Approved December 17th, 1909. W. H. CANON, Mayor. ROBT. W. TELFER, Recorder.

ORDINANCE NO. 276.

An ordinance declaring the assessment on the property benefitted for the cost of laying a six inch water main on Cottage street and directing the recorder to enter a statement thereof in the water lien docket.

The City of Medford doth ordain as follows:

Section 1. Whereas, the city council did heretofore by resolution declare its intention to lay a six-inch water main on Cottage street from Main street east to terminus of Cottage street, and to assess the cost thereof on the property fronting on said portion of said street in proportion to the frontage of said property and did fix a time and place for hearing protests against the laying of said water main and the assessment of the cost thereof as aforesaid.

And whereas, a meeting of the council was held at the time and place fixed in said resolution for the purpose of considering any such protests, but no protests were at said time or at any other time made to or received by the council to the laying of said water main or the assessment of the cost thereof as aforesaid, and said council having considered the matter, and deeming that said water main was and is of material benefit to said city and that all property to be assessed therefor would be benefitted thereby to the extent of the probable amount of the respective assessments to be levied against said property, did order said water main laid.

And whereas, the cost of said water main has been and hereby is determined to be the sum of $1821.50.

Now, therefore, it is hereby further determined that the proportionate share of the cost of laying said water main of each parcel of property fronting on said portion of said street is the amount set opposite the description of each parcel or piece of land below and that each parcel or piece of land benefitted by the laying of said water main to the full extent of the amount so set opposite the description of each parcel or piece and that the respective amounts represent the proportional benefit of said water main to said respective parcels of property and also the proportional frontage thereof on said portion of said street and the council does hereby declare each of the parcels of property described below to be assessed and each of the same hereby is assessed the amount set opposite each description of the cost of laying said water main.

RESOLUTION.

Be it resolved by the city council of the city of Medford: Section 1. That there is hereby proposed and submitted to the legal voters of the city of Medford for their approval or rejection the following proposed amendments to the charter of said city, to-wit:

An amendment to the charter of the city of Medford creating a city court, making the mayor ex-officio judge of said court; providing for the appointment and salary of a special judge of said court and repealing sections 26, 27 and 28 of said charter.

The people of the city of Medford do ordain as follows: Section 1. The charter of the city of Medford is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

Section 131. There is hereby created in the city of Medford a court to be known as the city court. It shall have full and exclusive jurisdiction of all violations of city ordinances, with full power to enforce any judgments it may render in the same manner as judgments of justice courts of this state are or may from time to time be enforced under the laws of this state.

Transcripts of such judgments may be filed in the office of the county clerk with like effect and in like manner as is provided by law in the case of judgments of such justice courts, and appeals from such judgments may be taken to the circuit court of said state for Jackson county in like manner and under the same circumstances as in the case of judgments of such justice courts.

Section 132. All proceedings in said court shall be governed and regulated by the laws of the state of Oregon in relation to justice courts, including taxation of costs and disbursement, except that there shall be no trial by jury in said court.

Section 133. All fines and costs collected by said court shall be turned over to the city treasurer by the judge of said court, and said judge shall make a monthly report in writing thereof to the city council.

Section 134. The mayor of the city of Medford shall ex-officio be the judge of said court. The council may, with the consent of the mayor, at any time appoint a special judge of said court, who shall have concurrent power with said mayor and act as judge of said court. Whenever said special judge is appointed his term of office shall expire at the same time as the term of office of the mayor in office at the time of such appointment.

the consent of the mayor, fix the salary of said special judge, which salary he shall receive in lieu of fees or other compensation for his services as such special judge, and when so fixed the whole or any part of said salary may in the discretion of the council be deducted from the salary of the mayor.

Sections 26, 27 and 28 of the charter of said city are hereby repealed. Section 136, Section 37 of said charter is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Whenever any police officer turns over to the judge of said court any cash bail taken by him for the appearance of any person charged with an offense, the judge of said court shall thereupon take the affidavit of said officer as to the person and of the offense charged, and if any such person does not appear and answer such charge during that day, the judge of said court shall declare such cash bail forfeited for the use and benefit of the city; and he shall make a record of the matter on the records of said court, and forthwith pay the sum forfeited to the city treasurer, and shall enter the fact of such payment, and a copy of the treasurer's receipt, below or on the margin of his record of such proceedings. If the person so charged with an offense appears for trial during that day the judge of said court shall hold such cash so deposited to answer any fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant after the determination of his case.

An amendment to the charter of the city of Medford, Oregon, amending section 18 of the charter of said city and providing for salaries for the mayor and councilmen of said city. The people of the city of Medford do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That section 18 of the charter of the city of Medford be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 18. The mayor shall receive a salary of $75 per month, and each councilman shall receive a salary of $25 per month, which shall be payable out of the general fund of the said city, and neither said mayor or any councilman shall receive any other other or further compensation for any services he shall render said city; provided, that no member of the council shall during his term of office be interested directly or indirectly in any contract to which said city is a party, or any expenses which are to be paid by said city; provided, that whenever any member of said council, or the mayor, is called upon to perform, and does perform, any special duties where he is required to incur expenses such actual expenses may be paid by the city.

Section 38 of the charter of the city of Medford is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 38. The treasurer shall receive and safely keep all funds and money belonging to said city, subject to the direction of the city council, as herein provided, and shall pay out the same only upon warrants drawn upon him by the mayor and attested by the recorder, and no claim against the city shall be paid until audited and allowed by the city council.

The city council may, by resolutions, from time to time direct the treasurer to deposit funds of said city in such state or national bank or banks as it may select, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to comply with such directions. The council shall require such depositories to furnish sufficient bond to indemnify said city against loss of such deposited funds, and as to any funds so deposited the treasurer and his sureties on his official bond shall not be held liable in case of loss. The city shall be entitled to all interest received on such deposits.

An amendment to the charter of the city of Medford, amending sections 80 and 84 of said charter. Section 1. Section 80 of the charter of the city of Medford shall be amended to read as follows:

In the event that the notice so given be for the improvement of a street, or part thereof, the council, when hearing the protests against such improvement, may, in its discretion, standing said protests, if it deems the improvement of material benefit to the city, and that all property to be assessed therefor will be especially benefitted thereby, proceed to cause said improvement to be made and ascertain and determine the probable cost of making such improvement, and assess upon each lot or part thereof adjacent to said improvement its proportionate share of the cost of said improvement, not exceeding the special benefit which said lot or part thereof shall receive by virtue of said improvement.

Section 84. A sum assessed for the improvement of a street shall be collected in the following manner: Notice of such assessment shall be given to the owner or reputed owner of the property assessed by publishing the ordinance, one time, declaring said assessment, in some daily newspaper published and of general circulation in said city, which newspaper may be designated by the city council, and if not so designated, may be selected by the city recorder. All said assessments shall become due and payable on and after the date of said publication, and shall be paid within ten days thereafter.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, that said charter amendments be so proposed and submitted to the voters of said city, as aforesaid, at an annual election, the said election to be held in said city on January 11th, 1910, and that the recorder of said city cause said charter amendments to be printed, published and posted in conformity with ordinance No. 124 of said city.

The foregoing resolution was passed by the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, on December 21st, 1909, by the following vote: Welch, aye; Merriek aye; Emerick aye; Wortman aye; Eiferf aye and Demmer aye.
