POWELL IS READY TO TAKE ON GEORGE MEMSIC

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 3.—Lew Powell arrived in Los Angeles today from San Francisco to train for his argument with George Memsic at McCarey's pavilion, scheduled for February 15. With his trainer, Al Kevie, he went immediately to Jack Doyle's, where he will get himself into condition for the ten-round battle.

When Lew was told that George had been telling friends that he was going to knock Powell out, Lew said: "Momsie had better save his wind for the night of the battle and watch out that I do not stop him before the last song."

Lew said that he expected to enter the ring weighing about 131 1/2.

DELEGATION BACK FROM BIG MEETING

The Oregon Hardware and Implement Dealers' association has just closed a lively session in Portland, the annual meeting place of the organization, to which H. C. Garnett, H. F. Platt, D. T. Lawton, Hubbard Bros. and representatives of the Cuthbert interests were delegates.

That the presidency of the organization should on successive years fall to H. C. Garnett of the Garnett Hardware company, Inc., is a cause of no little local pride, as it bespeaks the recognition of an enterprising citizen and is also an endorsement of his business policies advocated during the term of office just closed.

McCREDIE LOSES ANOTHER GOOD ONE

Rex Ames, who tried out as a pitcher with the misfit team of the Northwest league in Medford last spring and was thrown into the discard without even a "string tied to him," has been making good in the Imperial Valley league this winter and has been signed by Danny Long to help the Seals beat the Beavers next season. Ames is young, but has good speed and some very deceiving curves. He did not take kindly, however, to a moist climate, and seemed too frail in comparison with the big fellows in Casey's bunch.

SOMETHING TO CURE TURKEY "SWELL HEAD"

TOLO, Or., Jan. 31.—(To the Editor.)—I wish to take advantage of your large circulation to place a good thing among many users for mutual protection to turkey-raisers from the contagious disease commonly known as "swell head," which is apparently a bad cold in the head, and becomes contagious when fully developed. First, lance swelling under the eye, press out jelly-like matter; second, wash out wound, nose and upper part of mouth with solution of equal parts turpentine and coal oil, a small syringe is convenient for this operation; third, put a pinch of soda under eyelids and in the wound. Treatment to be repeated every other day until cured.

Birds afflicted should be quarantined to avoid contamination, and see that water does not flow from hospital to other fowls.

The undersigned bought the right to use and dispose of the above prescription as he choose. We have tried it with gratifying results and tender it to any one who may have occasion to use it.

you of things which happened 'way back in '54.

"For all except 20 of those years I have been a resident of Jackson county, and for 27 of them I have lived in Oregon. I came to Oregon in 1850 and was first in Southern Oregon in 1852, when I passed through the valley to California on an Indian trail which followed pretty closely, as I remember, the windings of Bear creek. In 1853 I returned and settled near Jacksonville on what is still known as the Bellinger place, and lived there until within the past few years.

"I have seen Jackson county grow from an isolated community, beset with Indians, to a prosperous commonwealth, and, viewing the past development, my imagination is incapable of predicting its future development."

GRANTS PASS BOYS FORM NEW CLUB

GRANTS PASS, Or., Feb. 3.—As previously announced, the citizens and boys over 14 years of age gathered in the Commercial club rooms last night and formed what is known as the Grants Pass Boys' club, the room being crowded to standing capacity, which demonstrated the desire of the entire community. The meeting was called to order by Rev. Bartlett of the Episcopal church, who had previously formulated rules and regulations governing the club, which, with a few minor changes, were adopted as read. The room in the rear of the Trust company's bank was selected as clubroom and will immediately be fitted up with such paraphernalia as is needed. The club starts out with 100 charter members, and it is expected that within a very short time will be swollen to 200, and put on such financial basis that the employment of a competent athletic instructor may be had. In the rear of the clubroom will be arranged a shower bath, much to the need of all members.

She leaves three sons, George and John Chapman of La Grande, Or., and Ben Chapman of Arizona, and three daughters, Mrs. Maggie Reeves and Miss Catherine Chapman of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Ed Tryer of Grants Pass.

SNELL CALLS RECALL BLUFF.

stance those who opposed him decided upon his recall.

"I am fighting the good fight for municipal improvements," stated the mayor today while in Medford, "and I shall continue my course, whether in or out of office. I know that I could beat my opponents out in Ashland on a square-toed fight at the polls, but to fight them would require my meeting them on their own ground of gumbush politics, so I will go into court."

"I only hope they will come out in court and oppose me. I wish to be shown why I should be recalled. No one questions my honesty. The charges in the petition are a farce. I would like to pin them down to their facts."

"I often marvel at the example Medford is setting us. Here you have a body of people unanimous in their efforts to build up a city. It is something we need in our city."

"The matter I regret most is that the present agitation may retard Ashland's progress."
