

SOCIETY

The Wednesday Study club met with Mrs. Mundy. The program was a miscellaneous one, the responses being current events and quotations from Ella Wheeler Wilcox. A review of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's first book, "Mal Moulee," was given by Mrs. Gale, and Mrs. Worrell read some of her poems. Mrs. Kentner had an article on Mme. Schumann-Heink, the greatest living contralto.

All society is interested in the probable zoning of the Lombardi Opera company. It is almost certain that Medford will be fortunate enough to have them in the near future. Manager Hazelrigg has been working very hard to get them here, and every one is looking forward with great pleasure to the event of the theatrical season in Medford.

The bankers of the Jackson County Bankers' association held a most elaborate banquet Tuesday evening at the Nash grill. The color scheme was green and white, Easter lilies, carnations and ferns carrying out the idea. Judge Colvig acted as toastmaster in his usual happy manner.

The ladies of the Baptist church gave a farewell reception to Mrs. A. Olin Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. A musical program was given and ice cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. Olin left later in the week for Los Angeles, Cal., their former home.

Mr. McGuire, who at one time was private secretary to Francis J. Heney and is now in the office of Colvig & Reames, leaves shortly for Washington, D. C., where he is to be married. Mr. and Mrs. McGuire will make their future home in Medford.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brown last week by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lav, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Bundy and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson.

During the week the many friends of Father Francis Van Clarenbeek were pleased by the receipt of news that Father Van was well on the road to recovery and that he will return to Medford shortly after Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Garnett have returned from a trip to San Francisco. They experienced their first earthquake while staying at the Palace hotel, and were very glad to return, as they say Oregon is good enough for them.

Mrs. Frank Hartzel will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Aldenhagen. She is expected to arrive this coming week and will be welcomed by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reames gave an informal family dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Dr. R. G. Gale, whose birthday it was. Covers were laid for four.

Mr. and Mrs. Polkinhorn and Miss Rose Gudehus will leave Wednesday for their home in Duluth, Minn., after a visit of two months in Medford.

A basket social was held Tuesday evening by the G. A. R. and W. R. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Greggs, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bert Anderson, left last week for Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Green accompanied their guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Green, as far as San Francisco. The Greens have spent several months here and have returned to Craig, Colo.

Following is the committee for the W. C. T. U. gift day: Mesdames Kidd, Vogelli, Crawford, McFallen, Dodge, Whitney, Leonard, Mizer, Price, Reeves, Carrol and Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Noyes of Hyde Park, Vt., are new arrivals and will make their home in Medford.

Professor and Mrs. Smith will spend the summer in Eugene and Corvallis, in which places the professor expects to lecture.

Mrs. F. K. Page has as guests Mr. and Mrs. Knight. They have taken a bungalow on Orange street and will make Medford their home.

News has been received from Mrs.

Jeff Heard that Miss Heard is rapidly improving. Mrs. and Miss Heard are at Burke's sanitarium, Santa Rosa, Cal.

The regular monthly meeting of Pocahontas Tribe will be held Friday evening, March 25, at Redmen's hall.

The order of the Eastern Star will hold an initiation next Wednesday evening, March 23, followed by a dance at Masonic hall. All members are requested to be there promptly at 7:30.

The Guild of St. Mark's church will meet Thursday afternoon at the church for Lenten services at 3 p. m.

The Swastika club will give another of its popular dances Easter Monday, March 28. This will be the first Swastika dance in some weeks, as none have been given during Lent.

Through an error, a meeting of the Greater Medford club was announced for Wednesday, March 16, but as it was given without the authority or knowledge of the president or secretary, no meeting was held.

The friends of Colonel and Mrs. Ray will be delighted to learn of their return, as they are now at their charming home at Gold Ray, after an extended trip east.

Mrs. Dunlop entertained at bridge in her charming new home on Siskiyou Heights Saturday afternoon in honor of Madame Dunlop.

Mrs. English entertained at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Gertrude Trechler.

Mrs. J. M. Keene has returned from an extended visit in California. Dr. Keene met her in San Francisco.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church will hold an experience social at the church on the evening of April 1 from 6 to 9.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the church.

The Colonial club will not meet this week.

Mrs. Carey entertained informally at bridge Wednesday afternoon.

The Juvenile Dancing club met Wednesday evening at the Angle opera house and all had a most enjoyable time.
