HENS ONCE MORE ARE ON THE JOB

The Principal Ingredient of Harnan Goes Down to 20 Cents Per Doz.—Poor Man Can Get It Again.

Eggs are quoted at 20 cents in the market and a fellow can indulge in "ham and" or "two in de shell" now without feeling that he is wasting his substance. The southern Oregon hen has come nobly to the rescue of an eggless community by coming back on the job.

Spuds have also taken a drop from $1.50 to $1.25 per cwt. There is no change in the price of pork locally, although the price north is still going up.

Pure leaf lard is actually here in five and ten-pound pails at less than it can be bought from the jobbers in 1000-pound lots.

NEW SYSTEM RETIREMENT PROPOSED IN NAVY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 28.—Embodiment Secretary Meyer's heralded plan for increased efficiency of the navy, in a special message to congress President Taft recommended the newly proposed system of retirement of naval officers at certain age limits instead of after they reach a certain grade in the service.

The message showed that the average age at which a captain in navy retires is 55 years while the rear admiral retires at 60 1/2 years. Commenting on this the president says: "This is the direct result of an absurd system which allows nearly all officers, provided they retain health, to pass through various grades and retire as rear admirals."

HALLEY'S COMET WILL SOON BE VISIBLE

BERKELEY, Cal., Feb. 28.—Halley's comet will soon be visible without the aid of a glass, according to W. F. Meyer, of the faculty of the department of astronomy at the University of California. The tailed star already can be seen through opera glasses. The sky wanderer may be found by sighting Algenol, known as Gamma of the star Pegasus.

The comet now approaching the sun, will pass it March 25, according to Meyer and probably will then become invisible until it emerges on the western side of the sun. Meyer stated that no "disastrous" results are to be feared with the approach of the comet toward the earth.

OREGON CO-EDS BEST MALE COMPANIONS

Out of 600 Students in Liberal Arts Only 15 Failed to Make Necessary Number of Hours.

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 28.—Tabulated results of the final semester examinations recently held at the University of Oregon have been prepared by the registrar of the university and show that the women students, as a class, have secured higher grades than the men. The average sororities is almost exactly the same as the average grade of those living with private families. The woman's fraternity with the highest average in scholarship obtained a grade of 90 per cent, which was four per cent higher than the highest average obtained by a man's fraternity. All of the seven women's fraternities and dormitories had averages ranging from 87 per cent to 90 per cent. The ten men's fraternities and dormitories ranged from 82 per cent to 87 per cent. The average grade of women not living in fraternities or dormitories was 89 per cent and the men 85.6 per cent. None of the men on the football team failed to make the required work and their average was 83.7 per cent. Out of the 600 students enrolled in the colleges of liberal arts and engineering, only fifteen failed to make the required number of hours necessary for continuing the work.

1170 Registered. The annual report of President Campbell of the University of Oregon shows that the total registration in all departments of the university is now 1170 students, of whom 620 are enrolled in the colleges of liberal arts and engineering. Every county in Oregon, with three exceptions, is represented, Multnomah leading with 171 students. The freshmen class in arts and engineering numbers 225, representing practically every four-year high school and academy in the state. Among the freshmen are also graduates of 39 high schools and academies located outside of the state of Oregon, an indication of the large immigration into Oregon during the past year.
