

CHRISTMAS NIGHT - BENEFIT THE BAND

MISS BESSIE FISHER AS JENNIE SUMMERS, IN THE PLAY, "IN WYOMING."

"IN WYOMING" OLD FAVORITE

Will Be Shown Soon at Medford Theater—Made Remarkable Hit When Here Last Year.

"In Wyoming," which comes to the Medford theater soon is, without doubt, the best play Mr. Willard Mack ever wrote, the story is interesting throughout the entire four acts and there is not a moment, from the rise to the fall of the curtain when the interest of the spectator flags. The characters are all taken from life and are a correct portrayal of the people who go to make up the inhabitants of the state from which the play takes its name. The scenes and incidents are laid in the beautiful Big Horn valley, the center of interest being the ranch of a well-to-do cattleman. The picturesque scenery is all painted from sketches made on the spot by the eminent painter, Mr. O. W. Wegner, and such has been the success of the painter in reproducing the same, that one can almost feel the aroma of the cactus and sage bush, and imagine the inhaling of the dry, choking alkali dust. "In Wyoming" is an American play and will live long in the hearts of American theater-goers.

SOME FACTS ON U OF O GLEE CLUB

Splendid Entertainment Promised by the Boys From the University of Oregon.

The only real glee club in the northwest. The finest quality in voices ever sent out by the state university. The best trained club that has ever represented the Eugene team. The twelfth annual tour of the organization. Professor I. M. Glen has a wide reputation as one of the ablest directors in the northwest, and has directed the club every year since its organization. The "stunts" this year are the best ever. The "Fire-in-a-Frat" finale—one of the cleverest operatic burlesques ever written for non-professional rendition. The falsetto solo by Curtis, with chorus accompaniment, will make your hair stand on end. The "Trumpet" song, arranged by Buck, and "The Bullfrog" refrain, will appeal most affectively to those who enjoy beautiful harmonies in chorus work. The piano solos by Ogden, Welch, Geisler, Vernon Vawter and Martin in the "Accompanist Wanted," comedy skit, demonstrate very forcibly what a fine bunch of talented young musicians Professor Glen has had to deal with in the 1909-10 club. The baritone solo of Kenneth Frazier is alone worth the price of admission. The mandolin club will appear at least three times in new and catchy numbers.
