

SOCIETY

The regular meeting of the Greater Medford Club was held Monday, Jan. 3. Several matters of importance were discussed. New members taken into the club at this meeting were Mrs. Bert Anderson, Mrs. W. C. Green and Mrs. William Lucas.

A book club was organized, the object of which will be to obtain the latest fiction, placing it in a library for the exclusive use of the members of the book club for a given length of time after which it will be turned over to the public library for general use. The members of the Greater Medford Club who wish to join the book club can do so by writing Miss January.

The next meeting of the Greater Medford Club, January 31, promises to be a most interesting one. A committee was appointed to arrange a program and make the meeting a social one, open to the members of the club and their friends. As the club is in need of funds to carry out their program, the small sum of ten cents will be charged as admission.

Mr. Smith has kindly given free use of Smith's hall for meetings of the club. The next meeting will be held at that place Monday, January 24.

On January 4 the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church gave an "at home" to its members and their friends, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. C. H. Cary, 325 Jackson street. A large number of guests were present and the afternoon was spent most enjoyably.

At the guessing contest in which nearly all took part, Miss Durman and Miss Wolfe received the prizes, a picture and a vase. This was followed by a short musical program. Vocal solos were sung by Miss Rosa Fielder and Mrs. W. M. Van Scoy, and Miss Cary and Miss Durman gave selections on the piano. Refreshments of cake, cream puffs and iced cakes were served. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Cary, Meada, Chidester, Winek, Belknap, Woolm and Davis. The ladies are planning to entertain their friends once a month during the winter and at the same time add to the funds of the society.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden entertained the members of the 500 and their husbands and a few invited guests on Friday evening with charming hospitality. Nine tables of 500 were played. Mr. W. H. McGowan won the gentleman prize, a handsome book, while the ladies' prize, a choice Jordanian, was carried off by Mrs. H. G. Nicholson. A Centennial lunch consisting of sandwiches, olives, coffee, cake and fruit parfait, was served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge, Mrs. I. L. Hamilton and Mrs. J. G. Goble. Aside from the members of the club and their husbands were present Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Streets, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Flynn, a visiting cousin of the Kentners, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hollis and Mr. and Mrs. M. Purden.

The beautiful new bungalow home of Mrs. J. D. Heard on Stokely Heights was the scene of the Swastika card party on Tuesday afternoon. The view of the valley from the roof of the hill, with its circle of snow sprinkled mountains, called out many exclamations of delight from those impressed with the natural beauty of foothill scenery. Seven tables of whist and five hundred were played and the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Gladys Heard, and Mrs. H. E. Foster, served a delicious and substantial lunch consisting of brown bread and butter sandwiches, salad, cake and coffee.

In two weeks, January 18, the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. M. Purdin, with Mrs. W. W. Harmon and Mrs. Clara Moulden as assistant hostesses.

The organization of a book club as an auxiliary to the public library is a movement that meets with general favor, over thirty members being secured the first week, without solicitation on the part of the committee. The membership fee is one dollar and the fund recently secured is used to purchase recent fiction as well as desirable works that are non-fiction. The books are to be held for six months for circulation among the members of the club, after which time they will be placed on the shelves for general circulation among patrons of the library. A large number of new books have been ordered and will soon be in circulation. Wednesday 107 books were drawn, the largest number on any one day since the establishment of the library.

Mrs. William Lucas, assisted by R. W. Gray, Mrs. William Aldenberger, Miss Hoke and Miss Dot Berry, entertained the ladies guild of St. Marks Episcopal church Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gray on Mistletoe street. The business of the afternoon was speedily dispatched, after which Rev. Mr. Luchter of the church in a dignified and impressive manner conducted the beautiful Epiphany service. This was especially pleasing to many who find it inconvenient to attend a great number of evening services and the very informality of the gathering heightened the effect of the reading. A dainty lunch was served and arrangements made for a meeting January 13 at the home of Mrs. Humphrey, 815 East Main street.

The regular meeting of the F. I. L. club took place Monday evening, January 3, at the home of Miss Millicent Potter, Oakdale avenue, North, who proved a charming hostess. The entertainment was of an informal nature, and a musical program, in which Miss Flora Gray was heard in piano solos, and Mr. Henri Gunson favored with vocal, was much enjoyed. Refreshments of wafers and chocolate were served. Those present: Miss Edna Harmon, Miss Arva Harmon, the Merrill sisters, Miss Flora Gray, Miss Edna Cummings, Mr. C. A. Weaver, Mr. W. H. Watt, Mr. Henri Gunson. The club will meet January 17 at the home of Miss McKay on West

Jackson street. The members are expected to bring a gift to call with an item of current events.

While OFFERTY is especially given over to the social and family gatherings in which the home cooked dinner is the feature of the day, on New Year's day, many avail themselves of the privilege of dining out. Among the many parties partaking of the very attractive table de hote dinner served January first at the Hotel Nash Grill, was that of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hutchison who had as their guests, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Mrs. Hill, mother of Mrs. Vawter, Mr. F. W. Hutchison, Miss Fern Hutchison, Vernon and William Vawter, Carter Brand, and Miss Aletha Emrick and Halbert Deuel.

The Wednesday Study met this week at the home of Mrs. W. F. Shields on Holly street. Seventeen members of the club were present. The subject being "Compensation," the meeting was one of the most instructive and entertaining of the winter. Next week Mrs. Helen Haskins will entertain the club.

Elaborate preparations are being made by Reames Chapter O. E. R., for the installation of officers which takes place Wednesday night, January 13 at Masonic hall. The auxiliary committee having the arrangements in charge consists of Mrs. M. L. Alford, Mrs. E. B. Pickett, Mrs. Frederick Page, Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Mrs. W. H. McGowan, and Mrs. H. C. Kentner, chairman. Committees on program, decoration and banquet have been appointed to work in conjunction with the auxiliary committee and doubtless the affair will be the leading social event of the week.

The ladies of the St. Ann's Society will give one of their popular dancing parties at Angle's opera house Wednesday evening, January 13. The committee on arrangements is Mrs. Onny J. Patton, Mrs. W. C. Debley, Mrs. Duff and Mrs. J. F. Reddy. T. E. Daniels with Mr. John Wilkinson and others to assist will be in charge of the floor. Supper will be served and the floor orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets, $1.50.

Miss Hazel York is on route home from New York where she has been spending the year with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Whitman. Before leaving the metropolis Miss Enyart had the pleasure of hearing the immortal Caruso and a supporting company of the world's greatest artists, in Puccini's opera "Aida." At present she is making a somewhat protracted visit with relatives in Logansport and Indianapolis, Indiana, and will visit in Chicago also before coming home.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church held a social at the church Friday evening that was attended by a large crowd of enthusiastic young people. An admission of ten cents was charged and sandwiches, cake, punch, home-made candy and nuts were served. Mr. Arthur Roberts acted as doorkeeper, while among those on the committee of arrangements were Miss Genevieve Wortman, Miss Mary Gore and Miss Minnie Jackson.

Mr. Charles McMurtry and sister of Omaha, Nebraska, at one time residents of Medford, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Enyart. Miss McMurtry, who does exquisite painting in oils, has been in Grants Pass the past three months where she gave instruction in art to an enthusiastic class of pupils. They are on their way to Los Angeles to spend the balance of the winter and en route will stop in Oakland, Sacramento and San Francisco.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church met at the church Wednesday afternoon in business session and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. D. H. Miller; assistant, Mrs. Benj. Garnett; treasurer, Mrs. Cameron; secretary, Mrs. Ed. Robinson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mishler. A committee consisting of Mrs. A. W. Walker, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Theo. Matsch, Mrs. Deen, served a delicious lunch that was highly appreciated by the ladies.

Mr. H. L. Kelley, superintendent of the government fish hatchery at Trill, has gone to Washington, D. C., on his way to Buenos Ayres, Argentina, where he will be field superintendent of fish hatcheries for that government. While at Trill, he is being congratulated upon the promotion which means opportunity for extensive travel as well as a more lucrative position.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Page entertained in a delightful informal manner Thursday evening with three tables of 500, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wakeman and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hollis.

The Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church held a call meeting Wednesday evening at which time it was decided to fix the date of the dinner, plans for which were made before the holidays, on Wednesday evening, January 13.

Mrs. H. L. Montgomery, who was recently called to Albuquerque, New Mexico, by the death of her sister, expects to be in Los Angeles soon with her mother. Her plans for returning home are somewhat indefinite, depending on those of her mother.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the M. E. church held a pleasant meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. T. Lawson, 310 North Bartlett street. Papers were read, lunch served and a profitable afternoon spent.

Mr. H. U. Lumsden of the firm of Hutchison & Lumsden, returned Monday evening from Los Angeles, where with his wife and mother, Mrs. E. M. Lumsden, he has been spending the winter. He will remain several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rawstin of The Dalles were New Year's guests of J. W. Roberts and family, Oakdale avenue, South. Mrs. Rawstin, a recent bride, is a sister of Mrs. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowles entertained Mrs. Vilas, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Woodford, Prof. and Mrs. O'Garra with a delightful dinner at the Nash Grill Friday evening, December 31.

Mr. Treve Lumsden, who is in his second year at Stanford University, spent the holidays with his parents in Los Angeles, returning north for the opening of school tomorrow.

Want Ads Will Retain Your Luck

As January 19 is the night scheduled for the "The Wolf," probably the biggest production announced by the local manager for this season, the Juvenile Dancing Club will not meet on that night as previously announced.

Miss Helen Watt, who has been spending the holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Watt, returned to St. Helen's Hall, Portland, Wednesday evening.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cook, in the loss of their only child, an infant daughter who died New Year's day.

Mr. A. A. Campbell, manager of Sherman, Clay & Co., left Friday evening for a brief visit with his family in Seattle.

Mrs. Bert Orr has gone to Eugene to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Grimes.

Mrs. Malthy entertained Friday with a charmingly appointed dinner, having as her guests Mrs. J. F. Mundy, Mrs. W. H. Stokes and Mrs. Clara Moulden.

Mrs. Frederic of East Medford has had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Adsett of Red Wood Falls, Minnesota, who left Wednesday for southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harmon had as their dinner guests Sunday at the Nash Grill, Mr. and Mrs. Turner of the Pacific & Eastern.

F. L. Lou Velle and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kline have returned from an excursion to San Francisco.

Mrs. F. W. Carnahan is enjoying a visit from her father, S. K. George of Eugene.

Miss Maud Stichel of Gold Hill was a Medford visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. De Deur of Jackson, Ill., is visiting Mrs. Charles Brown.

Steamers in Distress.—CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 8.—Four lake passenger steamers are in distress near this city according to messages that reached here early today. The steamer Arizona of the Goodrich line flashed a wireless message stating that she had been disabled by a boiler explosion and has been caught in the ice. Three other steamers, the Paritan, Flora M. Hill, and the City of Marquette, also are fast in the ice. Tugs have gone to the rescue.
