

FINDS THAT OREGON IS BETTER KNOWN

Many Young College Men Coming to State in Near Future, William Murray Says.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 15.—Convincing evidence of substantial results from the aggressive publicity campaign conducted by Oregon commercial organizations in behalf of the state were found throughout the east by William McMurray, general passenger agent for the Harriman lines in this territory, who returned yesterday after an absence of six weeks in the states east of the Mississippi river. Mr. McMurray went to Chicago as a representative of the Harriman system to attend a meeting of the Transcontinental Passenger association, from which he secured special excursion rates from eastern points for the approaching rose festival in this city. The Passenger association also established satisfactory colonist rates for the coming season.

"When the passenger representatives concluded their session," said Mr. McMurray yesterday, "I spent several days visiting St. Paul, Minneapolis, Philadelphia and New York. At these points, and all through the east, I found the representatives of the Harriman system, including our agents, intensely interested in our publicity work in Oregon. Portland and the entire state are receiving much advertising throughout the east and, through the co-operation of the railroads, all publicity literature sent from this state is being distributed where it will do the most good."

"Among the evidences of practical results from the publicity campaign in Oregon that came under my observation was the fact that, included among the many eastern people who are planning to join the army of homeseekers for the Pacific coast states, are an unusually large number of college graduates. A large share of these desirable young men have selected Oregon as the proper place to locate, and with others are planning to make the change as soon as they can arrange their affairs. The colonist movement to the Pacific coast this year will be record-breaking."

MAUS MUST EXPLAIN REMOVAL OF OFFICER

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 15.—Brigadier General Maus, commander of the department of the Columbia, must make clear and positive explanation of his reason for removing Lieutenant Colonel W. B. Abercrombie from the command of Fort George at Spokane or the colonel will quit the army. This was the ultimatum issued today by the colonel, who explains that this is his reason for asking for a suspension of the order of Maus for his removal to Fort Lawton until his retirement by the war department can be acted upon. The suspension has been granted and the application for the retirement has gone to Washington by wire.

"The intimation has gone forth in the newspapers," said Colonel Abercrombie today "that my adjutant, Lieutenant Sykes, and myself were removed for other reasons than the housing of industrialist prisoners at the fort. I want them to cut the melon and have a full and complete investigation."

Any goods which cannot be sold in this city through advertising in this newspaper are not salable here, and should not have been brought to this market.

Model Residence For a Modest Sum

Design 865, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

Here is planned a home that should make the heart of any housewife glad. It has all the conveniences of a residence costing many times the estimate here quoted, yet can be built for a modest sum. The living room covers practically the entire side of the house, but a sort of division made with a column archway allows the back of the living room to be used as a den or library. It is now planned to be used as a library or den, with bookshelves built in on each side. These could be left out and seats put in if so desired. The first story is to be finished in red oak or birch; second story in pine to paint. The size is 33 feet 6 inches wide by 25 feet 6 inches deep over main part. It has a full basement. The first story is nine feet; second story eight feet in the clear; first story sided and second story shingled on outside. Attention is called to the balcony in the second story, ample to seat eight or ten people and also large enough to be screened in and used for an open air sleeping room, being accessible from the alcove, which is practically a hall space or can be used for a sewing room. Cost to build, exclusive of plumbing and heating, $2,950.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one complete set of plans and specifications of design No. 865 for $25. GLENN L. SAXTON.

HIP AND BUST LINES AGAIN TO BE IN STYLE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Hope gleamed once more on the countenances of 2,000 straight-fronted women who gazed today at the new style corsets display at the National Clothes Show at the Arlington hotel. The owners of the hipless, bustless purchase forms saw that the feminine waist line is again coming into its own. Paint protuberances indicated that hips and busts will again be de rigueur. Every woman at the show listened in raptures to the talk of the lady exhibitor in charge of the corsets.

Dr. Lovett of the Harvard Medical school is right in declaring that corsets of the right kind are helpful for modern women," she said. "No woman need have a bow back, a bulging stomach or a flat chest if she wears the right kind of corsets. The day of the craze for the straight up and down in feminine figures has passed. You'll see hips and busts this spring."

CURED WITHOUT A KNIFE.

About eight years ago, after having consulted several physicians who failed to cure my wife, I called in Dr. King of No. 725 J street, Sacramento, Cal. After making an examination, he pronounced it a case of abscess of the bowels, for which he accomplished successfully a cure without a knife. About a year ago he also treated her for heart trouble, with which he had the same success. Some time back he cured me of a case of kidney trouble. Anybody wanting any reference can address me at No. 523 Oak avenue or Antelope, Sacramento county. H. J. ATWOOD. January 8th, 1910.
