MUST INCREASE THE OUTPUT OF FARMS

Railroad President Says Each Acre Must Be Called Upon to Produce More to Meet the Demand.

ITHACA, Jan. 20.—At Founders' day exercises of Cornell university, celebrating its 45th anniversary, William C. Brown, president of the New York Central railroad system, delivered an address...

While in the past, he said, increase in population and increase in consumption had been met by multiplied acres, increased consumption in the future must be provided for by an increase in the yield per acre.

"Each year," said Mr. Brown, "immigration and natural increase add approximately two million hungry mouths to be fed, and it calls for an increase of approximately 75,000,000 bushels of food-producing cereal per annum to supply this demand."

The failure to increase the production per acre is steadily and rapidly increasing the cost of living. "The only possible solution, the only possible salvation for the country, is an immediate and most thorough awakening of our people to an appreciation of the overshadowing importance of this condition, followed by a systematic, persevering campaign of education."

"In 1860 New York state was among the first of the great agricultural states of the Union. Today the state of Maine, lying further to the north, with its rocks and its forests, raises more per acre of all the cereals than we do, and her potato crop averages 225 bushels, as against 82 bushels per acre in New York."

"The state department of agriculture bulletin reports 64,332 acres of improved farms for sale, at an average price of $17.78 per acre, and nearly 100,000 acres at an average price of $25 per acre. Every acre of agricultural land, worn out and impoverished, as much of it is, is worth $100 per acre to build up and replenish."

"We must increase production by more intelligent methods or we must face the relentless certain coming of the day when we shall not produce food enough to supply our own necessities."

GAS EXPLOSION BADLY INJURES WORKMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 20.—David Black lies at the Mission Emergency Hospital today in a precarious condition, suffering from burns that may prove fatal, and six other laborers are suffering from minor burns, as the result of a gas explosion in a trench where 40 men were working.

More than an hour following the explosion flames raged in the trench. Black, who was overcome by gas, lay directly in the path of the fire, and undoubtedly would have been burned to death but for the heroism of Patrol Driver Louis Hulse and Foreman McGillivuddy, of the workmen, who rescued him at the risk of their own lives, each man being badly burned about the hands and arms.

Members of the fire companies that were rushed to the scene assisted the panic-stricken workmen from the fire, which threatens to become a death trap. Many of the men were painfully burned before they could be pulled from the excavation, which was from eight to ten feet deep.

TWO NEW PAVING PETITIONS ARE FILED

Residents of East Main and of Sixth Street Petition the City Council for Hard-Surface Paving.

Yesterday afternoon two petitions in addition to the ones formerly turned in were filed with the city recorder.

Both petitions are signed by more than the requisite majority of property-owners.

One requests the paving of Main street from Bear creek bridge east to the city limits. The other asks for the paving of Sixth street from Oakdale to Riverside avenue.

MOTHER'S SACRIFICE FOR BOY FAILS TO SAVE HIM

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Arthur Shibley, who was shot in High Bridge Park recently by an unknown assassin, died here today. In spite of a mother's heroic efforts to save her child by a transfusion of her blood to his veins, the lad failed to rally.

The assassin who killed Bobbie Lomas, a boy companion of Arthur's at the time he shot the Shibley boy, is as yet undiscovered. Twenty suspects were arrested by the police, following the shooting, but all have been released.

An old feud in the Syrian colony, in which Arthur's father was said to have been involved, is believed by the police to have prompted the assassin to revenge himself upon the boy.

FARMER BUYS 30 MOTOR CARS: WERE FOR FRIENDS

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 20.—J. C. Coe, a Saskatchewan farmer, dropped into Detroit Sunday and by the time he had finished his errand today he had purchased 30 automobiles for his farmer friends of the far northwest.

He is not an agent. He told his neighbors he was going east, and they gave him their orders, accompanied by bank drafts.

The deals were mostly cash and aggregated nearly a hundred thousand dollars. Coe paid $4500 for his own machine.
