NEWTOWN PIPPIN IS FAVORITE IN SHEFFIELD

American Consul Writes of Market There for American Grown Newtown Pippins.

Consul Charles Daniels of Sheffield, England, finds that the Sheffield city directory contains the names of 80 fruit dealers, all of whom handle American and Canadian apples to a greater or less extent. He has investigated the trade and learned the following facts:

From a personal interview with a dozen or more of these firms, selected at random, it is safe to say this English city consumes $15,000 to $20,000 worth of apples weekly during the season from October 1 to the middle of March or April 1. Of this amount about three-fifths are Canadian, the remaining are American. Practically all of these apples are brought of commission men on the wharves at Liverpool. The tendency of the trade here is to favor the Canadian grower and packer, the reason for this being that Canada exercises supervision over the grading, packing and branding of its fruit that is entirely lacking in the American product.

Many dealers here would be glad to make arrangements whereby their supply could be obtained directly from the grower or packer, thereby eliminating the middleman and his profit or commission. They say they would be satisfied with a profit of 7 to 12 per cent. With apples selling retail at from 6 cents per pound or $2 a bushel, for ordinary fruit, to 12 cents to 16 cents per pound, or $6 to $8 a bushel, for selected graded Newtown Pippins, it would seem that this is a market worth the attention of the American apple grower, but before a staple trade can be established the American must do certain things. He must establish fixed grades and brands and be prepared to stand behind them with his guarantee. The American producer who does this and fully packs his product, giving attention to the conditions under which they are shipped and insuring them against over-heating or damage on the voyage, would soon find himself in possession of a ready market for his product.

The method of packing is not a vital one, both barrels and cased apples finding a market here. Curiously enough, the dealers seem to prefer the eastern apples in barrels, while the western apples are readily bought in cases. In using a bushel box or case it is possible to grade the fruit nearer to size than where the barrel is used, but this is not essential; in fact, as all apples are sold here by weight, a slight variation in size enables the dealer to more readily supply the quantity his customers may want, but it is essential that the barrel contain but one variety, sound and free from blemish, and not as has been seen here when a barrel was turned out for inspection to contain three or four varieties and those in the center of the package so poor and knarly as to be hardly fit for elder making. It is such packing as this that makes the English retailer fight shy of American apples.

There does not appear to be any settled prejudice in favor of or against any particular color, but on account of its hardness making it a good shipper and the crispness of the fruit, the Newtown Pippin appears to be the favorite.

The completion of the projected irrigation system and electric railway is a necessary concomitant of this scheme. The rapid increase of population in the value of the many large improvement schemes in sight will create a big demand for fresh vegetables, much greater than the present supply. The eBar creek bottom lands are among the most fertile in value and can be made to produce much greater crops than at present with irrigation and proper fertilization.

Haven't You a Job of Work For a Want Ad to Do?

One Cent a Word---Six Insertions For the Price of Five.

It needn't be some task so easy that it will almost do itself. You can entrust it with some errand that is difficult--that a want ad can do WELL AND INEXPENSIVELY. The person who finds jobs for want ads. to do is the sort of a chap who looks at you rather quizzically when you try to tell him that business is dull, or that you can't rent that apartment, or store, or office, or house, or that you can't find a position. For you see, he has gotten into the habit of accomplishing things--which is a habit within the reach of any person with half a will or three quarters of a purpose.
