BEEF RECEIPTS IN PORTLAND LIGHT

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 13.—Due to the stormy conditions, receipts of everything at the Portland Union stockyard for the week past have been light. There were 1090 cattle, 234 calves, 683 sheep, 1266 hogs, 22 h veas and 247 goats.

The cattle market has ruled steady to strong. There has not been much opportunity for selection in the of ferings, but prices have ruled about as they have heretofore, with the exception of heifers and cows, which may be quoted at about 10 cents higher. Cows that brought $3.50 the week before would have sold for $3.60 on this week's market. The calf market has been steady and strong with a demand for light veals practically unsupplied.

The light sheep receipts have made it necessary for local packers to go to Montana for supplies. Prices have been high in the sheep division. Lambs have sold at $6.00 and fairly good wethers at $4.75. The demand for sheep can be said to be increasing continuously.

The hog market has been nothing short of sensational. The strong price of $8.10 for tops quoted in our market last week went glimmering this week, when anything like a good quality shipment brought from $5.25 to $5.50. Just at the time this letter is being closed a sale is reported at $8.60 for a car of hogs that weighed around 250 pounds. There is little prospect of the hog market going back to a low point, and shippers need have no fear that the market will be over-supplied. This market could easily use four or five times its present receipts. The livestock raiser of the Pacific northwest is to be congratulated over the present high standard of values.

Following are quotations on all classes of livestock:
Best steers, $4.75, fair to good $4.25 to $4.50; strictly good cows, $3.75, fair to good $3 to $3.50; light calves $5.25 to $5.50, heavy $4.50 to $5; best wethers 4.75, fair to good $4.25 to $4.50; good ewes $4; best lambs $5.50 to $6, fair to good $5 to $5.25; best hogs $8.50, fair to good $8, to $8.25, mixed hogs $7.85 to $8.00.

CHARGE AGAINST MRS. TEAL IS DISMISSED

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Judge Foster today dismissed the indictment against Mrs. Ben Teal, charged with conspiracy in connection with Frank Gould's divorce case. Mrs. Teal, who is the wife of the theatrical manager, spent nearly a year in the jail on Blackwell Island before she was granted a new trial. She is reported that she will sue for damages for false arrest and imprisonment.

Looking ahead five years, when it is believed that the Panama Canal will be ready for use, the people of San Francisco are planning to celebrate the event with a commercial exposition. San Diego has proposed a similar event, believing it is to become the prime port on the Pacific ocean, as being nearest the western terminal of the great waterway.
