JUST LIKE SUMMER SAYS NORTH DAKOTAN

"This Cold?' Well Say, You Ought to go Back Where They Warm Their Feet on Ice."

"So you call this winter, do you?" remarked John W. Redfield of Hope, N. D., upon entering the Nash yesafternoon, as he mopped the from his mrow. "Why, up where I come from the boys would be going barefooted and the girls holding ice cream socials on the lawn. This isn't winter weather-not to me, anyway: it is more like the tail end of a hot summer. When I left Hope a week or so ago two feet of snow covered the ground and it was nipping cold-about 15 degrees below zero-but we only looked upon it as a preliminary playful cold snap, and nobody thought anything of it. When it gets from 30 to 50 below zero and we have three or four feet of snow. then we begin to put on our earmuffs and sit up and notice things.

"Why, sometimes in January and February it gets so cold in our country that people warm their feet by putting them on an ordinary cake of wild geese, $6 doz, ice. It makes me smile to see the way some of your people go bundled up on a day like this, shivering, snuffing and trying to make themselves believe that they are really cold, when Is set down right in the middle of an almost treeless prairie as expansive settles down to business in January and February and how it stings and eseldom gets his nose or ears frozen. who goes out improperly clothed bales, $3. when the mercury is about 40 be-

He thought he was warmly dressedearly in the evening he was actually stiff with the cold and had to be carried into the hotel. He wasn't frozen-simply numbed from head to foot. As he thawed out he became dull and drowsy, as if he had taken some sort of drug. He went to bed at 8 o'clock and never got up until 4 the next afternoon. It was a couple of days before he got back in form. That's the way the North Dakota cold serves people who are not used to it at first-turns 'em over to old Morpheus for a week or two. Cold and wintry in Medford today? Nothing to it but a breath of summer from the balmy valley!"
