ASTON NOW MARKET REPORTER IN SPOKANE

The Inland Herald, Spokane's new daily, prints the portrait of J. E. Aston, formerly city editor of the Medford Morning Mail, along with other members of the staff, and the following biography:

"John E. Aston, markets reporter—Born in Toronto, Ont., 37 years ago. After graduating from the Upper Canada college, conceived the idea that he wished to become a journalist and as a beginning spent three years learning the printing trade. First newspaper position was on the Toronto World. Thence he went to Detroit (Mich.) Journal. After a year there he was offered a position on the Evening News of the same city, and remained on the editorial staff of that paper for seven years. Since the experience received in Toronto and Detroit, Mr. Aston has worked on the staffs of the following newspapers: Superior Telegram, Superior, Wis.; Kansas City Star, Kansas City, Mo.; Pueblo Chieftain, Pueblo, Colo.; Portland Oregonian, and for two years previous was editor of the Medford Morning Mail. Mr. Aston is also a magazine writer and has contributed a number of articles and stories to leading magazines."

WILL CARRY ALIENATION SUIT TO SUPREME COURT

OREGON CITY, Feb. 19.—Attorneys for Mayor Philip Streib of Milwaukee announced today that an appeal would be taken to the state supreme court to secure a reversal of the verdict awarding damages of $4000 to Mrs. Philip Streib, Jr., for the alienation of her husband's affections rendered by a jury in the circuit court late yesterday.

Young Mrs. Streib charged in her suit that through the machinations of Philip Streib, Sr., and his wife, they had alienated the affections of her husband, and for this she demanded $30,000 damages.

Famous Dance Hall Closed.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 19.—Dremland rink, probably the largest dance hall in the state, is closed today and the club women of the city are jubilant.

The Merry Widow waltz was hushed suddenly and 200 gliding figures came to a halt last night when a grand jury detective approached Manager Michael Fisher and ordered the place closed.

The action of the grand jury is the culmination of a long fight made on the dance hall.

You are invited to examine the favors, place cards, candlesticks, paper napkins, lace paper doilies, etc., at The Merrivold Shop. 286

SOCIETY

Mrs. F. H. Hopkins gave a most delightful and informal buffet dinner at her beautiful suburban home last evening for Miss Grace Andrews and her fiancé, Conro Fiero.

About twenty guests were present, and after dinner, which was served with quiet elegance, music was enjoyed. On account of the Lenten season and Mrs. Hopkins' affiliations with the Episcopal church, an atmosphere of cordial simplicity prevailed that did not detract from the generous-hearted hospitality extended.

This is the first entertaining to be done in honor of Miss Andrews and Mr. Fiero, who are among the popular eastern arrivals of the year.

A group of six young ladies associated with the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. M. E. Worrell yesterday afternoon and were organized for interesting club work.

"The King's Daughters" was chosen as a name, with the possibility of affiliating with the national order of King's Daughters at some future time. Miss Gertrude Trechler was elected president, Miss Alice Streets vice-president, Miss Flora Gray secretary and Miss Mabel Ray treasurer.

Miss Helen Worrell will entertain the club Tuesday with a luncheon at 1 o'clock and the afternoon will be devoted to needlework for the Easter bazaar. Miss Lotta Luke and Miss Helen Worrell complete the present membership list.

Mrs. Charles C. Whitney of Marshall; Mimm, is paying her son, J. W. Whitney, a visit.

HUNDREDS WOULD GO TO NOME ON FIRST BOAT

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 19.—The passenger list of the Corwin, the first boat out of here for Nome this spring, is marked full today, the last first-class reservation being sold.

The Corwin will sail May 10. Beside her full passenger list she will carry 200 tons of freight and three tons of mail.

The arrival of the Corwin is a day of joy in Nome. When, after pounding her way through the ice, she anchors seven or eight miles off shore and waits for the discharge of her cargo, the entire town comes out by sled, headed by a brass band.

In previous years the residents of Nome have looted the ship of all fresh vegetables and fruits, and though they paid liberally for them, the steamship company objects to the practice. This year 500 tons of fruit and vegetables will be taken for free distribution at Nome.

Buicks are worth while.

AMERICAN MAN WEDS A PRETTY JAPANESE

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 19.—Sam Mitchell, formerly a logger of Aberdeen, and now owner of a lodging-house here, and Mrs. Fuera Terada are man and wife today, the first instance in the records of King county of an American man wedding a Japanese woman.

There's a real romance in the marriage. Four years ago when Mitchell was at Aberdeen, Mrs. Terada and her husband were running a curiosity store there. Mitchell met the little woman in the store and vowed he would wed her if ever he got the chance. Soon after this Terada lost his mind, was sent to the insane asylum and finally returned to Japan, where he died.

The little Japanese widow came to Seattle and Mitchell saw her. A wedding at the Japanese Baptist mission by Rev. F. Akazaki followed.

The only witness was M. Morita, a Japanese rancher who is married to a French woman.

Chinese Pitcher Appears.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 19.—The first Chinese aspirant for box honors on an intercollegiate baseball field is conceded today by the University of Pennsylvania student body to stand an excellent chance to land a berth on the freshman nine.

The Oriental pitcher's name is Frank Yi Kin, and he has an assortment of benders and speed that critics say will make him heard from before the end of the season.

EDITOR HAS WORD OF PRAISE FOR MEDFORD

Hugh Hume of Portland Surprised at Crowds Which Throng Medford's Streets and Growth.

Hugh Hume, the gifted editor of the Portland Spectator, spent Saturday in Medford and was favorably impressed with the city's growth and progress.

"What is going on?" asked Mr. Hume. "Is there a convention of some kind here that there are so many people on the streets?"

When told that he saw only the usual Medford street crowd he admitted that Medford was the liveliest city south of Portland.

"Medford is making very rapid strides," said Mr. Hume, "and is attracting wide attention. The city promises to become the largest and most attractive between Portland and San Francisco. I find improvements on every hand and still more in prospect. I is a city with a future."

Carnegie at Santa Barbara.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Feb. 19.—Andrew Carnegie is in Santa Barbara today with his party. He arrived last evening on the private car Olivette and was met at the station by the members of the Caledonian society of Santa Barbara.

As the steel king stepped from his car, Robert Calder, president of the Scottish organization, clad in kilts, bellowed "The Campbells are Coming" on a bagpipe and the other clubmen cheered.

"This is the nicest reception I ever had," Carnegie smilingly remarked. He then was driven to his hotel and escorted by the clubmen, who marched to the bagpipe tunes.

Carnegie is accompanied by Mrs. Carnegie and their daughter, Miss Margaret. The party probably will remain here several days.

WALTHAM WATCHES

Guaranteed or not Guaranteed

The Waltham Watch Company will guarantee in the broadest possible way any Waltham Watch bought from a reputable jeweler, but it will not guarantee a watch purchased by mail from the catalogue of any mail order house. When you get a watch from a jeweler, he sees that it is going right at first, because he knows how to touch it up; but even so, if your watch fails later in any way, we will make it good, provided only that it has been bought from a reputable dealer. We cannot guarantee any of our watches that may have been bought from mail order houses. We do not sell to them. Any mail order house advertising Waltham Watches in their catalogues know when they do it that they can only get them by underground methods.

I carry all makes of standard Watches. Be sure and examine my line of high-grade Watches before buying.
