 The ladies of the Medford W. C. T. U. met last Thursday afternoon. A short program was rendered. A sketch of Frances Willard's life was given by Mrs. Buck, which was very interesting. The president, Dr. Myrtle Lockwood, urged the Union to study the life of its great leader, Frances Willard, more closely. Mrs. Davis gave a good talk to the mothers about Sampson and his great strength and how he got into the wrong kind of company, and his strength left him. She said the Union should watch that its great strength should stay with it unto the end. The state president, Mrs. Unruh, will be in Medford February 13 and 14. She will speak twice on the 13th, place to be announced later, and then she will visit the schools on the 14th. The ladies are going to give a reception on the evening of the 14th for the ministers and their wives of the town at Smith's hall, on Grape street. It is hoped this will be a beginning of the W. C. T. U. good times.

 H. D. Williams of Talent, was a recent visitor in Medford.

MEDFORD LOSES GAME BY A CLOSE SCORE

The Medford high school basketball team met its second defeat at the hands of the crack Klamath Falls team Friday night at the skating rink on West Main street, by a score of 33 to 29, which wasn't so bad, after all. The local team held their more experienced opponents down until the last of the second half, when knowledge of the game and the fact that the Klamath Falls team had their own referee, enabled them to win by a narrow margin.
 The game was a close one throughout, but no referee can help giving his own boys the shade the better of it. He wouldn't be much of a booster if he did.

MISS HELEN MEADE TO BE BURIED SUNDAY

The funeral of Miss Helen Genevieve Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Meade, will take place Sunday afternoon, Rev. Helknap of the M. E. church officiating.
 Miss Helen was 14 years and 9 months old at the time of her death, and had been a resident here with her parents for the past 12 months.

THREE MEN NEARLY BURIED ON EAST SIDE

A cave-in in the trench for the new east side sewer Saturday came near claiming three lives. As it was, three men were buried partially and some time was required before they were dug out.

Millian Burned to Death

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 29.—The body of Angelo Favia, a Sicilian garbage man, was found badly burned in a barn in the rear of his home which was destroyed by fire today. It is believed that Favia went out to feed his horses and upset a candle in the hayloft. While fighting the fire he is believed to have breathed in the flames and fallen down the hay chute. His body was burned to a crisp.

Shouldn't Food With Edge Tools

Miss Carol Fish, a student of the Ashland high school, and a popular member of the senior class, was attempting to split a stick of wood into kindling at her home last evening, when she missed calculations and the ax clipped off the end of her thumb. The attention of a surgeon was required to repair the damage.—Ashland Tidings.

SOCIETY

The birthday of Rev. W. E. Goode was celebrated Friday evening at the Star restaurant with a gathering of family and friends and an elaborate birthday supper near midnight. An informal musical program was enjoyed and an address suited to the occasion given by Rev. E. J. Harrington. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Eads, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goode, Mrs. Fay Anderson, Misses Eva and Maude Goode, Clair Williams, Marie and Dorothy Meyers, Messrs. Louis Higgins, Bert Cusick and Delbert Anderson.

The Bridge Whist club was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gale. In the absence of several members, Mrs. J. F. Mundy, Mrs. W. W. Harmon, Mrs. Jennings and Miss Ida Lee Kentner were guests of the club. Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Mundy and Mrs. Harmon were voted members of the club, thus completing the number sixteen.

The woman's auxiliary was addressed at the Episcopal church Friday afternoon by Bishop Seadding, who outlined the work for the spring and summer months, giving many words of loyal encouragement for the completion of the splendid work now in progress and in the success of which the ladies bear so important a part.

The fourth dancing party given by the Swastika club Monday evening was one of the enjoyable events of the week. While the attendance was not so large as on previous occasions, the music by Hazelrigg's orchestra was all that could be desired, and the dancers appreciated the easy comfort of more floor space.

Miss Hazel Davis, a senior in the Portland high school, is spending the semester vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Davis.

BLACK HAND MEMBERS GET STIFF SENTENCE

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 29.—Found guilty of implication in a Black Hand conspiracy, seven Sicilians and Italians today were sentenced today to serve terms ranging from two to sixteen years in state's prison. They were tried by a jury in the federal court.

Salvatore Lima, the ringleader of the plot, received a 16-year sentence. Agostino Marghesi, Vincenzo Arigo and Sal-vatore Rizzo, who also were declared to be guilty, were granted new trials.

The men were alleged to be members of a gang that operated in various Ohio cities for many months. They were alleged to have collected tribute from nearly a dozen wealthy countrymen.
