SISKIYOU STEERS TAKE ALL PRIZES

Small Fortune in Bunch of Beef Cattle Sent to Portland—One Steer Brings $325.

GAZELLE, Cal., Dec. 21.—Two carloads of steers owned by A. D. Goodale that were shipped from this place on December 19 took all the prizes that were offered by the Portland Livestock exchange at their auction sale of Christmas cattle on December 14. The highest price ever brought for fancy beef was paid for the single prize steer which sold for 25 cents per pound gross weight. This steer was a superb specimen, weighing 1300 pounds and brought its owner the sum of $325. The carload of steers which took the first prize were the first to be put under the hammer and were bid in at 9 cents. The average weight was 1350 pounds and brought $121.70 per head.

The second carload brought 8 1-2 cents, averaging 1364 pounds, and brought $115.94 per head. The alfalfa raised in this section of Superior California has always been considered by stockmen of the west the very best quality for fattening beef and these steers show the correctness of the statement, as they were in competition with cattle from as far east as Montana.

They were all bred and raised on the John Loul place and run on pasture during the summer and were fed on alfalfa during the winter. Eastern men who see only grain and corn fattened stock opened their eyes at the quality and condition of these steers. Goodale netted a profit of $55 per head on the bunch of 46. Great excitement and enthusiasm prevailed throughout the sale which was the first of the kind ever held in the northwest.

BELGIUM MINISTER AND CARDINAL TALK OF LEOPOLD

ROME, Dec. 20.—The Belgian minister is conferring today with Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, concerning the marriage of the late King Leopold and the Baroness Vaughan. The statement of the pope concerning the marriage is said to be the main topic of discussion at the conference.

Four hundred and eighteen acres first-class ranch, four miles from railroad station, 40 acres alfalfa, irrigation for 160 acres, first-class orchard, 3 good barns, 2 good houses, school, daily mail. A snap for $50 per acre; one-fourth cash, 3 to 5 years for balance. See J. W. Dressler Agency, West Main. 238*

WALLA WALLA VOTES WET BY 622 MAJORITY

WALLA WALLA, Wn., Dec. 21.—After one of the most bitterly contested campaigns in the history of the city, Walla Walla is by a majority of 622 voted to remain in the "wet" column.

Out of eight precincts in the city only one was carried by the "drys." Despite the fact that the city remained wet, many politicians regard the election as a serious one, declaring that the Republican party has been hopelessly split as a result of factional trouble.

Jasper Hammers is now representing the Aladdin Mantle Gas Lamps in the northern part of the county under the direction of Wm. E. Stacey, where he is having splendid success. 234

WOODVILLE ITEMS.

J. D. Wenn of Milton bought 33 acres of what is known as the White ranch, now owned by Dr. Pinley of Grants Pass. The purchase price was $200 per acre. About 20 acres are in 2-year-old apples and pears. Mr. Wenn will return in the spring and make this his future home.

G. H. Carner of Grants Pass, who purchased the Curtin tract adjoining the village of Woodville, has a force of men tearing down all the old buildings and fences which will add very much to the appearance of the place. Merchant Hall of Brownboro has rented the Wilcox building and stocked it with groceries and general merchandise, placing his son in charge.

Miles Wakeman, who recently sold his property on Pleasant creek to the California Dredging company, has invested in village property.

William Waggoner of Woodhuff, Cal., has disposed of his California property and will be here soon to take possession of his newly-acquired property on Evans creek, consisting of 20 acres of alfalfa. We understand he paid $225 per acre.

There are several Odd Fellows who think a local lodge would flourish here, and steps are being taken to bring this about and suggest that the degree teams of Grants Pass, Medford and Gold Hill be prepared for work in the near future.

Thompson & O'Hair, our local real estate firm, have brick hauled and ready to erect their new building as soon as weather permits.

Judge Durham of Grants Pass was here on business Saturday.

Bagley & Streets has started their steam stump puller preparatory to clearing up another large tract of their Meadowbrook ranch. They will set out about 4000 more apple and pear trees this winter.

George Hoover of Medford spent Sunday here.

JUDGE DAY WRITES TO CORRECT AN ERROR

Judge Silas J. Day writes the Mail-Tribune to correct the report that he is dangerously ill. The many friends of Judge Day will be glad to learn that the report of his dangerous illness was an error.

Judge Day is one of the prominent figures in the pioneer history of Jackson county, and has been identified with its progress. In April next he will celebrate his 84th birthday. His present illness is due to his age and is not the result of any disease.

It is proposed to exempt cut-over lands from taxation in Oregon until such time as the timber is cut that will grow again.
