NOTED MUSICAL COMPANY TO APPEAR IN MEDFORD
Negotiations are under way for a performance in Medford about December 15th by the Shubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette of Chicago. Many have heard this company and of the high favor in which its twentieth year of success has placed it. The great variety and popular character of this company's program has endeared it to the hearts of American music lovers until today it stands undoubtedly first in their affections. Their new program is said to be the finest they have ever presented.
The company is just starting on its western tour and opens soon in Portland. At Denver it was given a most excellent and was also this praise and exult from the Daily News of Denver:

"It is rarely, indeed, that Denver is favored with such vocal execution and instrumental as well. When it is said that he work of the quartette is beyond criticism and the other performances the work of professionals the truth is told."
Medford high school has been engaged for this entertainment for the city of Medford and Medford should show its appreciation by a large attendance.
MEDFOR ON FRIDAY STONG PLAY COMING TO
The next attraction at the Medford Theater will be one that ought to appeal to all classes of theater-goers. On Friday, November 26th, Manager Hazelrigg will present an all-features vaudeville direct from Pantages, Portland. Sale of seats begins at Haskins Wednesday, November 24th. The following write-up of the acts is from the Oregonian of November 14th:
"One of the strongest headline attractions ever presented Portland in vaudeville theater will top the bill at Pantages during the week, which commences with the Monday matinee, November 15. It will be one of the internationally famous Jesse Lasky productions, The Seven Hoboes, in a satire on tramp life, entitled, 'On the Road.' Nat C. Baker, well known for his tramp impersonations, is the star in the production, which is most sumptuously mounted. Throughout the east, where it has appeared as a top-line attraction, the act has created an immense amount of favorable comment.
"Various kinds of tramps are impersonated by the people in the cast. The Hebrew tramp, the Weary Willie, the Dago, the Irish, are all included, and all make tremendous hits. It will be one the big vaudeville treats of the season, and packed houses will undoubtedly welcome every performance."
