Section 2. Any person, firm, company or corporation, or the agent thereof, upon the tender of the license fee herein provided, may in the discretion of the city recorder, or the city council, be licensed to do, conduct, perform or carry on such trade, business, occupation or vocation within said city, subject to all of the laws, ordinances and police regulations thereof; provided that all exhibitions and performances of a degrading character and all pugilistic contests are prohibited.

Section 3. Any exhibition conducted wholly by residents of Medford or vicinity, may in the discretion of the city council be permitted to be given in said city without payment of any license therefor.

Section 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent residents of Medford from fittingly advertising their own business or wares without the payment of any license fee; provided that no person or persons, firm or corporation shall be permitted to write, paint, or otherwise inscribe any sign or advertising matter upon any sidewalk or pavement, telephone, telegraph, or electric light poles in or upon any of the streets or alleys or other public places of the said city.

Section 5. No shooting galleries shall be permitted to remain open in said city after the hour of 10 o'clock p. m. on week day, nor at any hour on Sunday; and in the event that any shooting gallery be kept open after said hour, or upon a Sunday, the license of such shooting gallery may be forthwith revoked by the city council without notice to the proprietor or persons in charge of such shooting gallery.

Section 6. For the purpose of this ordinance, draymen are defined to be persons who keep any dray, wagon, cart or other vehicle used for the conveyance of freight, merchandise, telephone poles, brick, dirt or gravel or other goods in quantity, from place to place in said city for hire, and express or delivery wagons are defined to be wagons or vehicles used for the delivery of goods, wares and merchandise sold by merchants or others in said city, for hire, or for the conveyance for hire of parcels, packages, trunks or baggage, within said city.

Section 7. No fees or charges other than those herein provided shall be imposed upon any of the trades, businesses, occupations or vocations here enumerated.

(a) All licenses herein designated as yearly licenses shall not be issued or taken for a less time than a year.

Section 8. Any person or persons, firm or corporation, or any agent for such person, firm or corporation, or any employe thereof, who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction of such violation before the mayor's
