BILLY SULLIVAN NEARLY DIES RESULT OF ACCIDENT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 16 .-That the life of Billy Sullivan, the veteran eatcher of the Chicago White Sox, was in grave danger yesterday was admitted today at the Eiks' home, where he is suffering from blood poisoning.

While the Sox team No. 2 were is Los Angeles, Sullivan stepped on a rusty nail during practice. When the injured foot began to swell he was taken to the hospital and an operation performed by Dr. E. E. Sherrard. By noon yesterday, de spite the operation, Sullivan's · leg was fearfully swollen to the knee, and the physician found it necessary to inject streptolytic serum. He feared locking.

So serious was Sullivan's condition that his wife was summoned from the east by telegraph. A message from her last, evening stated that she is hurrying to the ball player's side.

Dr. Sherrard stated today that his patient is out of danger and predieted that he would be able to take the field within two weeks. The nail inflicted a wound more than an inch deep in the ball of Sullivan's foot.

H. H. Frazee of Chicago has signed Jeffries for the journey with the provise that it is to be undertaken only if Jeffries beats Johnson in the big July scrap. Otherwise the retired champion will not be signed. It is understood that Jeffries will return from his hunting trip and rest in Los Angeles until the end of the month.

BROTHER RECOGNIZED WHILE BEING SHAVED

VALE, Or., March 16 .- After being separated for more than 17 years H. L. Rose of this city and C. H. Rose of Salem City, Idaho, are enjoying a reunion today at the former's home.

C. H. Rose is a barber. Yesterday a heavily bearded stranger entered his shop and clambered into the chair. As Rose scraped away at the two weeks' growth of beard, the face beneath it appeared to grow fa-

"NEVER AGAIN" SAYS BIG COLORED CHAMPION

CHICAGO, Ilis., March 15 .- Jack Johnson again quit "making a noise like joy-riding and tire tearing" according to his press agent today.

His little experience three days age when he and his wife were saved from death by a snowbank when they were hurled from a machine he was driving, presumably has sated his appetite for speeding.

"But I'm learning," said Johnson to a friend here. "I am getting this automobile business down to a science. I can take my car apart and repair almost every defective part."

Johnson will go into active training about the first of May, when he will establish training quarters on the
