MASS MEETING CALLED: POLICE READY TO ACT

Every Endeavor Is to Be Made by Business Men to Bring Both Sides to an Amicable Settlement-Tired of Discord and Rioting.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 10 .rioting in the vicinity of the city hall phalt wearing surface. at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Police

Rioters and police engaged in handto-hand struggles. Many policemen were beaten insensible, their clubs and pistols were taken from them

The riot about the city hall follow- ing surface. ed a series of disorders that began procession of 8000 laboring men who WHISLER IS are out on strike.

The men in the parade, after being driven from the column, gathered in an adjoining street, reformed and again marched toward the city hall

The police charged upon them, mounted officers riding them down and again succeeding in breaking up the mass.

News of the encounters spread like wildfire to the Kensington and other outlying portions of the city. The crowds increased rapidly and soon were driving the police before them. Flying squadrons of mounted police came upon the scene at this time and saved the lives of many of the patrolmen, who were fighting against overwhelming odds.

The crowds about the city hall set entered by the rioters.

began firing. After a scattering volley of shots rang over their heads the rioters retreated to a distance.

The rioting began when the crowd became unruly on their march toward the city hall. At half a dozen points marchers.

biles, the patrolmen succeeded in breaking up the columns.

Repeatedly they charged the crowd and beat them down, men and women, with their maces. Scores were inured in the melees.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., March 10, -The officials of the State Federation of Labor today ordered the Philadelphia union now on strike to make a final effort to secure arbitration of Transit company and its striking plat-It is stated that if this effort for peace fails all organized labor throughout Pennsylvania will be called out on strike in 15 days.

WIDOW GIVES MITE TO FIGHT SALOONS

CHICAGO, Ill., March 10. -A plain gold wedding ring. the widow's mite, of a woman whose name is unknown to the leaders of the cause, is one of the assets of the antiliquor erusaders of Chicago.

Accompanied by a letter containing a fervent prayer that the contributor's children might be guarded from the temptations of strong drink, the ring arrived at the headquarters of the anti-saloon association last evening. The ring probably is worth $5, but it is rich in its story of pathos and sacrifice.
