M'GUIRE INDICTED FOR MAN KILLING

Josephine Grand Jury Returns Indictment Charging Murder in the First Degree.

GRANTS PASS, Or., January 21.—Before adjourning the grand jury brought an indictment against James McGuire for murder in the first degree, and upon being arraigned he pleaded not guilty. As this is not a bailable offense, McGuire is confined in the county jail, and it is not known whether his case will come up for trial next month or not. H. D. Norton is McGuire's attorney.

The party that went out to the scene of the murder last week had returned. They found the body of Knappa where it had been left by McGuire and also the shotgun that Knappa carried. It was a breech-loading shotgun, 12 gauge, and had two empty shells in it when found, which everything indicated had been loaded with No. 4 shot. They also found the direction in which the shots had been fired, and it was not at McGuire, but to one side, brush and trees being cut by the shot. There was a bullet hole in Knappa's breast, in his hand, groin and head, and it is now said to have been determined that the shot in the head was fired at close range, indicating that after the murdered man was down that McGuire advanced towards him and shot him again to make sure that he was dead; in fact, it is said that McGuire has admitted as much.

In regard to McGuire's character there are many stories, some being that he is a very bad man, while others who have known him for years say that there is nothing bad about him and that he is one of the most accommodating men they ever met and that he has been imposed upon by men who did not like him and that everything that has happened in that section of the country has been laid to him. If anyone went to his house at any time of day or night they were welcome to whatever he had and that he would fight a man that would kick a dog. As there was no eye witnesses to the tragedy much of it will probably be based upon circumstantial evidence.

Harvey Crump, the man who was shot in this city on East M street on January 9, is still in the hospital with a bullet in his head, no effort having yet been made to get the bullet, and it is said that he is getting along as well as could be expected. The shooting is still a mystery, and he is as close of mouth as ever and will tell nothing. Some of the theories that were at first advanced are blasted and found to be without foundation. What the sheriff's office knows about the case is not known outside of that office, but it is rumored that they "know pretty well all the circumstances of the case and when the time comes will be able to take whatever action is necessary."

ROOSEVELT FOR CONGRESS AND SPEAKER OF HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Roosevelt for speaker of the house. This is the latest decision reached as to "what shall be done with our ex-presidents?" according to a report that has spread among members of congress. It is even said that Mr. Roosevelt has agreed to run for congress in the first district of New York state, in which Oyster Bay is located. The understanding that he would be elected to the speakership if he runs, it is declared, is insisted on by Mr. Roosevelt.

HOLY ROLLERS SPURN PASCHTOT FAMILY

Head of Faith Says That They Are Not Members of His Cult—Says Second Coming is Near.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 21.—Thomas H. Gourley, head of the apostolic faith, or "Holy Rollers," who is held responsible by the citizens of Lynden for the death of the Paschtot baby when the family repaired in a nude condition to the roof of their home to await the coming of the end of the world, was found at Ballard Beach today and denied all knowledge of the affair.

"Although I was in Lynden just before this happened, I know nothing about it," he said. "The Paschtot family does not belong to our church, but are members of some Holland society. The members of our church do not believe in such rites anyway. Much that is written and said about us is made of whole cloth."

Gourley and his little band of followers live at Ballard Beach in tents and shacks owned by Gourley. There are nearly 100 men, women and children in the colony.

According to J. B. Matthews, evangelist of the Holy Rollers faith, in charge of a mission in Seattle, there is abundant scriptural authority for their belief that the second coming of Christ is near at hand.

"The signs presaging the coming have multiplied and have been verified," he said today. "The earthquakes in all parts of the world and the increase of knowledge are indicated in Nebuchadnezzar's dream of the idol whose symbolic age has been verified and the end of the period is close at hand. It may be tomorrow or the next day, perhaps ten years."

ROADS SAY THAT THEY CANNOT RAISE WAGES

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The New York Central railway today notified its employees that it is impossible to grant their demands for a radical increase of wages because the demands are excessive.

The road's officials, however, have asked the employes to appoint an arbitration committee in an endeavor to effect a compromise on a mutually acceptable wage scale.

All eastern roads have taken similar attitude on wage demands, it is said.
