position he won in the Indian cam- of endeavoring to perpetuate himself paign as a member of the frontier as chairman of the roads commisforces. For distinguished service in sion. this campaign and especially at the siege of Dargi, he says he was decorated with the Victoria Cross. In the Indian campaign he was also honored the Queen's medal for the relief of Chitra. From the Indian service he went to the front in South Africa in the Boer war where two more medals fell to his lot as the result of distinguished service. The war over, Dodd went to Montana and rode the range as a cowboy. Then the Panama canal saw him. After this he enlisted in the revenue cutter service and spent three summers on the Thetis in Alaskan waters. For the past three months he has been in the employ of the Seattle Electric company as a motorman.

Haven't You a Job of Work For a Want Ad to Do?

One Cent a Word --- Six Insertions For the Price of Five.

It needn't be some task so easy that it will almost do itself. You can entrust it with some errand that is difficult--that a want ad can do WELL AND INEXPENSIVELY.

The person who finds lobs for want ads, to do is the sort of a chap who looks at you rather quizzically when you try to tell him that business is dull, or that you can't rent that apartment, or store, or office, or house, or that you can't find a position. For you see, he has gotten into the habit of accomplishing things--which is a habit within the reach of any person with half a will or three quarters of a purpose.
