BONUS OFFERED FOR GOOD CATTLE

Premiums Offered for Best Christmas Cattle Shipped to Portland.

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 3.—The Portland Livestock Exchange offers for the best Christmas cattle shipped to the Portland union stockyards the following premiums:

Car steers, not less than 20 head—First, $150; second, $75.
Car cows, not less than 20 head—First, $150; second, $75.
Best single steer—First, $25; second, $15.
Best single cow—First, $25; second, $15.

Cattle to be judged morning of December 14 and sold at auction that afternoon. Judges, John F. O'Shea, Portland; Frank Brown, Carlton, Or.; G. W. Gammie, Portland. This sort of encouragement should be an incentive for the breeder and feeder of cattle. It is in line with the educational work undertaken by this company and to which the press of the Pacific northwest is lending valuable aid.

Receipts at the Portland Union stockyards for the month ending today have been: Cattle 6518, calves 584, sheep 7549, hogs 12,744, horses 274. These receipts are an evidence of the utility of a livestock market. The approximate value of the 457 cars that made up the receipts was $567,500, a tidy sum that went into the pockets of the farmers and stockmen of Washington, Idaho and Oregon.

The cattle market has been consistent throughout the month. Good cattle have brought good prices, especially in the instance of cows. Top price for steers was $4.75, top price for cows $3.75, and spayed heifers sold at $4. Light calves have been in strong demand with tops at $5.25.

Sheep have come forward in light quantities and medium to poor quality. Good wethers, what few there were, sold at $4.75 for yearlings and $4.50 for 2-year-olds. Lambs sold at $5.75 for the best that were offered.

Hogs have come forward rather freely, and while during the first week in the month prices sagged a little, the market promptly recovered and has been strong and high. Tops were $8.10, with bulk of sales at $8. All of the prices herein quoted have been on good qualities for this market. Poor quality stuff has sold low and the divergence between good and poor grades is constantly growing wider.

SEA CAPTAIN RETIRES AFTER 50 YEARS' SERVICE

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 3.—Completing 50 years of service at sea, Captain John Pritchard of the palatial Cunard liner Mauretania, now ploughing its way from New York to Liverpool, will retire when his ship reaches her berth in this harbor.

Captain Pritchard started his sea career at the age of ten years as a cabin boy on a Welsh tramp steamer. He entered the service of the Cunard line 30 years ago, and rose rapidly until he was given command of the Mauretania, the ship that has set many speed records for trans-Atlantic trips.
