have been more in keeping with the qualifications of the Portland livestock market since our last report

The market for cattle has been good and, despite the liberal receipts of hogs, the market for top quality has remained firm with a higher tendency. Some top loads sold for $9.20, others for $9.10, while the bulk of the sales sold at $9. There has been a fair range of quality in the offering of swine and the mar ket can be said to have been brisk Few sheep offerings have sold for all they are worth. Wethers sold

Miss T. H. McKenzle, of Lulu, Miss. a college girl on the way home for week-end holiday, proved to be the heroine of the wreck. Ignoring her own painful wounds, she tore her skirts to strips to provide bandages for the other sufferers, and cared for them until she was forcibly restrained by persons who saw she was near collapse

It was stated today that all the injured will probably recover.
