Sermon by CHARLES T. RUSSELL, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

PULPIT...

Blessed Judgments.

"With My Soul Have I Desired Thee In the Night, O Lord, My Soul Hath Said, 'When Will I See Thee Early: For When Thy Judgments Are Abroad In the Earth, the Inhabitants of the World Will Learn Righteousness' (Isaiah xxvi, 9).

who with the eye of faith discerned the righteousness of God's dealings with them. Of these were the prophets who rehearsed the Divine dealings and rewards and punishments, that they were true and righteous altogether and merciful in the extreme.

Similarly during this Gospel Age Christendom as a whole has not been in the condition of heart to hear, to understand, to appreciate, the judgments of the Lord. But some have been "Israelites indeed" who possessed the secret of the Lord and who were able to rejoice in his judgments—his righteous dealings. They realized by faith God's love for them. "The Father himself loveth you" (John xvi, 27). By faith they appropriated the Apostle's assurance that "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Romans viii, 28).

God's Judgments in the World. We have seen that God's judgments in the past have been merely with those who shall constitute the Seed of Abraham (natural and spiritual), through whom, according to the promise, "all the families of the earth shall be blessed" (Genesis xxviii, 14).

We now note the fact that our text does not relate to either of these, for their judgments could be discerned only by the eye of faith. Our text refers to the world's judgments during the Millennial Age. Then God's judgments will be abroad in the earth—not merely confined to one nation or specially called class, but will include every member of Adam's race. And while these are declared to be the Lord's judgments, note the fact that they will be administered by the Christ, of which our glorified Redeemer shall be the Head, and his "members," when glorified, shall be the Body—the Church. The judgments of the Lord abroad in the earth will not mean havoc and dismay to mankind in general, but the very reverse—relief, assistance to all who come into line with the righteous arrangements of that Kingdom designed for their spitting from sin and death conditions. The judgments of that Millennial Day of a thousand years will be severe—even to destruction—only against the willfully, the deliberately rebellious, after they shall have been brought to a clear appreciation of right and wrong, good and evil, and their penalties, life and death.

Mark the statement of the Prophet David when prophetically referring to the Millennial Age; he points out that the judgments of that time will be a cause of gladness. He says: "Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let men say among the nations, 'Jehovah reigneth.' Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; let the fields rejoice, and all that are therein. Then shall the trees of the wood sing aloud. At the presence of Jehovah, BECAUSE HE COMETH TO JUDGE THE EARTH. O give thanks unto Jehovah, for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever."—1 Chronicles xvi, 31-34.

A Millennial Judgment Day. Mark the words of St. Paul respecting what God has in reservation for the world. He says God "hath appointed a day [the thousand-year day of Christ] in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained" (Acts xvii, 31).

In this work ordained for our Lord he is to have associates—the "elect" Church, his "members," of whom the Apostle writes, saying, "Know ye not that the saints shall judge the world?" (1 Corinthians vi, 2.) And the Ancient Worthies enumerated by St. Paul (Hebrews ix, 38-40) will also be judges, but on the earthly plane as representatives of the heavenly Kingdom. As it is written, "I will restore thy judges as at the first and thy counselors as at the beginning" (Isaiah i, 26). Our All-Wise Creator, who has thus made provision, both for the heavenly and the earthly judges of the world in the election from Israel and the election of the Gospel Age, has thus demonstrated to the few who understand "the secret of the Lord" "the mystery" hidden from ages and dispensations past. It is evident that there will be no disappointment, no failure, in respect to God's great oath-bound Covenant made with Abraham—"In thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." The basis of the blessing is the redemptive work of Christ finished at Calvary. The outworking of that blessing will come through the glorified Lord and his Church, "his Body." The first work will be the establishment of a righteous government in the hands of those already proven absolutely loyal to God and to his righteousness—"faithful even unto death." We may have full confidence that in that Kingdom "righteousness will be laid to the line and justice to the plummet," as God has promised (Isaiah xxviii, 17). Not only so, but we may have full confidence that mercy will have a free hand there to do all for mankind that would be reasonable and possible. The combination of a strong government with merciful assistants is represented by the fact that our Lord will be, not only the great King, but also the great Priest and Prophet and Teacher. Even so, also, the Church shall be "kings and priests"—their office, their service, will be a combination of ruling and healing, instructing and uplifting. Everything done will come under the head of judgment—righteous dealing. Every good deed, yea, every good effort, will be rewarded—its judgment will be a blessing, an increase of harmony with the Lord and with a character development and restitutive physical experiences (Acts iii, 19-21). Instead of the ways of darkness will be the way of light. Instead of the broad road leading to destruction of the masses going down thereon—to the tomb—will be "the highway of holiness." Instead of stoups of stumbling we are assured that all the stumbling stones shall be gathered out of the way. Instead of beastly violence, overmastering temptations and besetments, devouring mankind because of their weakness to resist the Adversary, the Bible assures us that Satan will be bound and that the wild beasts of vice and degeneracy will all be brought into subjection. Thus "nothing shall hurt nor destroy in all God's holy Kingdom." "And an highway shall be there, and it shall be called, The way of holiness" (Isaiah xl, 9; xxxv, 8).

The Messianic Psalm (seventy-second) finds its application to that glorious Millennial epoch. Thus we read, "Give the King thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the King's Son. He shall judge thy people with righteousness and thy poor with judgment (justice). . . . He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy and shall break in pieces the oppressor. . . . He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass, as showers that water the earth. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth."

"The People Will Learn Righteousness."

As already shown, God's dealings in the past have been with the world only in the sense of executing a general sentence for Adam's sin—a death sentence with all that that involves of mental, moral and physical degeneracy—dying. All of God's special judgments have been with those who were justified to special relationship through faith. If we were to judge of the number who will be blessed during the Millennium by the "little flock" of natural Israel and the "little flock" of spiritual Israel, saved under God's judgments in advance of the millennium, the outcome of the world's judgment would not appear favorable. But these would not be fair criteria. Present conditions are permitted in order to test and to prove the faith, as well as the obedience of those who are under trial or judgment and who, by reason of the fall, have such a faith as permits them to grasp the glorious features of the present call. Consequently, "few" there will be who will find the great reward now offered (Matthew vii, 14).

This is as God designs it, because he is selecting a special class. But the arrangements made for mankind in general are that the darkness and sin of the present time shall flee away. The dawning of the Millennium morning, with the rising of the Sun of Righteousness with healing in his beams (The Christ in glory to enlighten the world), will mean that knowledge will be granted the world—facts, evidences, proofs. The world will not be required to "walk by faith and not by sight," as are the "elect" of this present time. Instead of the eye of faith of the present time will be the eye of understanding (knowledge), then. Instead of the secret of the Lord being kept from the world, all of his gracious purposes will then stand fully revealed. "The knowledge of the glory of God shall fill the whole earth as the waters cover the great deep" (Habakkuk ii, 14). As a result none shall need to say unto his neighbor and to his brother, "Know thou the Lord, for all shall know him, from the least to the greatest of them. Every knee shall bow and every tongue confess to the glory of God (Romans xiv, 11). When every good deed shall receive promptly and manifestly its reward, and every evil deed shall receive promptly its punishment, the world will speedily learn to avoid the punishments and to win the rewards by obedience to the laws of the Kingdom.

The Scope of Our Text. The Prophet in our text personifies The Christ, Jesus the Head and the Church his Body. Note the statement, "With my soul have I desired thee in the night" (Isaiah xxvi, 9). The "night" of sin has been upon the world for centuries. The "morning" is at hand, but not yet fully come. During the night time the faithful of the Church are represented as walking in the light of God's Word. "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a lantern unto my footsteps" (Psalm cxix, 105). St. Peter says, "We have a more sure word of prophecy, to which we do well to take heed as unto a light shining in a dark place—until the day dawn and the day star arise" (1 Peter i, 19). In this night time the "elect" are different from the majority of those around them—they desire God's righteousness and they pray, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth even as it is done in heaven."

Song of Moses and the Lamb. Those who now are able to "sing in the night" because of their appreciation of the Divine Plan are prophetically declared to "sing the song of Moses, the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all nations shall come and worship before thee, because of the manifestation of thy righteous dealings" (Revelation xv, 3, 4).

A Christmas Poem

"That reminds me" mused McCutcheon, "In my office up the street, I've got everything so handy there, that working is a treat. I've got labor saving systems and telephones and cool electric fans."

"That reminds me" says McCutcheon "Why should I have all the snaps? With my wife at home, a strugglin' with a lot o' handicaps, An' fussin' round with smoky lamps an' gas an' gasoline An' gettin' all worn out with pedalling that old machine."

"That reminds me" says McCutcheon "my wife's birthday's comin' soon She's lookin' sick and weary and she's getting pale and thin, I'd like to get her something that'll help her health to win."

"That reminds me" says McCutcheon "my wife's goin' away to visit, An' I have struck upon a notion that is not so dusy, is it? While she's gone I'll wire the house up from the garret to the ground. An' we'll have a home electric—time her birthday comes around."

So Mac got awful busy, while his frau was out of town And blew himself for "everything electric," money down. Electric fixtures, reading lamps, all gleaming bright and clean, And flat irons, heaters, chafing dish and motor run machine.

You should have seen the face on Mrs. Mac when she reached home, And saw her huse electrified and and spied the lovely dome (That hung within the dining room) all beautiful and bright She could only gaze in rapture at the brilliancy of light.

If ever husband made a hit, McCutcheon was the boy, His wife was half hysterical with happiness and joy. She tried the irons and chafing dish and started up the fan And like a happy child, around her electric room she ran.

And it is nothing now unusual to hear the neighbors say "Since Mrs. Mac got 'lectrified she's 'younger every day," And, no wonder, for her drudgery don't take up all her life Like it used to when McCutcheon had a non-electric wife.

P. S.—Mr. Man-with-an-unwired-house: Why not make a hit with your wife, like McCutcheon did with his? P. S.—Mrs. Ditto: Read the poem out loud to him.
