WASHINGTON APPLES BREAK LOW RECORD

Fruit Shipped by Dumas is Below Standard and Only Averages $1.25.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—(Special Correspondence)—A car of Newtown Pippins from the J. L. Dumas orchards, at Dayton, Wash., was sold here at auction during the week, and the result was a smashing of all records for low prices for this variety. There was nothing unusual in the market. It was not disturbed by anything and it is therefore obvious that there was something wrong with the fruit. Good apples of the same variety sold at the same time for $3.00 and $3.50 per box, but this Dumas lot averaged only about $1.25.

The car was a shipment of a part of the contract with Steinhardt & Kelly, made early in the season. The sizes of the apples ran from 180's to 200's, but in everything else they were evidently far below standard and absolutely disappointing. Experts and buyers let them go at the cheap price, though the demand in New York for anything that will class as good is notoriously strong.

It was recalled, in connection with the sale, that in previous years New York dealers have had considerable trouble with Dumas shipments.

J. L. Dumas, the shipper, is president of the State Horticultural Society of Washington, and it is puzzling a part of the trade to understand just how a shipment of this kind can be made to square with the prominent position he holds in the apple growing world.

The Oregon Agricultural College short course commences on January 4 and continues for a period of six weeks. This will be the most complete course ever offered. Practical work in every line of agriculture, dairying, horticulture, domestic science and art, road building and business methods will be taught.
