig, H. M. Butler, H. L. Montgomery, J. Buehner and William Miller. Miss Kent and her mother have but recently returned from a trip of several months, spent in travel and visiting friends and relatives in Chicago, their former home.

Mrs. I. L. Hamilton entertained the Five Hundred Club at her home on North Central avenue on Friday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Bookstoe who leave next week for their former home in Pittsburg, Pa. Mrs. Hamilton was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. D. Elwood and Mrs. J. H. Butler. Five hundred was played, Miss Gertrude Weeks winning the ladies' prize, while Mr. Jessie Honeck and Mr. J. H. Butler each made an equally high score. The ladies presented Mrs. Bookstoe with a handsome belt buckle as a souvenir of the year spent in Medford and as a slight token of the high esteem in which she is held. Both Dr. and Mrs. Bookstoe have made many friends in Medford who are loathe to lose them from social and professional circles. Those enjoying Mrs. Hamilton's hospitality were: Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Bookstoe, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels, Dr. and Mrs. Gabel, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hutchason, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. On Wednesday evening Pionniers Council entertained the members of the order, the Redmen and their wives and a large circle of invited guests at the lodge room in open meeting. An informal musical program was rendered, Mr. Henri Guenon, the popular operatic tenor, giving two pleasing numbers, and Miss Dolie Shultz and others contributing instrumental numbers, all of which were much appreciated. The table was attractively decorated with purple and white chrysanthemums, the delicious cake, coffee and fruit were served. The third Wednesday of each month is observed throughout the winter as the regular social night. The committee on arrangements were: Mrs. John Harrington, Mrs. N. S. Bennett and Mrs. Myrtle Gardner.

Mrs. A. E. Reames of Jacksonville entertained with a luncheon on Friday for Mrs. H. J. Rogers and her daughter, Miss Catherine Rogers. Mr. Rogers has been on the educational commission for several expositions, spending two years in Paris, while working during the Paris exposition, having finished similar labors at A. Y. P. exposition, the family is spending the winter here, residing at the Hotel Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. William Angle are spending several months at the orchard home of Dr. Anderson east of Medford during the latter's absence in Minnesota. The delightful Angle home is being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Platt and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Howard, both Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Howard being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Angle and brides of the year.
