

SOCIETY

The card party given by the Swastika club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Boydson, North Central avenue, was carried out on a scale that surpassed in elaboration and attendance anything of a similar nature heretofore engaged in by the club ladies. The Boydson home, with its broad piazzas, wide stair case, hardwood floors, heavily stained ceilings, attractively paneled walls and substantial looking supporting pillars, the wood finish bringing out the charming grain of the carefully selected native Oregon fir, and the whole brought into soft harmony by rich rugs and graceful flower and window hangings, presented to the eye an artistic picture that was pleasing in the extreme. The arrangement of hall, den, parlor and dining room is such that the entire lower floor can be utilized for guests. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Mahon Purdin, Mrs. Clara Moulden and Mrs. W. W. Harmon, who were daintily attired in afternoon dresses, while Mrs. Boydson was gowned in a becoming dress of dark green Persian silk with yoke and sleeves of handsome all-over lace. Miss Browning Purdin and Master Dewey Purdin, the charming children of Judge and Mrs. M. Purdin, pointed the way to the dressing rooms on the second floor and opened the hall door for the guests, seventeen ladies of whom and five hundred were played and the attendance reached eighty before the close of the afternoon.

The large circular dining table was beautifully laid with shining silver and sparkling cut glass, the centerpiece being a graceful bowl of long-stemmed red carnations with sprays of white fern. The coffee percolator was presided over by Miss Dot Berry, while Miss Hoke poured tea from shining silver teapots. The refreshments were brown bread sandwiches with a filling of cottage cheese and peanuts, nut bread sandwiches with pinola filling, maple nut parfait and dainty individual cakes. The color note of red was carried out in the sandwiches and by the use of maraschino cherries on the small cakes and loaves.

The chief charm of the beautiful home loaned for the occasion is its air of homelike comfort, every nook and corner showing the careful planning of the owners, and the touch feminine as well as the work of skilled architects.

"When Bishop Potter said, 'There is no matter,' it was no matter what the bishop said. The roasted beef served to him on a platter. Gave proof of matter once alive, now dead." "Is the Influence of the Mind Over the Body Greater Than That of the Body Over the Mind?" was the subject under discussion at the regular meeting of the Wednesday club, entertained by Mrs. V. J. Warner, 3 Laurel street, Mrs. H. E. Gale read a paper setting forth in brief the various opinions held by mind healers of ancient as well as modern times, and illustrated their common application to every-day treatment of disease, physical and mental, incidentally showing that physicians of repute make use of "suggestion," etc. In dealing with disease, in the discussion which followed, Mrs. Merrick brought out some interesting ideas in the line of "New Thought" and the power of the sub-conscious mind.

Mrs. F. K. Deuel gave an appreciation of Elbert Hubbard and a brief description of the work and workers in the Hesperoff shops at East Aurora, N. Y., closing with selections from "Love and Labor" and "White Hyacinths."

Holl ovals was responded to by current events and routine business transacted. The attendance was unusually large and much interest was manifested in the club work.

This week, January 24, the meeting will be held at the Commercial club rooms, when Dr. H. E. Morrison will lecture before the club on the subject, "The Wonders of Modern Surgery."

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church held a most enjoyable meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Clancy on West Eleventh street. The annual installation of Olive Rebekah Lodge took place in the lodge-rooms Tuesday evening with Mrs. Nellie King, grand deputy installing officer; Miss Fannie Haskins, grand marshal; Miss Clara Wood, grand secretary; Mrs. Hattie Olin, grand financial secretary. The complete roster of officers installed and appointed is as follows: Helen Yockey, noble grand; Grace L. Wood, vice-grand; Dalin King, secretary; Birgitta Smith, treasurer; Kate Gaddis, financial secretary; Fannie Haskins, ward; Clara Wood, conductress; L. M. Lyons, inside guard; Arthur Wells, outside guard; J. W. Lawton, R. S. N. G.; Nellie Wing, L. S. N. G.; Adrian Olin, R. S. V. G.; Helen Haskins, L. S. V. G.; Hattie Olin, chaplain.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. J. Love on South street, near Palm. The ladies worked on the autograph quilt and attended to routine business. Arrangements were furthered for the "experience social" to be held Wednesday evening, February 16. Coffee and cake will be served and the public is invited to attend. Tags will be sold previously for 10 cents each, which will serve as tickets of admission. No doubt a successful evening of social relaxation will result and a neat sum realized for the church fund.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Drewery entertained a small party of friends at their cozy residence on A street Friday evening. Music, both vocal and instrumental and an informal spread were the features of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fay, Miss Fay, Miss Gertrude Howard, Miss Agnes Robertson, Miss Blanche Toft, Mr. and Mrs. Duwery, H. A. Thierolf, Phil Holmes, Carl Hellbroner. The fact that there were 13 in the party did not detract from the enjoyment of the occasion.

The Swastika card party on February 1 at the home of Mrs. E. J. Erdman on South street, with Mrs. H. C. Kentner, Mrs. Helen Snedeker and Mrs. William Aldenhagen assisting hostesses, is being looked forward to by the many who enjoy the popular pastime. Mrs. Erdman's home has recently been remodeled and is modern and commodious—being well arranged for informal entertaining.

The Juvenile Dancing club held their third dancing party at Angles hall on Thursday evening. Counter attractions on the regular meeting night necessitated a change of date, which made the attendance smaller than is usual. The fourth party is set for Wednesday evening, February 2.

The monthly party given by the Swastika club takes place tomorrow evening, January 24, at Angles hall. No invitations are issued except those sent at the opening of the season for the entire course.

The members of the Bridge Whist club and their husbands met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kentner and spent a most enjoyable evening with cards.

Since taking up his residence in Portland, Donald Colvig has had a severe attack of illness, which incapacitated him for school duties. He has sufficiently recovered to resume his studies.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Mark's church will meet Friday, January 28, at the church at 3 p. m. sharp. Bishop Seadling will address the meeting and outline their plan of work.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Aid held with Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Miehler on North Central avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. L. Reames has returned from Portland, where she spent a week with her mother, Mrs. William Colvig.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Milton Barbee have gone to San Francisco on professional business.

One of the most successful events of the week, both numerically and socially was the reception given by Medford Lodge, No. 1148, B. P. O. E., Thursday evening at the K. P. hall. C. W. Hellbroner was the efficient chairman of the refreshment committee and A. H. Thierolf had charge of the entertainment. A "kangaroo court," with Clarence Reames sitting as judge, A. C. Burgess as chief of police and J. G. Gobbs assistant chief of police, together with a jury of six, fined the members in truly judicial manner, making Mayor Canon and City Recorder Telfer and other prominent officials the victims of practical jokes and local hits. Imagine an Elk that didn't enjoy a joke on somebody! A program of vocal music, in which Mrs. D. H. Drury, Mrs. Guy Childers, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Andrews and Henri Gunson participated, was a delightful feature of the evening's entertainment. Arthur Burgess and Ed Andrews also gave a humorous sketch with characteristic skill. The banquet hall was cleverly decorated with ivy and native evergreen, while the tables were attractive with red and white, the flowers being vivid red carnations. Cards and dancing were the amusements of the evening, Hazerig's orchestra furnishing the music. The third Thursday of each month is hereafter to be observed as ladies' night.

The F. I. M. met Monday evening with Miss McKay at her home on West Jackson street. After a short business meeting and discussion of current items of interest the hostess provided further entertainment and served delicious refreshments. The club meet the 31st with W. J. Watt, 214 East Jackson street.

Miss Agnes Robertson returned from Ashland Friday evening for a few days' visit with friends before leaving on a business and pleasure trip of two weeks to San Francisco.

The Five Hundred club held its regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. L. Hamilton, North Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Taylor of Jacksonville were in attendance at "The Wolf" Wednesday evening.

The convention was well attended from all over the district, which includes Grants Pass, Gold Hill, Woodville, Glendale and Kirbyville. The Gold Hill ladies speak very highly of the reception the Grants Pass Rebekahs extended them while at the convention. Gold Hill captured the convention for the next year session.

F. C. Bellamy, the well-known operator of the Hill Nye mine, on Galis creek, is spending the winter with his family at his old home in Torrington, Conn.

G. W. Bushey of Menomonee, Wis., is here looking over the country with a view of locating here. He has visited Spokane, Seattle, Portland and Willamette valley towns and Gold Hill looks the best of all to him. He comes from the same district in Wisconsin as Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Howard, now here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Rex H. Lampman.

Mrs. Delphia Moore came up from Grants Pass Thursday looking over the property interests of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Masterson.

Notices are out for special school meeting to be held on January 29 for the legal voters to decide on the question of purchasing new grounds for the new high school, and notices are also out for a special school election February 12 to vote on $14,000 bonds to build a new high school building.

Robert Birch of Sam's Valley has been visiting relatives here the past week.

Petitions are out to establish a new county road to Sardine creek, on the north side of the Southern Pacific track, leading out on B street, nearly due west on the foothill crossing the stream just above the Ensign place, into the county road up the creek. This new road has been needed for many years, as it saves quite a distance in reaching the Sardine creek district, opens up a road for a good many that have had no outlets to their property, and does away with two very dangerous railroad crossings. The Gold Hill Lumber company, owners of the largest sawmill along the railway in Jackson county, and several other sawmill owners, the proprietors of the Lucky Dart, Grey Eagle, Corporal G. Hinkle, Reed, Hammerly and Carter and other small quartz mill owners are petitioners. The people of this district are very hopeful the county court will see fit to grant this road.
