

Stupendous Removal Sale

We Are Forced to Move From Our Present Location as You Can See From the Following Notice

To W. H. Meeker & Co.: You are hereby directed and notified to quit that certain building occupied by you as a dry goods store and which is known as Meeker's Store in the lower floor of what is known as the Stewart Block in the city of Medford, Jackson county, Oregon, within thirty days from the service of this notice upon you, and to vacate the said building entirely removing therefrom your personal property and to deliver over to the undersigned the possession of the same. Dated this 19th day of February, 1910.

CHAS. STRANG.

We will locate in the PALACE HOTEL BUILDING as soon as it can be made ready for us. The building will be remodeled in every particular, including the installation of one of the most modern fronts to be found in any city, thus we will be in a better position to care for our trade than ever before. We do not wish to enter this new building with any old stock, so we are going to make the greatest cut in prices that has ever been known in the city of Medford. We are going to slaughter new goods as well as old; everything in our entire stock goes. We are going to place more orders for new goods immediately with which to stock the new building.

When we placed our large orders for spring merchandise we did not know we were going to make this move; so, in consequence, OUR SHELVES ARE LOADED WITH THE NEWEST AND THE MOST COMPREHENSIVE LINE OF WASH GOODS, SUITS, DRESS GOODS, MUSLIN WEAR, GLOVES, HOSIERY, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, ETC., that you have ever had the privilege of inspecting.
