BONANZA, Or., Jan. 25.—While killing hogs at his ranch 20 miles from here, Vilvan Evans last Saturday shot himself in the abdomen with a 22-caliber rifle. He struck at one of the hogs with the butt of the gun, when it was accidentally discharged. Little hope for recovery is entertained.

BABE UNITES MRS FOWLER WITH HUBBY

Woman Well Known in This City Remarries to Obey Pleading of Child—Employed at Nash.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 25.—Baby Fowler, 6 years of age, reunited Mrs. Ruby E. Fowler of Medford and Lawrence Fowler of Alger, Wyo. The little girl "wanted both papa and mama," she insisted. She walked between them to the courthouse and the couple were remarried after being divorced two years.

Mrs. Fowler left here in the fall for the east. For several months she was an attendant at the cigar counter in the Hotel Nash.

TO OBSERVE EMPEROR'S BIRTHDAY IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—Preparation for celebration of the emperor's birthday is being made today on January 27, and Germany will be a vast field of flags in honor of the kaiser's 51st birthday anniversary. All schools will be closed, business largely suspended and services will be held in the churches in thanksgiving for the imperial welfare and in prayer for a continuation of heaven's blessings. All the great men in the land will visit the palace during the day to offer their congratulations and in the evening his majesty will attend a performance at the Royal opera house, and later a state banquet of a gorgeous character will conclude the festivities.

TABERNACLE WILL HOLD 3000 PEOPLE

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 25.—The big tabernacle at the corner of West Tenth and Charnelton streets, which will be used for the union revival meeting, beginning Sunday, January 30, will be completed probably about the middle of this week. The structure will cover nearly a quarter of a block in a thickly settled residence portion. The work is all donated, and the only cost to the churches for the building will be the price of the lumber.
